TAGGART'S DEN IS PROTECTED

His Monte Carlo Has Immunity From the Authorities.

ELEGANT EQUIPMENT

Even the Slot Machines Are Heavily Patronized by Children.

EVERYTHING RUNS WIDE OPEN

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

French Lick Springs, Ind., Aug. 3.—Now that Thomas Taggart, president of the French Lick Springs Hotel Company, has become a national character politically, national attention is being directed to the miniature Monte Carlo that is being conducted here on the grounds and under the protection of the hotel company.

The casinos here and in West Baden are the most elaborately equipped and elegantly appointed gambling houses in the middle west. In point of magnificence the resort here leads. Owing to the immunity from molestation by the authorities, the promoters and managers of the French Lick casino have been enabled with safety to invest a large sum in sumptuous appointments. Few gambling adjuncts of many European spas are more handsomely or expensively furnished.

The owner of the majority of the bonds of the French Lick Company is the Monon railroad, which has the only line of railroad running to the Springs. Mr. Taggart's financial holdings in the French Lick Company are said to be large. When the company was organized Mr. Taggart was chosen president and is the general manager of the property.

The building used as a gambling house was formerly a bottling house, but a new bottling house was built in the rear of the hotel and the old one converted to the use of the gamesters. It is a large frame building, about 200 feet from the hotel. The lower story is devoted to bowling, billiards and slot machines. The last named are heavily patronized and among the players are a large number of children. The gambling house proper occupies the second story of the casino. It is under the direction of A. H. Brown, the lessee of the building. Brown is a gambler who came from Michigan and who has a monopoly of all the gambling rights in French Lick. A wide piazza extends across the entire front of the building on both floors. Just inside this on the second floor is a reception and lounging room, also extending across the building.

The space in the rear of the building, corresponding with the reception room in the front part, is divided into semi-private club rooms for card games. The entire space between these sections is divided by a partition running the length of it into two long rooms, the one one the right as the building is entered being devoted to stocks and grain and the horses, and the one on the left to the big "banking" games. A Chicago firm maintains the brokerage office and one-half of one wall is occupied by the quotations blackboard. Next to this blackboard is the one used for race betting.

When the Western Union Telegraph Company, some months ago, abolished its race betting service the poolroom here was abandoned until special service could be secured. Arrangements for this service are now being made and the files of "dope" are being kept up to date in anticipation of the reopening. In the other large room are faro, roulette, the "horse" game and others of a similar kind. The apparatus or layouts are of the most expensive make. The rooms are all finished in mahogany and the furniture is of the same material, upholstered in leather.

CHAMBERMAID FOUND BOMB WHERE PITTSBURGHER SLEPT

Landlord Suspected Another Von Plehve Plot and Summoned the Detectives.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The chambermaid found it this morning when she entered the room at the Mount Vernon hotel. It lay on the floor under the bed and resembled a section of overgrown gaspipe, plugged at both ends and with a fuse attached. The chambermaid sidestepped. The landlord reads the newspapers and when the chambermaid reported her suspicions, he went to the room and confirmed them.

"Somebody trying to do a von Plehve stunt around here," he remarked and called up detective headquarters. Detective Horne gingerly carried the bomb to Capt. Boardman, who inspected it, and sent it to the navy yard for the experts to dissect.

The room at the Mount Vernon hotel had been occupied by a man who registered as "M. von Derdon, Pittsburgh, Pa." He arrived at the hotel about midnight and left at 8 o'clock in the morning.

This evening Capt. Boardman called up the navy yard for a report. "How about that bomb we sent over to you?" he inquired.

"Bomb?" was the reply "Why that was nothing but an overworked dry electric battery." L. W. STRAYER.

VEILED THREAT CARRIED IN AMBASSADOR'S REPLY?

LONDON, Aug. 3.—In order to avoid complications which might have the effect of extending the area of war, Russia, replying to British representations regarding the closure of the Dardanelles to vessels of the volunteer fleet intended for warlike uses as well as warships, advised Foreign Secretary Lansdowne that the Russian government consents to waive the rights to send ships through the straits during the present war, but at the same time makes no concession in relation to the general principle involved and reserves to herself the right to take such action as she deems proper when the war with Japan terminates.

MAY NOMINATE A DARK HORSE

West Virginia Democrats Delay Balloting for Governor.

DAVIS IN WIGWAM

The Vice Presidential Candidate Says His Duty is to Keep Silent.

FIGHT ON NEGRO QUESTION

By WALTER J. CHRISTY.
(Staff Correspondent.)
[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Parkersburg, W. Va., Aug. 3.—By preventing the nomination of a candidate for governor tonight, it is probable that William R. Thompson of Cabell county has lost his chance of gaining the place at the head of the state ticket and that a dark horse will be the nominee of the West Virginia Democrats for governor.

Tonight the dark horse was being groomed by John T. McGraw. He is Senator John J. Cornwall of Romney, Hampshire county; is 40 years old and for the last eight years has been a member of the state senate. At present he is the Democratic leader of the body. Senator Cornwall is also the chairman of the Second district Democratic national committee. Coming from the eastern panhandle, he has no entanglement with the southern end of the state and is looked upon as the man of the hour.

One cannot tell much about the man of the hour business down here. "Uncle Gassaway" may switch again tomorrow. He is an old man.

Thompson's friends are still hopeful that something will turn up to help him. Other men discussed as a candidate are Judge W. G. Bennett of Lewis, Judge S. V. Wood of Barbour, Judge Lewis N. Tavenner of Wood and John J. Davis of Clarksburg.

The balance of the ticket is still in doubt. Slate makers refuse to work until they have the governorship disposed of. John Wilkinson of Grafton is said to have been promised the nomination for secretary of state by McGraw. Wilkinson is the agent of the book trust in the state.

Davis' Duty to Keep Silent.

Just after the convention had been called to order for the evening's session, ex-Senator Henry G. Davis appeared at the stage entrance to the stockade. The band leader saw him first and the musicians played "Dixie." The "grand old man" was given a rousing reception. It was 15 minutes before the demonstration ended. There was another outburst when Chairman McGraw presented the Democratic candidate for vice president. Mr. Davis made the following brief speech:

I cannot refrain, my fellow-citizens, from an expression of my gratification at this large and enthusiastic convention of Democrats, showing, as it does, the same spirit of unity and determination in West Virginia that pervades the Democracy throughout all sections of the country. I must also express my appreciation of the kindly feeling of the members of this convention and of the party, shown so frequently since I arrived in the city by expressions of a desire that I should address this convention.

Our national standard-bearer, Judge Parker, will, on the 10th day of this month, be formally notified of his nomination, and in the acceptance thereof will naturally give his views upon the questions at issue in the campaign. A week later, on the 17th of the month, as you all know, I will be notified at White Sulphur Springs of my nomination for the office of vice president, and at that time it will be my duty to give some expression to my views on political issues. It is, therefore, I think, my duty that I should not now enter into a discussion of the issues.

I congratulate you upon this harmonious and enthusiastic gathering. All appreciate the responsibility that is upon you, and I am satisfied that your nominees will be men well fitted to lead the party to victory and to discharge the public duties they will be called upon to perform. Thanking you again for your kindly expression of good will, I congratulate you upon the prospects

Piling Up More Trouble.

ANOTHER SWITCH AT PARKERSBURG

Platform Committee Obeys Orders From New York on Negro Question.

TO BE FOUGHT IN CONVENTION

By AUSTIN BEACH.
[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

PARKERSBURG, W. VA., Aug. 3.—When ex-Gov. MacCorkle in his speech at the wigwam tonight declared that the eyes of the Democratic party the country over were focused on West Virginia he spoke the truth. "Uncle Gassaway" Davis and National Committeeman John T. McGraw have simply been flooded tonight with telegrams from David B. Hill, W. F. Sheehan and scores of other prominent Democrats in the east and west, imploring them to put a stop to any radical action on the negro quetion, fearing the effect it will have in states north of the Mason and Dixon line, which they count on as doubtful. And the telegrams have done the work the senders hoped to accomplish.

When the sub-committee on resolutions quit work late tonight it was said that there would be nothing in the platform of a lily white character. In the committee meeting this afternoon every member declared himself in favor of a lily white plan of action, but 13 of them took the position that the present was not an expedient time to take any action. A fighting minority refused to be whipped into line, and swore to take the negro up in convention and throw him out of the politics of the state for all time.

This small but aggressive minority has support in the convention and unless the bosses can suppress them between now and the reassembling of the convention

TOLD FAIRBANKS OF NOMINATION

Vice Presidential Candidate and Elihu Root Speak on Campaign Issues.

CHEERED BY HIS NEIGHBORS

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 3.—Charles W. Fairbanks was today formally notified of his nomination for vice president of the United States by the Republican national convention. The notification address was made by Elihu Root, former secretary of war. The exercises were held on the wide veranda of Senator Fairbanks' beautiful home, in the presence of members of the notification committee, consisting of one member from each state and territory, the governor and other state officers of Indiana, the Republican candidates for state office, the Indiana Republican congressional delegation, Indiana delegates and alternates to the national convention, the state central committee and the Republican editorial association. All these had been especially invited.

On the lawn surrounding three sides of the residence and extending far on all sides beneath the great forest trees were several thousand friends, neighbors and political supporters of the senior Indiana senator. Massed in a body were 1,000 members of the Marion club, who had acted as escort for the distinguished visitors.

The house was elaborately decorated. The day was one of the most beautiful of the year, and as Senator Fairbanks stood on the veranda watching the finishing touches being put to the preliminary arrangements, he smilingly said:

"This is the kind we used to call McKinley weather."

The especially invited guests were

ARE INDIGNANT OVER CRITICISM

Vladivostok Naval Officers Declare Their Squadron Acted Fairly and Legally.

THEY DESTROYED NO LIVES

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

LIVERPOOL, Aug. 3.—The owners of the British collier Foxton Hall, which was detained at Port Arthur from the time of the first attack made by the Japanese until early in March, and which suffered damage during her detention, have received compensation from the Russian government. The speedy settlement of the claim by Russia has greatly gratified shipowners here.

VLADIVOSTOK, Aug. 3.—The reception of the cruisers Rossia, Gromoboi and Rurik on returning from their last expedition was very enthusiastic. Rear Admiral Jessen was in signal communication with Vice Admiral Skrydloff for ten hours before the squadron reached port.

The officers of the squadron are indignant because of the criticism of the British and American press over the alleged "lawless acts" of the cruisers, claiming that the complete details of the cruise will show that Admiral Jessen displayed the greatest humanity, and acted within his rights and instructions.

The crew of the Japanese vessel Okashima were sent on shore before the ship was sunk, and the crew of two schooners which were fa from shore were taken on board the Russian vessels.

The British steamer Knight Commander when signaled to stop refused to do so, even after three shots had been fired across her bows. The officers say that her evident intention was to escape, which in itself rendered her liable, under

COULDN'T CHANGE LUCK EVEN BY BOLTING

Michigan Democrats Repudiate Justus S. Stearns and Nominate W. N. Ferris for Governor.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

GRAND RAPIDS, MICH., Aug. 3.—After it had been generally conceded that Justus S. Stearns of Ludington would be nominated for governor by the Democratic state convention, following his statement today that he had bolted the Republican party and would support the Democratic ticket, both national and state, the convention this evening nominated for governor on the first ballot, Woodbridge N. Ferris of Big Rapids. Mr. Stearns was three times a prominent candidate for the Republican nomination for governor.

National Committeeman D. J. Campau of Detroit strongly opposed Stearns' nomination from the first, contending that a Democrat should be placed at the head of the ticket. Mr. Stearns' candidacy was supported by the Wayne county delegation and by a majority of the Kent county delegation, which are the two strongest numerically in the state.

KING CHRISTIAN IGNORES WARNINGS OF PHYSICIANS

COPENHAGEN, Aug. 3.—The royal physicians are urging King Christian not to go to Ribe, where festivities will be held next week. The king doggedly refuses to abandon his journey. While the state of his health is not alarming, his majesty is feeble and he has been ordered to seek quiet and rest.

WIFE WAS ALL ATTENTION WHEN HUSBAND LAUGHED

He Was With Another Woman on a Trolley—Trouble Was Settled in Police Court.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 3.—When Mrs. Bella McCloskey entered a trolley car near her home this morning, peace brooded over the car. Up in the front seat a couple chatted in a pleasant manner all unnoticed by Mrs. McCloskey, until the Fifteenth street crossing. Just then the man laughed at a witty sally by his companion. Something in that laugh reminded Mrs. McCloskey of home, and she took a closer look.

"Why, Frank! Oh, you wretch! What do you mean? Who is this woman?"

"Madame," sternly interrupted the conductor, "what is the matter?"

"Matter? Why, this is my husband."

"Oh, is that it?" said the conductor, and rang the bell. "You'll have to settle it outside the car."

Mrs. McCloskey continued to tell Frank what she thought of him until a policeman gathered the two of them in for disturbing the peace. McCloskey's friend fled when the car stopped.

Before Magistrate O'Brien they managed to hold Mrs. McCloskey down long enough for her husband to say that he could explain the whole thing. So the magistrate forced them to make up.

CHESTER D. POTTER.

Monument for Washington's Redeemer.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—(Special.)—U. S. J. Dunbar, a Washington sculptor, has been awarded the contract for a heroic statue of Alexander R. ("Boss") Shepherd, the man who rescued Washington from the mud and to whose energy and determination the present beauty of the city is due.

"THANK GOD, NOW I CAN GO TO THE GRAVE OF MY BABY"

Pathetic Exclamation of a Foreign Mother Whose Child Died at Ellis Island.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—The department of commerce and labor has allowed Simon Sampan, his wife and two children, who arrived on the Philadelphia on July 10, to land after they had been ordered deported. Sampan's 5-year-old boy, his eldest child, died while the family was detained on Ellis Island. The body was borne away to a grave unknown to the parents. Their grief was so extreme over leaving the land where their little one was buried that Albert Lucas, secretary of the Union of Orthodox Jews congregations, applied to Commissioner General Sargent for permission to reopen the case. He also obtained offers of employment for Sampan. The board of inquiry, on the showing made by Mr. Lucas, allowed the distressed family to land.

The mother stooped to kiss the hand of Mr. Lucas, exclaiming: "Thank God; now I can go to the grave of my baby."

POPULISTS TALK FUSION WITH THE DEMOCRATS

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Some Populists tonight conferred with Democrats who are opposed to Judge Parker. The meeting was called by James H. Ferris of Illinois, chairman of Populist party. The object was to confer with fe who have acted with the Democratic party, but who are not inclined to support the ticket during this campaign.

PRESIDENT NORD THROWS MONEY TO THE HAITIENS

United States Minister Powell Promises Efficacious Protection to All Those Who Appeal to Him.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

PORT-AU-PRINCE, Aug. 3.—President Nord, accompanied by all the members of his staff, paraded through the streets of the city today, throwing money to the natives running behind his carriage. The people fought for the coins, at the same time crying: "Long life to Nord," and "Down with the Syrians."

The Syrians are terror stricken and refuse to leave their houses.

United States Minister Powell has advised all of those who have consulted with him to be calm, promising them efficacious protection shortly.

LAMSDORFF DESIRES TO AVOID ANY UNPLEASANTNESS

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 3.—Mr. McCormick, the American ambassador, was busily engaged all day in picking up the threads of the diplomatic situation. This morning he saw several foreign ambassadors, including Sir Charles Hardinge, and this afternoon he had a conference with Foreign Minister Lamsdorff regarding the attitude of the United States. Count Lamsdorff is anxious to avoid any diplomatic incident with the United States government.

This Airship Acts Well.

OAKLAND, CAL., Aug. 3.—Capt. T. C. Baldwin made another ascension today with his airship from Idora park. He rose to a height of about 500 feet and then sailed northward for a distance of about 10 blocks in a slight breeze, made a turn, came back and descended in the park without any mishap.

RUSSIANS FLEE TO HAI-CHENG

Defeated at Simou Cheng, They Leave 1,500 Dead on the Field.

JAPANESE LOSS 966

Kuropatkin's Army Is Now Concentrated Around Its Base at Liao-Yang.

OMINOUS SILENCE AT FRONT

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

St. Petersburg, Aug. 3.—According to a message received from Harbin, Gen. Kuropatkin has ordered the removal from that place of all useless civilians, in order to provide the greatest possible accommodation for the winter quarters of the Russian army.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 3, 5:45 p. m.—The correspondent of the Associated Press hears that Emperor Nicholas has just received a telegram at Peterhoff containing alarming news. It is also reported that Viceroy Alexiff, who had gone to Harbin on his way to Vladivostok, returned to Liao-Yang yesterday and conferred with Gen. Kuropatkin regarding the situation.

ROME, Aug. 3.—Giornale D'Italia today published in an extra edition a dispatch from Tokyo, announcing that the Japanese armored cruiser Kasuga, formerly the Argentine warship Rivadavia, has been sunk.

Russians Left 1,500 Dead.

TOKYO, Aug. 3, 10 a. m.—The Japanese defeated the Russians at Tomu-Cheng (Simou-Cheng) and drove them toward Hai-Cheng in a sharp fight which began last Saturday and ended on Sunday. The Russians left 1,500 dead on the field and lost six guns. The Russians occupied a range of high hills north of Tomu-Cheng, which were strongly defended with covered trenches, and covered implacements which consumed months in construction.

The Japanese seized a range of heights to the southward on Saturday. They began the attack at daylight on Sunday. The Japanese left wing encountered severe opposition. The Russians were gradually reinforced, and their artillery was increased 21 guns.

The Japanese, who were also reinforced, renewed the atack at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and drove the Russians northward. The Japanese right, exposed to a severe artillery fire, was forced to halt.

The Russians, who were reinforced, assumed the offensive at 5:30 o'clock in the evening, but were repulsed with a heavy loss. The Russian artillery prevented the Japanese from pursuing, and during the night the Russians withdrew toward Hai-Cheng. The Japanese casualties were about 400.

Gen. Kuroki has telegraphed that in the two days' fighting at Yangse pass and Yu-Shu-Lin-Tza his losses were six officers killed, 16 officers wounded, and 950 killed and wounded.

Situation of the Russian Forces.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 3.—The Russian forces last night constituted a compact chain in the form of a semi-circle around Liao-Yang, extending from An-Shan-Shan, half way between Hai-Cheng and Liao-Yang, to An-Ping, which is only 13 miles east of Liao-Yang. Unless the bulk of Gen. Kuropatkin's army has already been withdrawn north of Liao-Yang it is difficult to see how he could now do so with such great pressure, the Japanese being almost upon his main lines.

Inasmuch as portions of four army corps were engaged in the fighting up to last night, and as these corps comprise three-quarters of the whole Russian army, it seems certain that nothing except a portion of the stores and munitions have yet been removed.

From the best information obtainable as to Gen. Kuropatkin's dispositions his forces were located this morning as follows: Gen. Zaroubaiff's and Gen. Stakelberg's corps formed the right wing at An-Shan-Shan. The First Siberian and Tenth European corps were on the left. The recently arrived Seventeenth corps, and the portion of Gen. Stoessel's corps which is not at Port Arthur were at Liao-Yang. Intense anxiety prevails in all circles. All newspaper specials from the front are suspended, which is considered ominous.

Losses May Reach 8,000.

The decisive battle of the campaign is regarded as certain if the Japanese energetically follow up their preliminary successes of the last three days. At various points the fighting has been of a desperate and bloody character, the Russians offering the most stubborn resistance. The losses, therefore, although their extent is not yet established, must be heavy on both sides. Between 6,000 and 8,000 men is one estimate given of the Russian losses. All the estimates, however, are little better than guesswork as yet, and possibly the Russian casualties may be much larger.

The strong screen drawn around Gen. Kuropatkin's interior positions has been driven in at all points, Hai-Cheng being practically abandoned without a blow.

The final detachment of the First army corps, recently mobilized in the St. Petersburg district, left for the front today. Two regiments of Cossacks have been added to this corps. The Fourth Don Cossack's division, raised by voluntary enlistment, under Gen. Tellsheff, leaves for the seat of war next week.

GEORGE A. KNIGHT PLACED ON THE COMMITTEE

CANTON, O., Aug. 3.—Republican National Chairman George B. Cortelyou, en route from Chicago to Washington, stopped over in Canton this afternoon to spend a few hours at the McKinley home. While here Mr. Cortelyou announced an additional member of the national Republican executive committee, in the person of George A. Knight of California.

LARGE STEEL DEAL CLOSED

Republic Company Sells the Pittsburgh Steel 110,000 Tons.

Independent Concern Will Supply Monessen Plant for the Next Ten Months.

$2,000,000 IN THE CONTRACT

One of the largest contracts for pig iron and steel awarded for many months has just been closed between the Pittsburgh Steel Company and the Republic Iron & Steel Company. It involves the delivery of 110,000 tons of billets to the Pittsburgh company at the latter's works at Monessen within the next 10 months. The contract involves about $2,000,000.

The matter has been under consideration for some time past. The deal as finally arranged has many interesting features. First of all, the contract is lost to the Carnegie Steel Company, which succeeded to the business of the Pittsburgh Steel Company through the purchase of the Clairton Steel Company by the United States Steel Corporation. The business goes to a concern outside of the steel corporation and assures that concern of enough work for its Bessemer plant to keep it in operation steadily for nearly a year, when the company's own needs for billets for its finishing mills are considered.

Price Below Pool Figure.

The second matter of interest is the price at which the deal is said to have been closed. The Pittsburgh Steel Company obtained 50,000 tons of the pig iron from the Bessemer association. The price paid was $12. From the Republic's own furnaces 25,000 tons more of the pig iron will come and 35,000 tons are to be taken from various outside interests. The Republic will convert all the iron.

The price at which the conversion was figured, f. o. b. Youngstown, it is said, was $6. This is a decided cut below the usual charge for conversion. It is claimed that as high as $9.50 has been considered the regular price, but others have figured as low as $8 in fixing the price of billets in the contracts, with a sliding scale based on pig iron prices.

Computed on the $6 conversion base the price of the billets to the Pittsburgh Steel Company at Monessen will be practically $19.25. Just a few weeks ago the billet association went through the formality of reaffirming the association price of $23 per ton, Pittsburgh. It has been claimed for some time past that that price did not represent the real market on any new work and the present deal is cited as an instance of it.

Much Pig Iron Bought.

This deal is the largest one that has been made in a period of 10 days of considerable activity in the pig iron market. Buyers have in that time closed contracts which aggregate upwards of 200,000 tons. The majority of the contracts for northern Bessemer have been made at from $12.25 to $12.35 at the furnaces. No. 2 foundry sales have also been large, the price ranging from $11.75 to $12 at the furnaces. The sales of southern iron in the same period have been noteworthy.

The contracts mean a great deal more activity in the valley than has been seen for several months. The Bessemer plant of the Republic will resume operations Monday on the new business, and a number of stacks in the valley that went out of blast in June will be in operation within a week or two.

Czar Likely to Name Him to Succeed Plehve—He and Witte Confer With Ruler.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 3.—The czar will not reach a final decision regarding the successor of the late M. von Plehve until he consults his uncle, the Grand Duke Sergius, tomorrow.

M. Witte had an audience with the emperor today on the occasion of signing of the German-Russian commercial treaty. The audience was long and before it ended M. Muravieff, the minister of justice, arrived and the emperor discussed with the two ministers the proposed reforms for the ministry of the interior. It is considered more and more probable that M. Muravieff will become minister of the interior, but if so he will not be chief of the gendarmie, which now includes the department of political police, which was merged into this portfolio in the case of the late M. von Plehve.

MRS. HANNA SENDS $10,000 FOR REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 3.—(Special.)—Mrs. M. A. Hanna has sent two personal checks for $5,000 each to Secretary Dover of the Republican national committee at Chicago, one for the national campaign and the other for the Ohio campaign. These are the contributions of the family of the late senator to the cause of Republicanism, and for the election of Theodore Roosevelt, as indicated in Mrs. Hanna's letter to Mr. Dover.

ICE IS FORBIDDEN TO ALL RETAILERS

Latest Move of Strikers Will Cause Much Annoyance to Meat Dealers.

POLICE ARE IN A FIERCE RIOT

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—The threatened spread of the stock yards strike to outside industries came tonight, when an order was issued by the teamsters' union prohibiting drivers of ice wagons from making deliveries to retail merchants who, since the packing house teamsters went on strike, have been hauling meat from the yards in their own wagons. As the refrigerators in the meat markets do not hold enough ice to last longer than 48 hours, if the order cutting off the supply of ice can be enforced, it means that the majority of people in Chicago will be compelled to go on short rations as far as meat is concerned. The officials of the teamsters' union have appointed pickets to watch the meat markets all over the city, and these men have been instructed to see that the boycott is carried out to the limit.

The exodus of horses put out of business by the strike began today when Swift & Co. sent 160 horses to Kansas City for use in the firm's plants there. It is said that other packers will follow the lead, and that within two weeks not more than 200 of the 2,000 horses formerly used in the stock yards will be in the city. It is the purpose of the packers to make the market men come to the stock yards or to the branch packing houses for supplies.

Packers Lose Money.

Outside of the decision of the striking unions to extend the strike to the icemen there was little change over yesterday in the situation at the stock yards today. With their new employes and those that have deserted the unions the packers managed to dispose of 50 per cent as much work as is carried on under normal conditions.

Less than 300 new employes arrived at the various plants today, this being the smallest number of strike breakers received during any day since the employes decided to bring outsiders to Chicago. The packers declare that the reason for the small addition to their forces today is that they are about through hiring workmen, and are now choosing only the most skilled from among new arrivals.

While admitting that the packers are doing considerable business, the strike leaders declare that the employers are losing money on every animal that is slaughtered, as the unskilled workers waste all the by-products. It is on this waste that the strikers base their hopes for final success, arguing that it is only a matter of time until the employers will become tired of losing money, and will eventually make overtures to the unions for a settlement.

Police in Riot.

In a riot which broke out at the yards tonight two policemen were injured and 28 rioters were arrested after having been beaten into subjection. Five strike breakers from a machine shop in one of the packing plants were leaving the yards, and tried to board a street car to go to their homes. Despite their signals the motorman on 12 cars refused to stop, and a crowd standing near by, seeing a good opportunity to get revenge on the non-union men, commenced hurling stones at them.

Two policemen went to the assistance of the non-union men, but the rioters by this time had grown in numbers so rapidly that fully 1,000 angry men were trying to get at the strike breakers. Retreating into the machine shop the policemen sent in a riot call. When the additional policemen arrived a charge was made.

The crowd was armed with bricks and stones and when the policemen started forward every man who could find room enough threw a brick. Two of the bricks went true to the mark and two of the policemen dropped in their tracks, having been hit on the head. They were picked up by their companions and taken inside the machine shop, where it was found one of the men, Patrick Ryan, was suffering from a fractured skull.

Seeing the condition of their companions the other 15 policemen made another charge on the crowd. This time the onslaught was in earnest, 18 clubs being swung from right to left with all the muscle that each man could muster. Every time a club descended it landed on a man's head, and fully 50 of the rioters were beaten to the pavement in this manner before they showed any sign of scattering. As soon as the policemen saw that they had the mob on the run, they turned their attention to those who were lying on the ground, and succeeded in arresting 28 of them before they could scramble to their feet and get away.

Arm Strike Breakers.

ZEIGLER, ILL., Aug. 3.—An engine hauling one baggage car and two coaches, carrying miners to take the place of strikers arrived here today, escorted by 20 armed guards. The train was backed into Joseph Leiter's stockade and unloaded without interference. One of the guards was shot through the hand while leaving the car by the accidental discharge of his weapon. Leiter accompanied the men. Rapid-fire guns were in position and guards centered in the inclosure, all outposts being watched by deputy sheriffs.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Aug. 3.—Twenty-three experienced butchers were sent from this city today to take the places of men on strike at the stock yards in Chicago. They will receive $5 a day in addition to the board and lodging, and are guaranteed protection. It is understood that they will be armed before reaching Chicago.

WOMAN SCARES BURGLAR.

Negro Robber Ran from a House in Wylie Avenue.

A negro burglar entered the home of Daniel J. Dwyer, No. 1027 Wylie avenue, late Monday night and so terrified his wife, who was alone, that she is now feeble from nervous prostration. The burglar climbed on the porch roof in the rear of the house and taking the screen from the window was walking through the hallway when he encountered Mrs. Dwyer.

The woman screamed and ran to her room, locking the door. Her cries frightened the burglar and he left the house without taking anything. Later Mr. Dwyer returned and found his wife prostrated. Physicians were summoned and although she has been constantly treated since she is still weak from the shock. The case was reported to Superintendent of Detectives McQuaide.

M'KEESPORT CONTRACTOR IS BEATEN AND ROBBED

While waiting for a McKeesport car at the south end of the Glenwood bridge last night John M. Klein, a contractor of South Duquesne avenue, Duquesne, was held up and robbed of $200 and a gold watch and chain valued at $75. Klein had been to the South Side and received money for work he had completed. On the South Side car he met two men and invited them to a saloon to get a drink. After leaving the place he was assaulted and badly beaten by the men. When he reached McKeesport he furnished descriptions of his assailants to the police.

Slav Had Plenty of Money.

Sam Disnick, an Allegheny Slav, was held in $1,000 bail for court by Alderman Lynch yesterday. Disnick and a friend, Samuel Mlanck, were drinking together on Tuesday afternoon and both went to sleep in the boarding house of Mrs. Anna Matraken, 62 Spruce street. Disnick took $2?6 from his friend and the woman made the information. Mlanick refused to prosecute, but the alderman held Disnick for court.

WEST VIRGINIA DEMOCRATS DELAY BALLOT FOR GOVERNOR—MAY NOMINATE DARK HORSE

for the success of Democracy, both in state and nation.

During Mr. Davis' speech he was interrupted by Delegate Flowers of Cabell county, who suggested: "Make it the white's man's state." "I agree with you on the white man," was the quick reply of Davis. This caused a demonstration. The standard of Randolph, Pendleton, Kanawha, Raleigh, Gilo, Calhoun and Gilmer counties were carried to the front of the stage while the crowd yelled. The white man's party question is going to cause trouble in the convention before it adjourns, and the remarks of Davis has given fresh hope to the men from the "Black Belt" who want the negro eliminated.

The counties of Kanawha, McDowell and Fayette have a combined negro vote of 9,300. The delegates from there say that the colored men now know that they cannot expect anything from the Democrats, and while votes will be gotten by the adoption of a strong negro plank, strong Democrats have said today that if the plank is defeated the party will go down with it. Davis has been a strong advocate of the white man, but McGraw and others of his managers believe htat it is bad policy for the home state of the vice presidential candidate to force this issue on the country. They say that it will be used by the Republicans in the doubtful northern states.

Harmony Soon Shattered.

Hardly had "Uncle Gassaway" finished his speech counseling harmony than the first fierce fight of the convention broke loose. It came on the report of the committee on order of business. The committee fixed the program of the convention so that the report of the committee on resolutions would come prior to the nomination of candidates. As the platform builders are tied up on the negro question and cannot be able to report before 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, if then, the followers of William R. Thompson in the convention wanted to proceed to the nomination of a candidate for governor tonight.

The report of the committee on order of business was offered and a motion was made to adopt it. In the hope of preventing adjournment Joseph Chilton, one of the Thompson managers, made a motion to adjourn. It was greeted by a storm of noes and Chilton finally withdrew his motion, thinking the convention would agree to nominate.

Ex-Gov. W. A. MacCorkle moved to amend the report of the committee on order of business so as to permit of the nomination of candidates. This precipitated a long debate in which lengthy speeches were made on the negro question and most others. "Private" Kincaid of Marshall sought to prevent the adoption of the MacCorkle amendment on the ground that it put the cart before the horse and was dangerous to name a candidate before his platform had been erected. To prove his point he cited the case of Hans Good of Wheeling. A number of years ago he was nominated for congress before the nominating convention had adopted a platform. Good died prior to election.

After this horrible example had been presented to the delegates some one made a motion to adjourn and the roll call was ordered. The followers of Thompson tried to defeat the motion, but when Putnam county was reached those favoring the adjournment had the fight won and Thompson had shown but 290 votes. A Cabell county delegate moved to suspend the roll call and make the motion unanimous. This was done and the convention will meet at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, and if the platform committee is ready a long fight is anticipated.

Not Accustomed to Prayer.

The stockade was packed this afternoon when Thomas B. Davis, a brother of "Uncle Gassaway," called the Democratic state convention to order. The Rev. J. R. Litchell of the Second United Presbyterian church invoked the divine blessing. He was considerably interrupted in the delivery of his prayer by cries of "louder," but explanation for the interruption is found in the fact that prayer is not a part of the daily routine of Democratic life in West Virginia.

Col. John T. McGraw of Grafton was the temporary chairman of the convention. He delivered a speech which would fill many columns of a newspaper. The gentleman from Grafton, besides amassing millions, is given to flights of oratory. Sometimes one has cause to wonder how he intends to get back to earth.

When he mentioned Parker there was hardly more than a ripple of applause among the several thousand Democrats. Later he flung the name of "Uncle Gassaway" at the crowd. They love the old man and his barrel and there was something approaching a demonstration. The only time during the afternoon that the convention rose on its hindlegs and showed its fangs was when Col. McGraw touched on the negro question. He spoke of how William McKinley had healed the wounds of the south and said:

Helped McGraw Back to Earth.

"They were reopened by Theodore Roosevelt in breaking bread under the national roof with one whom God had not made as his social equal, in imposing upon the southern people men of like color as their public servants and political peers and in attempting, by a plank in his party's platform, to disfranchise southern representatives and nullify southern votes in the electoral college."

McGraw is a politician and in uttering these words he hoped to please his auditors.

In one of his trips to the skies Col. McGraw made promises that if the Democratic party came into power, it will haul down the flag in the Philippines, "as we did when it floated over the halls of the Montezumas, on the plains of Mexico; over the ramparts of Tripoli, under the burning skies of Africa, and as we did from the walls of Pekin in the land of Confuscius."

In its stead the colonel promises to raise the standard of a new republic and carry the blessings of civic and religious liberty to the nations of the other hemisphere. Then, "when so raised, the flag will stand boldly in the islands of the South sea as did the burning cross in the heavens which lured Constantine to Christianity."

Just when everyone was wondering how the colonel could be rescued and brought back to earth, an Ohio county delegate solved the problem by shouting, "Thank the Lord!"

Col. McGraw dwelt at length on the tax question and endeavored to make his party believe that it had some ground for congratulation because of the alleged mistakes the Republican members of the legislature are making at Charleston.

There are about 1,000 delegates in the convention and a wonderful collection of types of men has been brought together under the roof of the stockade. It is a gathering of generals, colonels and majors. Until almost the close of the afternoon session a private had not been recognized.

Chairman McGraw either greeted each person addressing him as a person owning a military title or as a senator, until the delegate from Marshall rose to make the inquiry as to whether the platform could be amended, if not satisfactory to any delegate. The colonel dodged a decision, and showed his displeasure by recognizing him as "Mr. Kincaid of Marshall."

It developed that there were no contests in the convention and the fact seemed to cause so much surprise that there was a general uproar. The sergeant-at-arms tried to get delegates into their seats and was not meeting with much success, when Chairman McGraw announced that if necessary he would call upon the mayor of Parkersburg to furnish enough policemen to preserve order.

Some delegate promptly announced: "You'll get into a hell of a row if you do."

There was every indication that the Davis crowd had planned to run the convention on the cut and dried order. Every resolution presented was typewritten. The one which shut off debate on resolutions was not well received. But it was declared adopted.

Wants to Save the State.

Something was lost to history this afternoon when Chairman McGraw continually refused to recognize Col. "Bill" Nave of Brook county. When the presiding officer told him to wait 20 minutes the genial gentleman of the old school bowed to the machine and found employment in an endeavor to prevent his eyeglasses from passing beyond the point of his nose. He won his colonelcy on the battle fields of St. Joseph, Mo.

The plan of the Davis machine was to have the convention take a recess until 8 o'clock tonight. Effort was made to amend the motion so that the convention would adjourn until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Senator Robert Kidd of Gilmer objected. He said that he had to return to Charleston tomorrow evening and that he wanted to see the state saved before he departed. Not wishing to disappoint him, the convention voted to take a recess until this evening.

Congressman A. G. Dayton of of the Second district was here today on his way from Charleston, where he is assisting the Republicans in carrying out their ideas on tax reform.

"There is no question about West Virginia remaining in the Republican column," said he. "Roosevelt will have a majority of from 25,000 to 30,000. In the last four years thousands of voters have moved into West Virginia from Pennsylvania and other states, and they are nearly all Republicans. The Democrats hoped for disruption in the Republican ranks over the nomination of the governor. It has not occurred. We who supported Mr. Teter are all in line for Mr. Dawson. The Republican convention was composed of young Republicans and they do not know anything but party loyalty. The Democrats expect that Davis will receive many complimentary votes, but they will find that when the electors come to the point of cutting the ticket most of them will not attempt the task."

DEMOCRATS MADE ANOTHER SWITCH AT PARKERSBURG

there will be the biggest row the Democratic party of this state in convention assembled has yet had or will have. The Holt-Thompson affair of last night will be simply a sideshow compared with the disturbance that will follow the introduction of the platform, if indications count for anything.

The resolutions committee is composed of the following: Chairman, C. W. Dailey, the man "Uncle Gassaway" first wanted nominated for governor, but who would not have it; John H. Holt, who was "Uncle Gassaway's" second choice, but who the delegates would not have; Gen. J. W. St. Clair, one of the Kanawha bosses; John J. Davis of Clarksburg; former Attorney General T. S. Riley of Wheeling, and G. E. West, George W. Johnson, B. J. Somerville, W. W. Marquis, W. H. Sawyers, W. G. Mathews, Fred L. Fox, George M. Alexander, J. W. McNeill and William Campbell.

The committee met in the city council chamber immediately after the recess adjournment this afternoon. There was an air of embarrassment about the gathering at the outset and the members held many whispered conferences, glancing askance meanwhile at a good-sized crowd of delegates who had followed them to their meeting place and stated that they proposed to have the negro eliminated, and that if the committee did not do this work they would take the platform and reconstruct it in the convention.

It was finally resolved that the meeting of the committee should be a star chamber affair. It was four hours later when the committeemen left the room and went in search of refreshments. None of them looked pleased and many looked furious. It was given out that nothing had been done beyond referring the entire platform to a sub-committee composed of Dailey, Holt, Riley, St. Clair and Davis, and that the committee would meet again early tomorrow morning and that the chances favored the presentation of majority and minority reports.

It is said that the negro question was sprung as soon as the doors were closed and that everybody got into a row right at the jump-off. It is also said that St. Clair, who was counted on by the negro haters from the Kanawha valley to take a radical stand, came out for the conservative side of the question. The presumption is that he did this under orders from "Uncle Gassaway," but be it as it may, there are vials of wrath bottled for St. Clair and the radicals will empty them later on.

The sub-committee has been locked up at the Hotel Chancellor all the evening and at midnight was still in session. The tax reform plank is being prepared by Holt, who, with "Uncle Gassaway," represented the Democracy on Gov. White's tax reform commission, and John J. Davis, who was frequently consulted by Holt and "Uncle Gassaway" concerning what recommendations the commission should make.

It has all along been said that there would be a resolution presented indorsing the candidacy of Col. John T. McGraw for the United States senate, but tonight there is a rumor afloat that ex-Gov. MacCorkle aspires for this indorsement provided the plans of the MacCorkle-Chilton faction are as successful as they were in overthrowing the candidacy of Holt for the governorship. This would bring about a further complication of affairs and drive harmony further into the woods than it has already been forced.

HOLT TAKES HIS MEDICINE IN DEFENSE OF DAVIS

"Uncle Gassaway's" Surrender Makes Pretense of Victory a Hollow Mockery.

By AUSTIN BEACH,

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

PARKERSBURG, W. VA., Aug. 3.—All possibility of Judge John H. Holt being considered a candidate for the gubernatorial nomination was removed this morning, when he met with his neighbors, the Cabell county delegation, and made this statement:

"I regard you all as my neighbors and friends and I want to make clear to you the position I am in. When I came to Parkersburg I was not a candidate for governor. I met Senator Henry G. Davis here and he wanted me to be a candidate and yesterday I was a candidate. This morning Senator Davis does not want me to be a candidate and I am no longer to be considered as such. My only purpose in all this controversy has been to best conserve the interests of Senator Davis."

And on the face of it this was all there was to the Holt movement. But there is much more behind it. On the Sunday morning that "Uncle Gassaway" was made the vice presidential candidate at St. Louis, Col. John T. McGraw telegraphed to Holt to the effect that he must be the gubernatorial nominee; that the elimination of Davis from the state roll by the national convention left no other course open. The fact that they were forced by the MacCorkle-Chilton element to throw down Holt has been a bitter dose for the McGrawites and for "Uncle Gassaway." They regard Holt as the brainiest, ablest man they could put up, and that they had to abandon him, leaving him an innocent victim of the wrecking of their own carefully laid plans, makes the smiles of complacency with which they predict victory under another candidate, a hollow and painful mockery. No man here has been more unmercifully abused and slandered than Holt and really he deserves none of the vicious abuse, but he has to stand it because to protest would be to put "Uncle Gassaway" in an embarrassing position.

INDIGNANT OVER CRITICISM

Russian naval rules, to have a shot fired into her hull. She stopped, however, at the fourth shot, and was found to contain between 3,000 and 4,000 tons of railway material from New York for Kobe and Yokohama. The captain's documents were not in order, and he said that his instructions had been sent in advance by mail. Both ship and cargo, the Russians believed, were undoubtedly subject to confiscation.

As the Knight Commander had not enough coal to go to Vladivostok, Admiral Jessen assumed the responsibility of sinking the ship, although she was flying a neutral flag.

Thea Distinctly Contraband.

In the case of the German steamer Thea, Admiral Jessen had no doubt that her cargo, which consisted of fish, was distinctly contraband of war. Her crew was taken off at night during a heavy sea and she was sent to the bottom.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Ambassador McCormick has cabled the state department from St. Petersburg that, in reply to his inquiries relative to the seizure of the Hamburg-American steamer Arabia by the Vladivostok squadron with a cargo of American goods, which was represented by the agents to include no contraband, the Russian minister for foreign affairs has said:

"In conformity with the rules of conconduct, published by the imperial government some time ago, a detachment of Russian war vessels seized on the 22d of July, 100 miles north of Yokohama, the steamship Arabia, which was then taken to Vladivostok and the case of her seizure was laid before the local courts. Upon the decision of this court will rest the question as to whether the Arabia is to be released or treated as a prize."

The state department has telegraphed this notice to the several American firms which have complained of the seizure of their goods on the Arabia, in order that they may, if they care to do so, appear by counsel before the prize court. A prize court is not regarded here as a strictly judicial tribunal, and there is ample precedent for requesting a revision of its work and judgment in case the latter is unsatisfactory and believed to have been irregular.

Our Stand on Foodstuffs.

The state department is in telegraphic communication with its agencies abroad respecting the Russian seizures and destruction of American goods, but it is not yet ready to define precisely its position as to the whole subject of seizures. These exchanges are not confined to St. Petersburg and Washington, but are intended to develop the purposes of the governments of other nations and particularly of Great Britain and Germany, whose shipping has suffered more than that of any other.

It is said here that the precedents already established in the Spanish and Boer wars, as well as in the operations in China during the Black Flag uprising have worked so satisfactorily and have received such universal approval that under no circumstances will America now recede from the doctrine that foodstuffs not directly intended for the use of a belligerent army or navy cannot be regarded as contraband. While this contention is directly at variance with the Russian decree on the subject as promulgated at the beginning of the present war, in view of the fact that it is believed to be the German position, and is certainly that of the British, the state department is sure of sufficient support to oblige the Russian government to abandon its contention and to desist from further seizures of American foodstuffs consigned not only to China, but even to individuals in Japan unless it can be clearly shown by the Russians that the food is destined for the Japanese army or navy.

There is no disposition to make an issue further of the Ardova case. This British ship was seized by one of the volunteer Russian cruisers in the Red sea and sent to Suez, where she was released and resumed her journey. She had aboard a quantity of supplies for the Philippine government. The American government is willing to concede the right of stoppage and search to a reasonable degree. But the mails on the Ardova were ransacked and delayed. While all the facts are not at hand it is possible that some of these were American mails. Without further studying the subject the government is not willing to admit the right of interference to this degree.

NO SYMPATHY MEETING WAS HELD IN OLD CITY HALL

Action Taken Was Not Toward Establishing a Relief Fund—More Meat Markets Close.

The meeting which had been announced among local trades unionists to be held in Old City hall last night to establish a relief fund for Chicago strikers did not materialize. The janitor of the building remained until 10 o'clock, but none of the leaders of the movement appeared. Three persons who had seen the announcement in the newspapers went to the hall, but denied that they had any part in the proposed meeting. The steamfitters' local held its annual weekly meeting on the third floor of the building, and when they left the hall was closed.

One of the strangers who went to attend the meeting was asked if he expected to contribute to the strikers' fund, but he answered that he was more concerned in getting a soup bone for his own Sunday dinner. Another said that he went merely out of curiosity. Several labor union men who stopped to speak to the steamfitters declared that they felt no interest in the beef strikers' movement.

Three more meat markets in the Monongahela valley have closed their doors owing to the falling off of trade owing to the Chicago strike. A. M. Myers & Sons closed their meat market at 255 Eighth avenue, Homestead, at noon yesterday and stated the place would remain closed until the strike was settled. J. R. Grosser's meat market in North Braddock was closed yesterday and a card on the door announced that the place would not be opened until meat prices came down. The meat market of L. L. Phillips in East Pittsburgh also closed yesterday owing to high prices.

CHARGED WITH DESERTION.

Railroader Arrested on Information Made by His Wife.

W. E. Carnes, a railroader of 88 Forty-fourth street, was arrested by the Lawrenceville police last night on complaint of his wife, charging desertion and nonsupport. It is alleged that five years ago Carnes left his wife and children in Parkersburg, W. Va. A year ago he is said to have returned and kidnaped his 11-year-old son, taking him to this city.

On July 5 the mother received a letter that her son had been seriously hurt by an explosion on July 4 and that he was in Mercy hospital. She procured money to come here and found that he had never been in the hospital. She found that her husband had been living with another woman, she alleges, but the woman and boy had disappeared.

Strange Chain of Fatalities.

BRIDGEPORT, CONN., Aug. 3.—(Special.)—In an effort to save his sister, Mrs. Rose Keynsky of New York city, from drowning in Parlor Rock Lake, near Long Hill, this afternoon Bernard Weiner, 21 years old, of New York was drowned, the sister he tried to save succumbed to the effects of her struggle in the water, and her husband, who was thrown out of his wagon on to his head while driving to the scene of the accident from this city, is now violently insane.

MENZI IDENTIFIED AS PORTAGE BANDIT

Campbell Declares One of Italians Arrested at Blairsville Is Man Who Shot Him.

TWO SUSPECTS IN PITTSBURGH

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

JOHNSTOWN, PA., Aug. 3.—Paymaster Patrick F. Campbell today identified Gundo Menzi, one of the four Italians arrested at Blairsville, as the bandit who shot him with a revolver as he lay in the road after the fusilade from highwaymen which killed his driver, Charles Hays, and wounded the paymaster, near Portage, Saturday.

Besides the wounded man there were in the room at the hospital in Altoona Dr. Sheedy, two nurses, Railroad Officers Frazier and Robinson and the trembling suspect handcuffed to County Detective Ed Knee. When the group had reached the bedside Campbell looked sharply at the foreigner and whispered to Dr. Sheedy to have the man put on his hat, which had been removed when he entered the room. When this was done Campbell without hesitation said: "Hat, coat and face are the same. The trousers are different. They were dark in color."

The authorities believe the pair of dark overalls found near the scene of the holdup some time Saturday were worn by Menzi during the robbery and that they are the ones referred to by Campbell, which Menzi probably wore over his light trousers.

The prisoner on the return here was taken to a photographer's, where a picture of him was secured. He was then placed in the police station again.

Word was received from Blairsville this afternoon that when Menzi and his companions were arrested there Sunday one of them had on him $212 and another $56.

Late this afternoon Superintendent McQuaide of Pittsburgh wired Sheriff Lenhart to learn if two Italians, whose names were given but will not be made public at present, had ever worked for the Puritan Coal Company. These men are being shadowed in Pittsburgh, as they have on their persons $2,500 in gold certificates.

CONNELLSVILLE, PA., Aug. 3.—County Detective Alex McBeth is still searching for the murderers of Martin Soneis, who was killed with a hatchet at Keifertown Saturday night. About 25 men heavily armed are hunting the murderers, who are believed to be hiding in the swamps and thickets about West Overton station. Reports say they are prepared to make desperate resistance and the officers have orders to shoot to kill if any resistance is made.

KITTANNING, PA., Aug. 3.—Two foreigners, giving their names as Peter Parel and Cruhantio and their residences Braeburn, stopped last night at the Alexander hotel, this place. Their appearance and actions made the clerk suspicious and as they left at 6 o'clock, not waiting for breakfast, intending to go to Buffalo, and displayed large rolls of money in paying their bills, the clerk called the attention of a borough officer to them, thinking the two men might know something of the Portage tragedy. The Johnstown officials were notified and the Buffalo police were told to hold the men as suspects on their arrival there.

CHURCH WAS ACCEPTED.

Presbyterians Take Over the Smith Methodist Episcopal Church by Assuming Indebtedness.

The Smith Methodist Episcopal church of West Liberty was formally accepted by the Presbyterian board of home missions yesterday afternoon upon consideration of assuming the church debt of $1,175.

The proposition was followed by the appointment of a committee, consisting of the Rev. Dr. George W. Chalfant, W. A. Booth and William C. Lilly, who inspected the property Tuesday and reported to a special session of the mission board yesterday afternoon. The report was favorable and the board at once accepted the report.

The church is a frame structure and stands on a lot 70x125 feet. Two weeks will be required to draw up and execute the papers in the transfer and no official change in the church is expected before September 1.

PORTAGE BANDITS MAY BE IN CITY

Supt. Thomas M'Quaide Has Two Italians Under Close Surveillance Here.

MENZI LIVED IN THE WEST END

Superintendent of Detectives McQuaide believes that he has found trace in Pittsburgh of the Portage robbers. Yesterday his officers were informed that two Italians came to this city on Tuesday with $2,600 in their possession. Superintendent McQuaide will not divulge the names of the suspects but will keep them under close surveillance until he has learned more of their identity.

Yesterday afternoon the superintendent telegraphed his information to Sheriff Lenhart of Cambria county and asked if the names of the men appeared on the payrolls of the Portage or Puritan Coal Companies, and inquired for the denomination of the stolen money. The sheriff ignored the questions and wired back to arrest the men and hold the money. Superintendent McQuaide answered that he would not make an arrest until he should be furnished more definite particulars, and repeated the requests of his earlier telegram. Late last night no answer had been received by the Pittsburgh officers.

Jondo Menzi, who was identified yesterday at Altoona as one of the Portage robbers, lived at 296 Kearns street, West End, but whether he is implicated in the robbery and murder is a mystery. Detectives James W. Eagan and John Lally went to his home yesterday and learned from his parents he left this city last Saturday at noon for Blairsville. He was accompanied by his brother and a friend, whose names the detectives refuse to make known.

The three men went to get employment in a glass house at Blairsville. They had formerly been employed there and were known. Although Menzi's parents told the detectives the three men left here two hours after the holdup had been committed, the detectives think the movements of the three men on Saturday should be confirmed. Menzi's brother and friend have not been heard of since their departure from this city. This feature the detectives consider mysterious and they are now trying to find them.

WATER STREAMS WEAPONS IN A FIERCE BATTLE

Pennsylvania Railway Employes and Rochester Firemen Fight—Truce Is Declared.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

ROCHESTER, PA., Aug. 3.—The fiercest battle yet fought between the borough authorities of Rochester and employes of the Pennsylvania company at Rochester, occurred today. The authorities yesterday laid a temporary sewer along the railroad track to carry water, until they finished work on the extension of Deer lane across the railway tracks. Shortly after noon today, the railroad employes ran gondola cars on a siding and derailed them across the proposed extension of Deer lane, so teams could not cross. They then switched on the siding an engine, house car and flat cars, from which 100 Italians hurried and began tearing up the sewer.

Firemen with hose ran to the scene, and when they began to couple to a hydrant, railroad employes, with a hose attached at the engine, drove them off with hot water. They donned gum coats, made an attachment and a fierce battle with water followed. The Italians were knocked over the hillside by the heavy stream. One seized an ax and slashed away at the hose, but fled when the stream was turned on him. At last a truce was declared, and it is understood that Attorney Richard S. Holt, representing the borough, and Arthur E. Barnett, the railroad company, have agreed to take the matter to court Monday.

Mesta Company Awards Contracts.

Contracts have been awarded by the Mesta Machine Company for the extensions to the company's plant at West Homestead. The structural work will be done by the American Bridge Company, from which the Mesta company bought the Walker bridge plant site on which the extension is to be built. The Mesta company itself will do the engineering work and build the engines.

CHURCH A FOE TO SOCIALISM

So Declares Jesuit Priest Before the Federation of Catholic Societies.

PROMINENT PRELATES SPEAK

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

DETROIT, Aug. 3.—"Socialism not only inculcates individual and domestic anarchy, but it professedly aims at the ruin of all existing governments," declared the Rev. J. T. Campbell, S. J., of New York at the public meeting tonight of the convention of the American Federation of Catholic societies. "The spectre of socialism," continued the speaker, "which looms over modern civilization with a menace of ruin, may well cause serious alarm. In general its rise may be ascribed to the elimination of Christianity from modern legislation; to the influence of false economic principles, and to the new methods which the nations have adopted to achieve greatness and power.

"Socialism is absolutely destructive of all human liberty. We need no better proof of that than to glance at what is going on in France, whose government the Socialists boast of controlling.

"The only opponent of socialism is the Catholic church. The mistake is that the Catholic church is held to be an enemy. She is not. She will conquer, but conquer as a friend.

"On what lines does the church propose to proceed? By teaching, by inculcating and almost by compelling through the instrumentality of her pulpits, her schools and her confessionals, reverence for God, obedience to divine and human law and love for humanity.

"Socialism with us is not yet a formidable political power, but there is all the more reason, before it becomes an aggressive and organized force, to build up an army of federated associations actuated by principles which are antagonistic to or corrective of those dangerous doctrines."

Others who addressed the Federation today were:

Bishop J. Hennessey of Wichita, Kas.; Bishop J. Hartley of Columbus, O.; the Rev. Father Ryan of Cleveland, the Rev. Joseph Schrembs of Grand Rapids, the Rev. Father Moran of Cleveland, and H. M. Girton of Chicago. Before the convention met a pontifical requiem mass was celebrated for the deceased members by Bishop Maes in St. Peter's and Paul's church.

JAMES EDWIN M'CORD DIED LAST NIGHT

The Well Known Wood Street Hatter Passed Away at His Home in Allegheny.

James Edwin McCord, for many years a prominent hatter in Wood street, died last night at 11:15 o'clock at the family residence, 1115 Allegheny avenue, Allegheny. Mr. McCord had been a sufferer from rheumatism for the last five years and this caused his death. He was born in this city about 60 years ago and was a son of John D. McCord, a pioneer hatter in Western Pennsylvania.

Early in his youth Mr. McCord was taken into the business by his father and upon the latter's death the son succeeded to the business, and conducted it ever since. About 30 years ago Mr. McCord married Miss Susan Stephenson, a sister of Francis L. Stephenson of the firm of Whitney, Stephenson & Co., stock brokers. He is survived by his widow and four children: Misses Anna, Mary, Frances and James Edwin McCord, all at home. Mr. McCord was a member of the North Presbyterian church, Allegheny.

Steamship Officers Furnish Bail.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—With the exception of Secretary Atkinson of the Knickerbocker Steamship Company, all of those indicted by the federal grand jury in connection with the Slocum disaster furnished bail today. Secretary Atkinson sent word that he was ill, but he would appear before the United States commissioner as soon as possible.

DIED.

M'CORD—On Wednesday, Aug. 3, 1904, at 11:15 p. m., at his residence, 1115 Allegheny avenue, JAMES E. M'CORD.

Notice of funeral hereafter.

ROBERT AMMON MAKES A PLEA FOR NEW TRIAL

Sing Sing Convict Says He Has Discovered New Evidence in Innocence.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Lewis E. Morrison, counsel for Robert Ammon, formerly of Pittsburgh, now serving a sentence of four years and eight months for his connection with the 520 per cent Miller swindle, made an application before Judge Newburger in general sessions today for a new trial. The motion was made on the ground of new evidence having been discovered based on an alleged letter written by Miller to Ammon directing him to take charge of the $30,500 which Ammon was convicted of stealing from Miller.

In support of his motion for a new trial Mr. Morrison submitted to Judge Newburger affidavits made by Ammon, Ammon's wife and two convicts now in Sing Sing prison, Frank Cummings and John G. Williams. Ammon states that the letter on which the motion was based was at one time in his possession, but had been lost by a lawyer.

"This letter," says Ammon, "would prove my innocence. While the letter cannot be produced its contents are distinctly remembered by both my wife and myself."

Cummings and Williams swear that while in the prison hospital with Miller the latter admitted to them he had testified falsely against Ammon at the request of the district attorney, who promised to have him pardoned. Miller, they allege, confided in them that he had given the $30,500 to Ammon for fear it might be attached in a civil suit. In a supplemental affidavit, Ammon states that Miller had sent him word in the prison that he was anxious to repair the wrong he had done him.

Judge Newburger reserved decision.

HONEYMOON ENDS SADLY.

Valentine Stutz Found Wife Had Died in an Insane Asylum.

Seeking his wife, who, he was told, had been brought to this county insane, Valentine Stutz of White Rock, called at the Allegheny central police station last evening and asked that inquiry be made whether she was at Dixmont. Special Officer Frank Lee went over to the telephone booth and coming back, broke the news gently that the woman had been there, had died Sunday and been buried on Tuesday.

Stutz said that he is a coal miner and had been married seven months. Two months ago, there being no work for him at White Rock, he had gone to West Virginia, where he heard the mines were operating regularly. Each week the mails brought him a letter until three weeks ago. He returned to his home Tuesday and was told that his wife had become insane and had been taken to this county. He came at once here and yesterday visited the Allegheny City home. There he was told to inquire at the police station.

Mr. Stutz said last evening that he will have his wife's remains disinterred and taken home for reburial.

Baltimore Officers Quarter Suspected Highwaymen in Central Station.

Capt. A. J. Pumphrey and William Atkinson of the Baltimore detective force stopped in the city last night with Roland Bigar, a prisoner, who was detained in Central station. This morning the officers, with their prisoner, will resume their journey from Columbus, O., to Baltimore.

Bigar, the officers say, held up a street car in Baltimore on June 20 and robbed the passengers while the Conductor, Charles F. Baker, offered resistance. Bigar is then charged with shooting Baker in the face, blowing off his nose. A reward of $1,000 was offered and Bigar, who gave his name as John Johnson, was picked up by the Columbus police on June 21. The officers state that he deserted the United States army nine times. His home is in Philadelphia.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—William O'Connor Morris, the famous Irish judge, is dead.

ELECTION OF ART JURY WILL BEGIN NEXT MONDAY

Prominent European and American Artists Will Adjudicate Pictures at Carnegie Galleries.

Balloting for the election of the 10 art jurors to be selected for the international competitive exhibition, to be held at the Carnegie galleries, will be commenced next Monday and will continue until September 15. Eight members of the jury will be Americans and two will be Europeans. All will be selected from prominent artists, whose work has been displayed in the Pittsburgh Carnegie exhibitions.

About 50 candidates will be voted for. However, it is well understood among the artists who will be best enabled to spare the time to come to Pittsburgh, and no contest is looked for. The jury will meet early in October. By that time all the pictures for the exhibit will be on hand and the judges will hold their sittings in the temporary galleries which are being built opposite the main entrance to the library building.

Some of the most prominent painters in the country will receive votes in the election of the jury. Among the Europeans who have served in that capacity at the institute are: John M. Swan, London; Edwin Lord Weeks, Paris; John Lavery, London; Fritz Thaulow, Paris; J. F. Rafaelli, Paris; William Stott, Oldham; Alexander Harrison, Paris; Anders L. Zorn, Mora; Edmond Aman-Jean, Paris; Robert W. Allan, London.

SERGEANT WAS FINED.

Police Trial Board Investigated the Release of Ex-Treasurer Wing of Iron Workers.

At a meeting of the police trial board yesterday Sergt. Thomas Morley was fined three days' pay, Capt. J. H. Robinson reprimanded and Sergt. Owen Lewis exonerated in the case of John Wing, former treasurer of the structural iron workers in this city who gave himself up on a charge of embezzlement at the station house Monday night and was released.

Director Moore attached the blame to Capt. Robinson and Sergt. Morley for releasing Wing.

Capt. Robinson told the board he met Alderman McMasters Monday night and was informed that no information had been made against Wing. Sergt. Morley advised Robinson to release Wing and avoid any chances of being sued for false arrest. Supt. Wallace said he instructed the men to hold Wing, but was of opinion that Sergt. Morley and Capt. Robinson had not understood him.

There were seven other cases before the board. One officer was suspended for 60 days and the others were reprimanded.

Police Arrested a Crowd.

James Booker, Joseph Booker and Joseph M. Cutcheon were locked up in the Penn Avenue police station last night charged with being suspicious persons, and Kate Dougherty and Marie Johnston were arrested for drunkenness. The women walked into the police station and told the sergeant that the men had robbed them. At the same time they let a lot of silver money fall on the floor. The police then arrested them all.

Paleontologists of Carnegie Museum Get Fine Specimens.

Valuable additions to the fossil collections in the Carnegie museum are being secured by the field parties which are now at work under the direction of Dr. W. J. Holland. Reports received indicate that the mammoth specimens now in the institution will be duplicated, the latest discoveries being of especial interest to paleontologists.

The expedition in Montana in charge of W. H. Utterback, associated with whom is A. C. Silberling, is likely soon to be transferred to Wyoming. O. A. Peterson who has charge of an expedition in Western Nebraska reports excellent results and will remain in the field until late in October. In the meantime the work in the laboratories goes on and the skeleton of the diplodicus soon will be ready for shipment to the British museum. Percy E. Raymond has secured a fine collection of fossil invertebrates in his expedition to Northern New York.

SULLIVAN WILL RUN FOR COUNCIL

Contests Legality of Sweeney's Selection in Ninth and Gets Independent Nomination.

HE SPRINGS A BIG SURPRISE

William Sullivan, the opponent of Edward Sweeney for the Democratic nomination for select councilman from the Ninth ward, concluded yesterday to run, although Sweeney has the Democratic nomination. Sullivan went into court to contest the legality of the nomination of Sweeney and filed a nomination certificate with the county commissioners for himself.

The petition attacking Sweeney's nomination was presented to Judge Evans in common pleas court No. 3 yesterday. The allegations contained have already been printed in The Gazette, as charges unofficially made against Sweeney's supporters.

It is set forth that Sweeney is not the legal Democratic candidate, because of fraud and gross irregularities at the polls of the first district. The police are accused of coercion in behalf of the Sweeney faction, of which Alderman Kirby is the head. The testimony will be brought out in the hearing to be held this morning before Judge Evans.

The petition was filed by Attorney William J. Brennen, the Democratic leader. It makes sweeping claims and asserts that there is no authority in law for the election of a select councilman now; that the proclamation of the mayor calling an election was unauthorized by law; that Alderman Kirby and James B. Crowley had no authority to sign Sweeney's nomination certificate, and that Kirby acted arbitrarily and made the certificate fraudulently. The petition recites that the polls were held at the office of Alderman Kirby; that the officers of the election board were not sworn properly; that men who were not Democrats voted, and that other men voted more than once. It is averred that when fraudulent voters were challenged the challengers were assaulted and driven away from the polls, and that in the final counting of the vote Sullivan and W. L. Knorr did not receive credit for the ballots cast for them as candidates for the nomination. Sullivan also filed objection to the nomination of Sweeney on the Citizens party ticket, as unauthorized.

The election is to be held tomorrow. Sullivan calculates that if Sweeney is thrown off the two tickets he will be the only candidate, running independently by virtue of the nomination certificate filed yesterday. It was the last day on which to file nominations, so that if the court decides Sweeney was illegally nominated it will be too late for him to file nomination papers. Sullivan has caught his opponents "napping," having announced two days ago that he would not be an independent candidate, this lulling their suspicions. Yesterday he procured blanks and quickly had nomination petitions signed.

James Horner, the former burgess of Wilkinsburg, will be a candidate for reelection next February. The burgess says his friends have urged him to become a candidate and he will accede to their request.

At the Soho school last night was organized the Fourteenth Ward Parker and Davis Marching Club with about 50 enrolled. The following officers were elected: President, W. J. Brennen; vice president, D. F. Crawford; secretary, James J. O'Donnell; treasurer, Michael McMorris.

Young Women Join Sisterhood.

Fourteen young women were received into the order of the Sisters of the Divine Providence at St. Joseph's convent in Larimer avenue, East End, yesterday morning. Three took perpetual vows, seven temporary vows and four were received on probation. The ceremony was performed during high mass in St. Peter and Paul's Catholic church, at which Father Suhr was celebrant and Fathers Reed of Tarentum and Father May of Braddock, assistants. The young women received on probation were Misses Caroline Meneder, Mathilda Kinzig, Rosa Miller and Annie Thomas.

BROKER ROBBED OF $500 DIAMOND

Thief Said He Was a City Detective When He Held Up J. W. Fieroe.

HE IS CAPTURED AFTER CHASE

Waking from a doze into which he had fallen while sitting on a bench in West park, Alegheny, last night, J. W. Fiero, a stockbroker, found a man tugging at a diamond in his scarf. After tearing the pin away from the necktie the stranger informed Fieroe that he was a detective. The thief then started away on a run, Fieroe pursuing him. Cut through the park and along North avenue the two ran, while others joined in the chase through curiosity. The thief remained on the streets near the parks, and in a few minutes scores of men and boys were running along with Fieroe, none of them knowing what was the matter, and Fieroe saying nothing. Finally the later became exhausted and stopped. The crowd stopped with him and then learned that they had been chasing a highwayman who had Fieroe's $500 pin.

Michael Windell of Woods Run, who saw the man take the stone, ran to city hall and informed Superintendent Campbell. Night Inspector Frank Lee was detailed on the case, but before he arrived Policeman Mahoney had captured the thief at Sherman and Stockton avenues. At Central station he gave the name of Samuel Kersting of 1706 Buena Vista street. He is 21 years old and belongs to a good family. After escaping from the crowd when Fieroe stopped, Kersting returned to the park and was recognized by some of those who had chased him. The pursuit was again taken up and this time Policeman Mahoney joined in.

Mr. Fieroe told Superintendent Campbell that he had left his home at 1211 Rebecca street because of the heat and had been sitting for a short time on a bench near North avenue and Resaca street. He fell asleep and awakened when Kersting tuged at his scarf in taking the pin. When locked up Kersting cried like a child and said he did not know why he took the pin. He was identified by Fieroe. Kersting's family is away for the summer and the young man had been living alone at the Buena Vista street house.

ORDNANCE COMPANY TO GO RIGHT AHEAD WITH WORK

Plans Provide for the Manufacture of Rapid-Fire Guns, Carriages and Projectiles.

John Stevenson, Jr., of Sharon, was in Pittsburgh yesterday in conference with local companies in connection with the award of contracts for the buildings for the new ordnance company which he is heading. The exclusive announcement of the company's plans made in The Gazette of yesterday awakened much attention.

The company will be known as the Driggs-Peabody Ordnance Company and will have the following officers: President, John Stevenson, Jr.; vice president, Stephen Peabody, New York; secretary, Lewis Driggs, Philadelphia; treasurer, Thomas Harris, Sharon.

The guns which are to be made are covered by patents held by Commander Driggs, a brother of Lewis Driggs and a retired naval officer. The Driggs-Peabody corporation has a plant already in Philadelphia. This will be removed to Sharon. The capital of the company at the start will be $500,000. This will be increased later to $1,000,000 it is said.

As announced in The Gazette, the company has secured the old Kimberley rolling mill site, buying it from the Carnegie Steel Company. On this 16-acre site will be constructed four buildings of brick and steel. From the plant will be turned out semi-automatic rapid-fire guns, brass and copper shells and projectiles and gun carriages.

Girl-Boy Held for Contempt.

Leo Burns, the boy arrested in Allegheny last week while masquerading in female attire, was committed to jail yesterday for a hearing before the juvenile court on Friday. He was committed on an order of Judge Frazier on a charge of contempt of a previous order, the boy having been before the juvenile court on March 11, 1903. At that time he was turned over to the St. Vicent de Paul society which found a home for him in Buffalo, but he soon ran away and made his home with a farmer living near Buffalo.

The Great Feature of Today Is Our

Entire Stock of Men's Summer Clothing in Pretty Mixed Patterns, Together With a Collection of Plain Blue and Black Suits,

For Less Than They Cost Us.

In Several Instances Less Than They Cost the Manufacturer.

Details will not be entered into again this morning; the whole subject was well discussed yesterday afternoon. We simply give original prices and the final reduced prices, showing where from $6.00 and up to $17.50 can be saved on suits.

Good wine needs no bush—a great bargain needs no boost. So to the lowered prices.

Men's Business Suits:

$15.00 and $16.50 Suits..........Will Be Sold for $ 9.00
$18.00 Suits..........Will Be Sold for $11.00
$20.00 Suits..........Will Be Sold for $12.50
$22.50 and $25.50 Suits..........Will Be Sold for $14.50
$30, $32 and $35 Suits..........Will Be Sold for $18.50

Men's Outing Suits:

$15.00 and $16 Outing Suits..........Will Be Sold for $ 9.00
$18.00 Outing Suits..........Will Be Sold for $11.00
$20.00 Outing Suits..........Will Be Sold for $13.00
$22.50 and $25 Outing Suits..........Will Be Sold for $15.00

Young Men's Suits—14 to 20 Years:

$15.00 and $16.50 Suits..........Will Be Sold for $ 8.50
$18.00 Suits..........Will Be Sold for $10.50
$20.00 and $22.50 Suits..........Will Be Sold for $13.00
$25.00 Suits..........Will Be Sold for $14.00

NOTE.—There will be a small charge made for alterations on all clothing, except for lengthening or shortening sleeves and trousers.

The Last of the Silk Shirtwaist Suits.

Of the $7.75 Suits, worth $15.00, we have about 75 left, and of the $10.50 Suits, worth $20.00, there are something like 150 out of a total of 600 that went on sale first of the week.

Women should make choice either today or tomorrow—after that it will be sort of Hobson's choice. There will not be another sale of silk shirtwaist suits in this store again this season. This will be the last opportunity to get a suit for anything like the following prices.

The Silk Suits at $7.75 are shown in such colors as gray, black, red, blue and green—gray and black predominating. Our present price is about what the silk alone is worth. Waists have shield front, stitched tucks front and back, fancy stock, strap cuff; skirts are 7-gore panel front with pleats each side panel.

The Silk Suits at $10.50 are of either fine pongee or taffeta. The original shipment has been augmented by solid brown, navy blues and the always preferred black. The trimmings take a wide range—Bulgarian embroidery, tucks, pleats, faggotting, French knots, braids, etc. Choice of skirts, pleated or clinging hip model. Waists are arranged in pleats after a completely new idea.

Plates and Cups and Saucers Considerably Less.

The housewife who would save her best table service from wear and tear is invited to look over the undermentioned figures on Cups and Saucers, either plain white or decorated, and on decorated Plates.

Possibly 650 dozen altogether, and they will be displayed on tables today, third floor, East, China Store.

Decorated Bread and Butter Plates, $1.50 dozen, were $2.00.
Decorated Dessert Plates, $2.00 dozen, were $2.50.
Decorated Lunch Plates, $2.50 dozen, were $3.00.
Decorated After-Dinner Cups and Saucers, $1.50 dozen, were $2.00.
Decorated Tea and Coffee Cups and Saucers, $2.50 dozen, were $3.25.
Plain white Cups and Saucers, $1.50 dozen, were $2.00.

Ribbons for Underprices.

A collection of high-class ribbons to sell today and tomorrow for prices very much under what such excellent ribbons generally command.

Mousseline Taffeta, good line colors—for stock, girdle or sash, 5 to 5½-inch widths, 40c values for 25c a yard.

Dresden Taffetas, all silk ribbon, our own import, 5 inches wide, a good value for 45c, our underprice, 35c a yard.

A First Peep at Autumn Millinery.

Women are invited to view the autumn styles in the new tailored hats, which are now represented in our millinery department by over 100 distinct and individual ideas, both in English and French Felts, artistically trimmed with breasts, pompons, wings, quills, drapes of velvet, relieved by ornaments, either buckle or cabochon.

Our prices are very modest, $3.50 to $5.00, and from that by easy stages to $10.00.

In Trimmed Black Hats we are showing some handsome conceptions—Toques for midsummer and early autumn wear, that are quite conservative in style, but nevertheless elegant, $5.00 to $7.50.

A few hats in black, trimmed in summer fashion, also White Fold Chiffon Hats at these reduced prices:

$5.00 Hats have been reduced to $3.00.
$6.00 Hats have been reduced to $3.50.
$7.00 Hats have been reduced to $4.00.
$8.00 Hats have been reduced to $5.00.

New arrivals in trimmed dress shapes—Black Toques, Turbans and Picture styles—designed in chiffons and silk braids. Also hand-fold Chiffon and all-Silk tucked and braided hats.

$2.00, $2.50, $3.50 to $5.00, and we are free to say a half more would not be high for these new styles and admirable qualities which are the newest and best.

We will have a sale of Untrimmed Shapes in all the engaging twists given to straw hats for women.

Untrimmed Shapes in colors—

Originally $ .50, now reduced to 10c.
Originally $ .75, now reduced to 15c.
Originally $1.00, now reduced to 25c.

Untrimmed Shapes in black—

$2.00 grade in black chip, six leading styles, reduced to 75c.

$1.00 grade in black rough straws, four different styles, reduced to 50c.

We also have some very striking White Milan Hats, big crown sailors, the leading shape, sold for $3.00, now lowered to $1.45.

For the trimming of the above mentioned untrimmed hats there are

Coque Pompons, with quill ends—black, white, brown, navy, emerald, coq de roche, light blue and castor, a 75c grade for 50c.

Coque Plumes in all the leading colors; a $1.50 grade for $1.00 each.

Thursday, August 4, 1904.

The Gazette desires to call the attention of those of its readers who contemplate summer trips to the announcements of the many summer resort hotels published on page 12 of this issue.

Auditor General Snyder is close after the foreign corporations which have been doing business in this state without registering or paying tax. There is a large class of these concerns, many of them dealing in cheap patent rights, which endeavor to get all they can from the people of the state without giving up the fees required by law. It is not merely a matter of securing revenue for the state that they are taxed, but for the protection of home corporations which pay taxes for the privilege of doing business. The auditor general is on the right track and should pursue it until the last concern has paid up.

Announcement is made that the Westinghouse Company is prepared to protect its rights in court if they are infringed by manufacturers of steam turbines who have not paid for the right to use patented devices. It is further understood the Westinghouse interest will not flinch from any war of competition waged in the markets by the Allis-Chalmers Company, which has assumed to resent the right of any other concern to build large steam units. The Westinghouse Company is wholly within its rights in producing steam turbines and gas engines to secure greater economy in the production of power, and there is every reason to believe the Pittsburgh concern is in a position to produce all kinds of machinery more cheaply than others and of the best quality.

The official report of the Pennsylvania railroad that the shareholders of the company now number 44,950 is an indication of the prosperity of the country. Two years ago the number of shareholders in this company was 28,765. The number of holders of the stock are increasing at the rate of about 200 a month, showing that the small investors of the country are gradually putting their money into good dividend-paying securities. The official statement of the company brings the situation as regards the Pennsylvania company into notice just at this time, but the same holds good of many other companies, in fact practically all companies which furnish a safe investment and assured income. This would indicate that the small investors have plenty of money and are only looking for safe places to put it.

The report of the state banking commissioner of New York speaks volumes for the prosperity of the workingmen of the country. There was during the past year an increase of more than $54,000,000 in the deposits in the savings banks of the state of New York, and an increase in the number of depositors of 78,848. Such figures strongly refute the claim of the advocates of free trade that the advance in the price of living is greater than the advance in wages. The people who patronize savings banks are practically all wage-earners, and that the working people of New York last year earned $54,000,000 more than their expenses would indicate that they are not likely to vote for a change from prosperity under protection to free trade and smaller bank accounts—or none. These figures correspond with Carroll D. Wright's official statistics.

Gov. Vardaman of Mississippi denies in characteristically heated language that he ever said or wrote anything derogatory to President Roosevelt's mother "or any other good woman." This denial must be put to Gov. Vardaman's credit, but the conclusion of his fulmination detracts from the effect of the denial and goes far to justify Postmaster General Payne's refusal to attach the fire-eating governor's name to a postoffice. There is no reason to doubt the absolute accuracy of Mr. Payne's statement that President Roosevelt knew nothing of the matter until the Mississippians broke into the newspapers with their lamentations. Moreover, it is wholly within the power of the postmaster general to reject the name proposed for a new postoffice without stating any reasons. In this Mississippi case Postmaster General Payne showed commendable forbearance in giving to the new postoffice the name of Timberville, when he might have named it Lynch.

Senator Scott of West Virginia, at Washington yesterday, made an analysis of the situation in his state that shows there need be no fear that the state will go to the Democracy in the coming election. Four years ago the Republicans carried the state by 21,000. Senator Scott says probably 5,000 Gold Democrats voted the Republican ticket, and the majority of these may return to the party of free trade, but not all of them. The popularity of ex-Senator Davis, according to Senator Scott, may bring to the Democrats 2,000 votes, but certainly not more, probably less. Giving the Democrats the benefit of all these doubtful votes, the Republicans will still have about 10,000 plurality. But the wrangles going on in the state convention just now are likely to have a bad effect on the state ticket. Senator Davis made a botch of his attempt to dictate the state ticket, and he has made enemies without gaining friends. Altogether, it would seem that the situation in West Virginia is improving every day, and the Republican plurality this year will be nearly, if not quite, equal to what it was four years ago. In the light of events, Senator Scott's figures on the Republican majority this year are rather too low than too high.

Russia Looking Ahead.

Though full details are lacking, it is obvious that the Russian defeat at Simou-Cheng (Shih-Mu-Cheng) rendered the position at Hai-Cheng untenable, and the order issued yesterday for superfluous civilians to leave Harbin indicates the purpose of Gen. Kuropatkin to retire at once upon that place—if he can. The failure of Gen. Kuroki to follow up the Russians who retired from Yang-Tsu-Ling upon Lian-Dian-Shan and from Yu-Shin-Ling-Tsu upon An-Ping may enable the Russians from the south to get in position for a retreat northward, but if they stop to defend An-Shang, the strongest position on the line, they may miss their opportunity for retirement.

Late advices contradict the Chefoo report that the Japanese were completely repulsed in the fighting of last week before Port Arthur. Tokyo reports occupation of important positions within range of the fortress itself. The Japanese make no estimate of casualties, but there is reason to believe they were heavy on both sides, and the Japanese losses the heavier. In such fighting they naturally expect the heavier losses and can afford them as long as they gain the points contended for.

Every Russian movement now is in the nature of conceding complete defeat in the Manchurian campaign and the inevitable loss of Port Arthur. But there is no sign of surrender or abandonment of the war. The preparations are for a winter's subsistence at their northern bases, Harbin and Vladivostok, and a resumption of hostilities next year with the aid of the Baltic fleet. If Russia succeeds in getting that fleet safely into port at Vladivostok the Japanese will then have to face new conditions, the most difficult being the maintenance of a transport service in face of a formidable naval force, unless, indeed, Admiral Togo may be able to do with the new fleet what he did with its predecessor. Meantime, however, the Japanese may continue to do the unexpected and forestall Russia's plans for next year by carrying out their own plans for this year.

Fairbanks' Notification.

Elihu Root, former secretary of war, spoke in his happiest vein yesterday on the occasion of the formal notification of Senator Charles W. Fairbanks of his nomination for vice president. Though his address was short it bristled with points worthy of careful consideration. He drew a telling contrast between the straightforward Republican platform and the shifty document adopted at St. Louis, partly repudiated by the Democratic nominee. In the most kindly spirit he made apparent the grievous mistake of the Democrats in naming for vice president a fine old man, whose age alone would incapacitate him for the onerous duties of the presidency—a contingency not remote when it is remembered that of 12 vice presidents, last elected, five have succeeded to the higher office.

Senator Fairbanks was equally interesting and forceful in his reply. He exhibited a grasp of national affairs and policies, not at all surprising to his friends, but conclusive as to his mental equipment for the office of vice president, or for that of chief executive of the nation if he should be called upon to fill it. We do not quote from it, because we believe every reader should peruse it in full and study it.

Reciprocity With Canada.

In the present agitation in favor of reciprocity with Canada the matter is being discussed as if it were merely a question of our own domestic policy. An impression prevails that Canada is willing, and it is a fact that for 30 years Canada made overtures for a renewal of the relations which existed under the treaty of 1854 down to its abrogation in 1866. But since Canada herself adopted the protective policy she has been so successful in developing her own resources and has been so prosperous that there has been a great change of sentiment as regards the desirability of reciprocity with the United States. The only special advocate it now has among Canadian statesmen is Mr. John Charlton, and his idea is that while the United States should be given the benefit of minimum rates in return for like concessions "the scale of Canadian duties should be sufficiently high to avoid inflicting injury upon Canadian interests." On the other hand, there are numerous expressions of opposition to reciprocity upon any basis whatever. At a meeting of the Canadian Manufacturers' association last fall the president declared that "not a vestige of sentiment for reciprocity with the United States remains among our people." At a banquet in Toronto last month, Lieut.-Col. Denison declared, "amidst loud cheers," that "Canada should avoid reciprocity as she would the plague." Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Canadian prime minister, is upon record to the effect that reciprocity is no longer sought. In a published letter he referred to the attempts made in the past to secure reciprocity, failing in which "we directed our efforts elsewhere, and I am glad to say that they have been successful beyond all expectations." Hence he concludes that the reasons which formerly prompted efforts in favor of reciprocity have ceased to exist.

The present situation does not, therefore, encourage much hope that Canada would readily agree to reciprocity even should we now incline to such a policy. Canada has certainly had wonderful success since she concentrated her efforts upon the development of her own resources, and, thanks to her admirable banking system, she is free from some of the embarrassments to which enterprise is subject in the United States. Our annual financial stringency in connection with "moving the crops" is unknown in Canada. The system of branch banking and of currency issues upon assets responds automatically to the extra demand without affecting the supply of loanable funds at financial centers. The setback which business has experienced in the United States has not extended to Canada to any marked extent. The present disposition appears to be to raise the tariff walls rather than to lower them, and the prospect of closer relations with England through Chamberlain's policy of imperial reciprocity is more attractive than closer relations with the United States.

While Canada has been prospering under the protective policy, no apparent harm has been inflicted upon the interests of the United States. Our exports to British North America have increased in every one of the last 11 years with the exception of 1895, when the Wilson low tariff was in operation. Our exports to Canada declined from $58,313,223 in 1894 to $53,981,768 in 1895. Since then they have been going up until in 1903 the amount was $125,776,203. With both countries getting on so well without reciprocity, advocates of it will have considerable difficulty in making out a case in its favor.

Increasing Business.

A purchase of 110,000 tons of billets by the Pittsburgh Steel Company is reported, the seller being the Republic Iron and Steel Company. Several features are of interest. The buyer furnishes a portion of the pig and the seller has made a notable concession on the price of conversion. The price on the pig iron is good and the deal is the largest made this year. Incidentally, it becomes known that the pig iron market has been more active for a month past, the first sign of returning industrial energy.

Several times recently The Gazette has called attention to the quickening movement and the planning for immediate construction of new works. This movement set in soon after the nominating conventions had done their work. The first consideration is the belief that Democratic success is highly improbable, and the second is the feeling of relief that in case the unexpected should happen the gold standard Democratic executive and the Republican senate would prevent any serious disturbance of financial conditions.

As President Roosevelt's re-election appears more certain business confidence will increase. Industry will swing back toward the high tide of 1902. The basic conditions of the country were never better. There is an abundance of good, honest money; crops are up to the average; there is no cloud upon American credit, and the world demand for American products is large. The war in the far east will inevitably increase this demand, and to supply that demand domestic consumption, in some lines at least, must increase. After November 8 there will be no thought of "hard times."

Ex-Senator Turner failed to get the honor of second place on the national ticket, so he takes first place on the state ticket. My, but that man must badly want a beating in November.

Under the head "Czar receives alarming news," an afternoon paper announces that Viceroy Alexieff has gone to confer with Gen. Kuropatkin. Could anything be more alarming?

It is officially announced that William F. Sheehan will be chairman of the Democratic executive committee. Unofficially, it may be stated, this is not done to placate Tammany.

This war news is getting more dense. An afternoon paper says "the Russians are in dire straits," but we have been unable to find any such water on our best war map.

Western Democrats have asked former President Cleveland to come out there and speak for Parker. That looks like a Bryan scheme to lose western votes for the judge.

Cumberland records two deaths from cigarette smoking within 18 hours. If this thing keeps up we will expect those coupons to be made good for coffins and flowers.

Von Plehve's assassin says he was formerly a school teacher. He certainly should be an expert at teaching the young idea how to shoot—or throw bombs.

It will be well to take that story of 20,000 Japanese killed or wounded at Port Arthur with a grain of salt. It comes from Chefoo.

Talked of in Gotham

By ALEXANDER DODDS.

[illegible]

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Straw hats at one-third their former selling price and huckleberry pie at 15 cents the cut, are the two best indications along Broadway that summer speeds hastily. There are no trees, no grass plots, outside the sickly plats of green at Union, Madison and Greeley squares and if, like the agriculturist, you want to look for "signs" of the season you wait not for the silent message of falling leaves, but watch the shop windows. A month ago there was not a store along Broadway from Fourteenth to Forty-second street that did not command $3 a throw for a wearable straw hat. You can take home all you want of the same make now at just 33 1-3 per cent less.

Then the huckleberry pie is with us again. That is always a sign here in the metropolis that summer is advancing. Whether it be a millionaire or a small clerk in a big store, New Yorkers do not seem to be able to resist this seductive, lip and teeth staining pastry. The little card "Huckleberry pie today" conveys to the hurrying, sweltering man of affairs, the thought of home and mother and he wants another quarter section of a good, thick, dyspepsia producer before the fleeting summer days pass him on to the reign of the hot mince and parched corn coffee. About 11:30 a. m. the little signs appear in the hurry-up lunch room and one must be early if he wants a share. There has been so much mixed weather here that it is hard to believe that July has come and gone and were it not for the window signs it would be hard to realize that the bell has rung for the last lap of the summer race.

A Big Boon for the Hurrying Shoppers.

During the customary lull in the summer shopping season what will unquestionably prove a big boon to the shopping public, especially on wet days, has been inaugurated at one of the big stores. The Interborough Traction Company has built a private entrance from its "L" station at Eighteenth street into the store. Tens of thousands of shoppers use the Sixth avenue "L" daily and the majority of these multitudes visit this store.

This new entrance does away with the necessity of going down a flight of stairs, crossing a busy street and getting wet if it is raining. The bridge is the first of its kind to be built in New York and the stream of people that has passed over it since it was opened yesterday, certainly shows the public appreciates this effort on the part of the traction company to care just a little for the needs of its patrons. Other big stores along the route of the Sixth avenue line are to have bridges built as soon as the structural work can be manufactured.

A Disguised Girl Gets a Shave.

A Court street barber called "next" and a tall, slender lad in a light brown suit got up. He took off his coat and as the barber inquiringly passed his hand over the smooth and rounded cheek, the youth murmured "scrape it away." When it was over, 15 cents in currency changed hands and he started out only to run into the arms of an officer, who remarked: "Well, Nellie, I've got you, have I." A few minutes later the light brown suit had been discarded for a pretty dress, and an angry mamma stood by Nellie's side. It was Nellie Murphy, the daughter of a well-to-do Brooklyn citizen, who has had the running away habit for over a year. This time the mother had her sent to a house of detention. Nellie looked gloomy over the prospect as she left the court room, but said nothing. She was unhappy, but also unrepentant.

The Gospel Rum Shop Booms.

The moral rum shop known as the Subway tavern is doing a rushing business. There were about 10 times as many customers in the saloon today as there were yesterday and it is the general opinion that Bishop Potter, who attended the "opening" which closed with the singing of "Old Hundred" boomed the business successfully.

The kindly spirit of the bishop in holding out a helping hand to the denizens of stuffy Mulberry street in giving them a booze emporium that sells strictly pure goods has already begun to call forth a storm of protest from all over the country.

Young Girl's Presentiment Came True.

Early in July Marie Tuchera, a Bohemian girl, employed in the home of Julia Tellar, out in the well-known Riverside drive section, told her mistress that she dreaded the arrival of August, as she did not think she would live through the month. What caused this strange presentiment could not be learned, and the woman scoffed at the girl's hallucination.

When August came Marie grew weak. The first day of the month the girl spent trembling in a corner of the kitchen. She was in a very weak condition yesterday, but refused to go to her room. When she retired last night she again expressed the fear that she would not see the end of August. This morning when she did not arise, the Tellars thought they would let the girl sleep several extra hours. At 10 o'clock Mrs. Tellar called the girl, but on receiving no answer, she went to the room. Marie was dead.

Gems from the Slocum Await Owners.

At the end of this month Coroner O'Gorman will turn over to the public administrator jewels and other property to the value of several thousand dollars taken from the bodies of victims of the Slocum disaster. The greater part of the wealth recovered has been given to the heirs of those who died, but claimants for what is left have not appeared. The public administrator will deal with it as with the estates of persons dying unidentified or intestate and what is not resorted to relatives eventually will find its way into the coffers of the state. The property that is still in the hands of the coroner is chiefly that recovered from bodies of members of families that had been entirely wiped out by the disaster and from bodies unidentified.

Won't Even Take a Holiday.

Russell Sage, financier and non-believer in vacations for the working classes, will celebrate his 88th birthday tomorrow in the usual way. That means that he will be at his desk down in Nassau street. Part of the day he will spend in reading telegrams of congratulation, otherwise his natal day will be the same as any other. He said today that he is still of the opinion that vacations are not needed and that the best vacation for him is Gladstone's scheme for changing the routine of his work.

The Quiet Observer

By ERASMUS WILSON.

Are you familiar with the funny side of life, or are you looking for it?

Would you know when you get there, should you be directed in the right way?

Possibly your notion of fun is so at variance with that of other folks that go where you will there is no fun for you.

You frequently hear persons saying that this, that or the other is awfully funny when they are anything but funny from your point of view. And yet they may be really funny to some—they must be for they cause them to laugh.

In order to be funny a thing must amuse you, tickle you, and cause you to laugh.

The test of fun in anything is its ability to make you laugh.

Humor is different.

The very best humor is that which amuses, entertains and excites agreeable thoughts, and it consists mainly of truth.

A false statement may be funny, and so may a rude or coarse remark, but these play no part in humor.

The true humorist deals with facts and things that are true, but having the faculty of seeing them a little differently from the way they appear to you his presentation of them not only amuses, but entertains you, and sometimes edifies you.

* * * * *

Humor is, therefore, more or less serious as compared with fun, and much meatier, so to speak, for there is always something in it, or to it; while fun is scarcely more than a passing breath, agreeable for the moment, but soon forgotten.

Fun is extravaganza, while humor is true comedy. When blended they constitute burlesque or caricature. To be effective these must have a basis of truth, the salient points of which are just sufficiently exaggerated to emphasize and to give them prominence.

To be a successful caricaturist one must be able to comprehend and to appreciate the truth as it exists in the subject he has in hand, besides being able to so treat it as to exaggerate its more prominent features or phases.

Many of you can recall Nast's caricatures of Tweed, Greeley, Schurz, Ben Butler and other notables, any one of whom could be recognized at a glance, because they were true portraits with only certain features or characteristics slightly exaggerated.

Caricature is, therefore, a method of criticism, and is often far more effective than written or spoken criticisms. It may amuse, and it usually does, but it is not offensive like extravagant burlesque.

* * * * *

We laugh at fool sayings and doings, and yet have neither pity nor respect for the fool behind them.

Not so with the humorist.

As a rule humorists are most lovable fellows, being clean and wholesome and well worth knowing. They must be all of these else they could not fill the bill.

In the first place they must have good sense, and a lot of it, in order that they may perceive the truth and so appreciate it that they can present its unusual phases, or rather its phases not usually noticed, and to draw conclusions different from those deducted by the application of the logic of the day.

Some of the results may seem quite ridiculous at the time, and yet so clever and pleasing that you can't help laughing—maybe laugh until you cry.

But the humorist rarely indulges in funny business, and then only for the purpose of contrasting the true with the false, the sensible with the silly, so that he is in no sense a funny fellow, and far, very far, away from the clown or the burlesque actor.

And almost without exception the humorist is serious and inclined to be sedate. He is always sensitive and sometimes painfully so to himself and distressingly so to others—to some others, for he is sure to have around him a few chosen spirits who are neither annoyed by him nor give annoyance. Those who don't understand him may think he is cranky or grouchy, but he isn't, only tenderly sensitive.

* * * * *

The wonder is there are not more humorists in the world, for who wouldn't want to be able to see the humorous side of life rather than the serious side?

And yet we find more people looking upon the sadly serious, and even upon the sorrowful phases of life than upon the more cheerful and hopeful. They will crowd in to gaze upon scenes of suffering, congregate around morgues and clamor for admission to jail yards to see murderers hung or electrocuted, when there are scenes and events of an entertaining, pleasureable and edifying character within easy reach.

But when you come to look at it through the glasses of a careful observer you may wonder how it has happened that we are not even more degenerate than we are.

Prof. Chrisman of Ohio university, is such an observer, and here follows something he has said anent this matter:

"When we read Swift's "Criminal Tendencies of Boyhood" (Pedagogical seminary, VIII., 65) and recall our own boyhood, the question becomes not why are there so many wayward children? but rather, how did any of us escape from being wayward children?

The only reason I can see why we did not all grow up to be among the wayward children is not because we were not wayward, but rather because we were not wayward most of the time, and the waywardness kept growing less until we got far enough away from waywardness to keep away.

A child's growing away from waywardness is by doing more good things than bad things, so that the mind becomes habituated to incline toward the better things, and as these come before the child he naturally takes them up rather than the worse things. On the contrary, the wayward child becomes habituated to doing the worse things rather than the better things, and so when the good things come his way he passes them by and takes up the bad things. That is to say, the mind being exercised in a certain direction, modes of habit are formed in that direction.

There are a number of causes for the production of wayward children. One of the greatest causes is the incomplete home, that is, where one or the other of the parents is missing all the time or a great part of it.

Another cause is alcoholism on the part of the parents, and just now attention is being called to the use of patent medicines which contain a large per cent of alcohol, and especially the use of such by the mother.

Another cause is the migratory instinct of children, sometimes compelling them to a wayward life. Another great cause is the lack of proper quantity and quality of food, for a natural tendency to degenerate is greatly aggravated by the lack of proper food and its proper preparation.

The school must recognize the need of helping these wayward children by helping to make good homes for them. The school at present takes so much of the time of girls that there is left but little time to learn housekeeping in the home, and the studies in school really tend to turn the girl away from home duties.

Education should be more than it is a preparation for the home and in this way, it seems to me, the school could do much more for the wayward child than is being done at present, for thus the future child could have a much better home.

Jimmie the Tourist

THE STROLLER.

"Twenty-two hundred miles from home and broke," writes Jimmie from Winnipeg (or Wpg as he writes it), but the tenor of his letter does not indicate that Jimmie is anything but happy.

Every "knight of the key" in Pittsburgh knows Jimmie, and several thousand of them around over the country also know him. For Jimmie is a happy-go-lucky telegraph operator who is here today and there tomorrow, but always the same good natured Jimmie. One must know the "tramp operator" to appreciate him thoroughly. "Tramp" is not used as a word of reproach, for no one can reproach the tramp operator for accepting the free and easy life of the road, and at the same time see the country. For the operator pays his way. He usually, but not always, rides in varnished cars, and always, when his money runs out and hunger begins to gripe his vitals, he can get a job and make a stake for the next jump. Like the "journeyman printer" of the old days before the machines came in, the journeyman operator is welcomed everywhere he goes, for if he were not a good sender and receiver he could never travel.

Jimmie is a Pittsburgh lad. It seems but yesterday that he was taking specials in The Gazette office. And yet today here's a letter from Jimmie dated "Wpg."

"Went broke in Toronto," writes Jimmie. "The gang there blew me off in fine style, and memory is a little hazy until the next morning at a junction called Carleton Plc., near Ottawa, where you strike the main line. On the train I made the acquaintance of a young Englishman who had lost his baggage and everything else he had at Montreal, but between us we managed to dig enough for breakfast. Then he cabled 'the governor' at Liverpool and immediately got £10. He is now on the dining car of the C. P. bound for Laggan."

Thus Jimmie was able to reach Winnipeg with a full stomach and a feeling that the world was his oyster. At Winnipeg he was welcomed by the chief operator, who always seems to need men at $75 a month and hardly enough work to keep the moths out of your system. Jimmie was there with the goods, and by "working extra" he will pull down enough Canadian greenbacks to make an American millionaire look like a selling plater in a stake race. At least that is Jimmie's present calculation.

"I got in 49 hours extra the first seven days," he writes, "and if I keep this up until the 15th of August I will have $145, then away to Vancouver."

Kindly think that statement over—2,200 miles from home, and figuring on a jump of 1,800 miles further west. That's food for you poor stay-at-homes, who figure that "the rolling stone gathers no moss." The moss that Jimmie will have gathered in his summer's travels will be worth telling to his grandchildren some day when he settles down, as he will, into a solid citizen.

And Jimmie sees things on his journeyings. In his letter he tells us that the scenery along Lake Superior for miles and miles is the grandest he ever saw, and he describes the Indian in his tepee or punting along the water in his canoe while the train skims by at the rate of 30 miles an hour. And he will see other things worth mentioning when he makes that little 1,800-mile jump to Vancouver.

Jimmie figures on taking a boat from Vancouver to San Francisco—after making his usual stake at the Canadian point. At 'Frisco he will be able to make another stake, then back to Pittsburgh to spend the winter, after having the greatest summer tour of the season. Here he will be greeted by his mother and the rest of the family, and he can spend the whole winter telling of the things he saw when he was touring the country as the "Jimmie Operating Company, Unlimited."

And Jimmie is only a sample of the touring telegrapher—though a remarkably good sample. No matter how often he misses the track, he gets back in due season, and you will always see him dressed like a gentleman and with a bit of change jingling in his jeans. His money is as free as the air he breathes, and the other fellow, if he happens to be "broke," can have a meal and a bed at Jimmie's expense. True, Jimmie occasionally gets the same at some other good fellow's expense, but he is a strong believer in reciprocity, and his kind is easily recognized wherever you find them. It is the free and easy way they have.

And it's a great life, this roving vagabondage. The rich man who rides in the Pullman and knows where every meal is to come from never knows the joys of travel, nor does he know the efficacy of hunger as sauce for a good meal of ham and eggs or whatever the gods set before you. That's where Jimmie and his kind have them all beaten by four city blocks and then some. Luck to Jimmie.

THE BIGGEST MAJORITY.

A Political Race in Which Pennsylvania at Present Leads Texas.

In 1868, at the first national election after the close of the civil war, the Republicans carried Pennsylvania by 28,000 majority, and Kentucky, then the strongest of the Democratic states, gave a majority of 76,000. Texas had not then been readmitted to the Union, its reconstruction not being complete.

In the succeeding presidential election, that of 1872, Pennsylvania rolled up a majority monumental for that period, of 135,000 for the Republicans, and Texas went Democratic by 16,000.

In 1876 Texas gave 60,000 Democratic majority; Pennsylvania went Republican by 18,000. In 1880, the Republican majority in Pennsylvania was 37,000; the Democratic majority in Texas was 98,000, Texas leading all other states in majority.

In 1884 Pennsylvania gave 81,000 Republican majority and Texas 132,000 Democratic majority—Texas still far ahead.

In 1888 Pennsylvania gave 80,000 Republican majority and Texas 146,000 Democratic—Texas still further ahead.

In 1892 Pennsylvania gave 63,000 Republican and Texas 140,000 Democratic majority. In 1896 Pennsylvania shot ahead with 295,000 Republican majority, but Texas was not very far behind with 202,000 majority for the Democrats.

In 1900 the Republicans carried Pennsylvania by 288,000 and the Democrats carried Texas by 146,000—Pennsylvania far in the lead.

On these two states, one intensely Republican and the other overwhelmingly Democratic, the two parties are likely to depend this year for their banner majorities; and under existing conditions it is not thought probable that the Democratic majority in Texas will fall below 200,000, whatever may be the result in Pennsylvania.—New York Sun.

The Death Roll

Mrs. Anna Louisa Hess.

Mrs. Anna Louisa Hess, aged 73, widow of Theodore Hess, died yesterday morning at the home of her son, Raymond M. Hess, Union avenue and Second street, Sheraden, of injuries received in a fall last Thursday, when she fractured her left hip. Mrs. Hess was born in Saxony, Germany, and was the daughter of Richard von Wachtel, who was a German nobleman and held the commission of a general in the German army. Forty-five years ago, after receiving a musical education in the best schools of Germany, she was married to Theodore Hess, a young soldier of the German army, and immediately after their marriage they came to America. At the outbreak of the civil war Mr. Hess entered the Union army and during his first year of service died of yellow fever. For 35 years after her husband's death Mrs. Hess taught music and sang in church choirs in and about Pittsburgh and became widely known in musical circles. She is survived by one son, Raymond M. Hess of Sheraden, at whose residence funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon.

William P. Smith.

William P. Smith, once a prominent politician and newspaper man, died Tuesday night at his home in Franklin, Pa., after a lingering illness, aged 56. Ten years ago, while he was employed in the treasury department at Washington he suffered a stroke of apoplexy. He was entirely bereft of speech and only by gestures would indicate his pleasure or displeasure of anything that went on around him. At the same time he was able to read and comprehend what he read and also could recognize his friends. During the 70's Mr. Smith was prominent in Venango county politics and was connected with the American Citizen, published at Franklin, and owned and edited by his father, the late John Harrison Smith. He was a close friend of the late Senator Quay. Mr. Smith leaves a widow and two children, who reside with Mrs. Smith's mother in Allegheny; his mother, Mrs. J. Harrison Smith; two sisters, Miss Ella Smith and Mrs. G. S. Criswell, wife of Judge Criswell, and three brothers, ex-Postmaster E. W. Smith and J. H. Smith of Franklin, and Cassius C. Smith of Buffalo.

Benjamin Gilbert McGrew.

Benjamin Gilbert McGrew, aged 70, former cashier in the local United States pension office, died yesterday morning at 9 o'clock at his home, No. 1012 West St. Clair street, East End, after an illness of a week. Mr. McGrew was a native of Westmoreland county, Pa., and came here in his youth. He had been engaged as a coal operator and oil broker for many years in this city. He married Miss Catherine Howell of Westmoreland county, 47 years ago. Mr. McGrew was a member of the Sixth United Presbyterian church, East End, and a veteran of the civil war, having served with a Pennsylvania volunteer regiment as a lieutenant. He is survived by five sons, John F., A. B., D. G., Dr. W. E. and W. C. McGrew, all of this city, and by three daughters, Mrs. John P. Douglass of Webster; Mrs. F. B. Adams of Steubenville, O., and Miss Sarah McGrew, at home. Funeral services will be held at his late home at 8 p. m. today. Interment will be made at Greensburg, Pa., tomorrow afternoon.

James A. Clifton.

James A. Clifton died yesterday at the family residence, No. 211 East Montgomery avenue, Allegheny, after an illness lasting for more than two years. He was born in Service, Beaver county, 58 years ago. At the outbreak of the rebellion he enlisted in company F, Forty-sixth Pennsylvania infantry, and served three years. After the war he settled in Allegheny and engaged in contracting. Leaving Allegheny he conducted a general store in Blair county for some time and went from there to Philadelphia, where he entered the wholesale grocery business. He returned to Allegheny four years ago, after being in the hardware business in Tarentum for 10 years. He was a member of post No. 162, Grand Army of the Republic and lodge No. 34, Ancient Order United Workmen. Surviving him are his widow and one son, Harry, of Allegheny. Services will be held at the home at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Susan Smith.

Mrs. Susan Smith, aged 66, mother-in-law of Harry Moore, director of the Pittsburgh department of public safety, died last night at 8:25 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Wilbert, No. 1011 North Euclid avenue, East End, after an illness of about two weeks. Mrs. Smith was born in Switzerland and was the widow of John S. Smith, who died some years ago in this city. Mrs. Smith was a member of the Grace Evangelical Lutheran church, Sidney and South Twenty-third streets, for about 50 years. She is survived by five daughters, Mrs. Frank Wilbert, Mrs. Harry Moore and Mrs. A. J. Day of this city, and Mrs. R. S. Sloan of La Grange, Tex., and Mrs. J. B. White of Appleton, Miss.

B. Frank Butler.

B. Frank Butler, a writer, and grand nephew of the late Gen. Benjamin F. Butler, is dead in the Rivercrest sanitarium, Astoria, N. Y., where, on admission, he had been pronounced incurably insane. He was fatally stricken July 26, and never regained consciousness. Mr. Butler was about 35 years old. He was born in Egypt, while Gen. Butler was United States consul general at Cairo during the administration of Gen. Grant. His mother is Rose Eytinge, an actress. Mr. Butler was very well educated and spent nearly all his life in New York city. He was in turn actor, newspaper man and special writer, in all of which he achieved some distinction, but it was as a story teller and wit he was best known.

Funeral of John F. Mitinger.

The funeral of John F. Mitinger, former president of the Western Pennsylvania Firemen's association and of the Pennsylvania Firemen's association, at Greensburg, Pa., yesterday afternoon was attended by hundreds of volunteer firemen from almost every section of the state. The services were in charge of the Rev. H. L. Chapman of the Aspinwall Methodist Episcopal church, a former pastor, and the Rev. N. P. Kerr of Derry. Delegations of the Greensburg, Jeannette, Connellsville, South Greensburg, Scottdale, Latrobe and Uniontown fire departments followed the remains to the grave.

August C. Schlipf.

The body of August C. Schlipf, aged 25 years, a former resident of Allegheny, arrived in the city yesterday and will be buried by Irwin City lodge No. 241, Independent Order of Odd Fellows. Schlipf died in Redlands, Cal., July 28. He left Allegheny early last April to seek health in the west. He was born in Germany and moved to Allegheny several years ago. Prior to leaving there he was employed as a wood worker by the Pittsburgh Railways Company. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Caroline Schlipf of Allegheny.

John M. Jones.

John M. Jones, the oldest printing press manufacturer in the United States, died yesterday at his home in Palmyra, N. Y. He is credited with having made and patented the first typewriter in this country, receiving his patents on his machine in 1855. He was 85 years old.

Obituary Notes.

Nicholas A. Manus, aged 81, died yesterday at 11 a. m. at the Presbyterian hospital, Allegheny.

Anna Carlisle Wilson died last night at her mother's home, Dithridge and Filmore streets, where funeral services will be held over the remains at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow.

Paul Brown died yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Meeker, at New Castle, Pa. He was 80 years old and resided nearly all his life at Girard, O., but went to New Castle two months ago on a visit. He is survived by his daughter, Mrs. Meeker, and by three sons, who reside at Girard.

Mrs. Olive J. Williams died yesterday morning at the home of her son, Dr. Oliver A. Williams, in Butler, Pa. Deceased was the widow of Luke Williams, who was train supervisor for the Pennsylvania railroad at Corry, Pa., for 40 years. She was a member of the Methodist church and is survived by seven children, among whom are Dr. Williams and W. C. Williams, supervisor for the Bessemer & Lake Erie railroad at Butler. Her remains were taken to Corry.

BIG BOND SALE ORDINANCE IN Common Council Received It from Administration at Meeting Last Night.

IT TIES THE CONTROLLER

The administration presented its ordinance for the sale of $5,000,000 worth of filtration bonds in common council last night. The ordinance does not say whether the entire amount of bonds shall be sold in bulk or by instalments as the city may require the money, but a careful reading of its features shows that if it should pass councils as drawn, the administration will be able to sell the bonds in bulk, and thus carry out its plan.

The ordinance specifies that the bonds shall be sold by the city controller "under the direction of the finance committee," and as the finance committee is controlled by the administration the administration will be able to direct the controller to sell the entire amount of the bonds in bulk. Director Bigelow said yesterday that was the only way to sell the bonds, because they would not bring as good terms if sold in instalments.

The ordinance was read merely by title and referred to the finance committee. The committee will be called to meet tomorrow to consider the ordinance, which will be returned to councils at a special meeting next Monday and perhaps earlier. The Republicans will oppose passage of the measure in its present shape. The ordinance was introduced by Councilman McNally.

Features of Ordinance.

The preamble sets forth the passage of the ordinances for submitting the bond question to the people, the holding of the election and the result. Section 1 of the ordinance provides for an increase of the city indebtedness by $5,000,000 for water filtration. Section 2 provides that the bonds shall be issued with interest coupons, payable semi-annually, with the privilege of exchanging for registered bonds of any denomination not exceeding the principal. Section 3 provides that the bonds shall be in $100 or multiples thereof and dated October 1, 1904. They shall be payable in six equal amounts on October 1, 1909, 1914, 1919, 1924, 1929 and 1934. They shall bear 4 per cent interest, payable at the —— Trust Company in the city of Pittsburgh, on April 1 and October 1 of each year. They shall be signed by the mayor and countersigned by the controller. The bonds shall be sold by the city controller "under the direction of the finance committee, at not less than par and accrued interest, to the highest bidder or bidders, after 10 days' notice in the official papers and one paper in New York and in Philadelphia. The proceeds, when specifically appropriated by ordinance, shall be used for filtration purposes and a meter system.

Section 4 provides for the interest and sinking fund. Section 5 fixes the —— Trust Company of Pittsburgh as the place for registering the bonds. Section 6 makes the issue part of the funded debt of the city. Section 7 gives the form of the bond, and section 8 is the usual repealing clause.

Street Railway Franchises.

A quorum was present when councils was called to order, but there was some delay beginning business, until Councilman McNally, who had the bond ordinance in his pocket, came in. Three street railway ordinances in the interest of the Pittsburgh Railways Company were presented by Councilman Joel Gibbon. Two of them are to connect existing tracks of the Pittsburgh Railways Company by short lines. The Federal Street and Pleasant Valley Street Railway Company asks for a franchise beginning at Seventh avenue and Smithfield street, up Seventh avenue to Grant boulevard; also beginning at Seventh avenue and New Grant street, along New Grant street to Liberty avenue; also from Seventh avenue and Grant street to Sixth avenue.

The Second Avenue Passenger Railway Company asks for a right of way beginning at Second avenue and Grant street and down Grant street to Water street.

The Morningside Electric Street Railway Company asks for rights beginning at Euclid and Stanton avenues, along Stanton avenue to Jancey street, to Baker street, thence easterly along Baker street to Butler street; also beginning at the intersection of Stanton avenue and Chislett street, along Chislett street to a point about 520 feet north of Greenwood street, thence westwardly along a new street to be opened to a point of connection with the route first described on Jancey street. The ordinances all read "subject to the general ordinance covering street railways," and the work is to be completed within two years.

An ordinance providing for additional employes of the bureau of filtration was presented and referred to committee. A resolution authorizing the sale of the electric fountain in Schenley park was presented.

It Failed to Pass.

The finance affirmatively recommended an ordinance for additional officers and employes in the bureau of water for the purpose of setting meters. The rules were suspended and the ordinance was placed on final passage. William Brand, the Republican floor leader, attacked the measure, because there was no need for the additional employes. Mr. Brand tried to amend the ordinance so that mechanics and artisans to be employed receive the "current union wages." His amendment was tabled on motion of Councilman Rapp by a vote of 21 to 11. The original ordinance was then voted on but failed to pass as a suspension of the rules could not be carried.

Mr. Brand opposed the payment of $24 50 for time books for the bureau of filtration. He said the controller had refused to pay the bill, as the books were not necessary. The resolution passed second reading, but a motion to suspend the rules failed. The ordinance prohibiting spitting in public places was killed. The rules were suspended to pass it finally, but there was a chorus of "noes" when the bill itself was put on second reading. Being killed, it can never be broght up again during the life of the present council.

The ordinance allowing the Pittsburgh, Virginia & Charleston railroad to put grade crossings on several South Side streets was referred to a special committee. A vote of thanks was adopted for all those who helped the councilmanic committee to entertain the Filipinos.

Mr. Hammar, on behalf of the members, presented Clerk H. B. Davis with an envelope full of gold pieces and congratulated him on his recent marriage.

COUNCIL PAID TRIBUTE TO T. S. BIGELOW'S MEMORY

Adopted Eloquent Resolution Testifying to His Worth as a Brother Citizen and Leader.

A memorial to Thomas S. Bigelow, former city solicitor and leader of the Citizens party, was offered last night in common council. The resolution was read by Clerk H. B. Davis and adopted by an unanimous vote. The memorial, which was in the form of a resolution, is as follows:

Whereas, Thomas Steel Bigelow died at his home in Pittsburgh on Wednesday, July 20, 1904; and

Whereas, He had been for many years eminent in the legal, financial and civic life of this city; therefore, be it

Resolved, By the select and common councils of the city of Pittsburgh, that the following tribute to his life, services and character be entered upon the Municipal Record.

Thomas S. Bigelow was born within the limits of the original town of Pittsburgh on June 28, 1846. His entire education was obtained in his home city, strengthening the training the ties of maturity that bound his affections to Pittsburgh. He studied with one of our most distinguished jurists and entered the practice of the law. With a clear head, a courageous heart and a genial nature, he prospered from the beginning. Clients increased and friends multiplied. The early death of his father placed upon him the duty of aiding his mother in the care and education of the younger children, and this duty he performed with that fidelity that distinguished his discharge of every responsibility.

He was called to the public service and for the unusual term of nine years was city attorney of Pittsburgh. During that period he was instrumental in the solution of many perplexing problems, involving large public and private interests. His services to the city were of great value.

Having strong faith in the development and destiny of Pittsburgh he gave his attention to the improvement of its internal transportation and was a leading factor in the gradual perfection of the present street railway system. In this work he served not only his own interests but those of the city he loved. Those who know him best are aware that in many of his enterprises individual gain was not his chief incentive.

To Thomas S. Bigelow must be given the principal credit for the enactment of Pittsburgh's present charter, and the best efforts of his closing years were devoted to the development of municipal government under that charter.

The chief characteristic of his nature was kindliness. Amid the strife of heated campaigns he never spoke of his opponents with animosity. During the most stirring episodes in state and municipal affairs he was always calm. He was gentle, patient and charitable. His quiet benefactions were numerous. He loved to help others. Hundreds were bound to him by gratitude. He was excellent in judgment and his leadership was by counsel and advice. In his departure Pittsburgh has lost a devoted admirer and advocate.

His death was as gentle as his life. From the peaceful sleep of a summer afternoon his spirit passed to the eternal summer.

PROGRAM OF SPORTS FOR LABOR DAY IS ARRANGED

Many Prizes to Be Awarded for the Various Events at Schenley Park.

The sports and prizes committee of the Labor day celebration met last evening and arranged a program of sports. The sub-committee reported that sufficient prizes had been promised to give from two to four to each event.

The executive committee also met last evening. The principal matter discussed was the selection of speakers for the exercises at the park. A week ago invitations were sent out for speakers but some were unable to accept.

The executive committee was officially notified last evening that A. J. Hurney of the Pavers and Rammers, was a candidate for division marshal of the miscellaneous trades. Mr. Hurney has been in the labor movement for several years and three years ago was marshal of this division.

A. J. HURNEY,
Candidate for Marshal of Miscellaneous Trades.

NEW STREET CAR LINE.

Will Run from Washington, Pa., to Duquesne Through Thickly Populated Districts.

Work on laying the track of a new street car line from Washington, Pa., to Duquesne will begin soon and will be a direct line running between the towns in addition to running through thickly populated rural districts in Allegheny and Washington counties.

The survey for the proposed line was completed at Duquesne yesterday, where the line will connect with the Pittsburgh, McKeesport and Connellsville tracks, which run through McKeesport.

The road will run down Thomsons run and pass through Lincoln place, thence to Duquesne. This track will cross the lines running from Pittsburgh to Charleroi at Finleyville, where passengers can be transferred.

HOMESTEAD ODD FELLOWS WILL BUILD CLUBROOMS

Homestead lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows will soon begin operations on a new building to cost about $30,000. Yesterday afternoon a committee of the lodge selected the Louis Rott property at Ninth avenue and McClure street for the structure. The building will be three stories in height. The first floor will be used for a club room, the second apartments and the third as a meeting place for the lodge.

New Municipal Building Site.

Surveyors were at work yesterday in Homestead laying off the lot at the corner of Ninth avenue and Amity street for the proposed municipal building, and by the end of the week actual work will begin. The old building on the property will be razed. The structure will cost $30,000 and be of buff brick and sandstone.

THREE WERE HURT; PLANT WRECKED

Thousands of Torpedoes Exploded at Versailles Railway Signal Company's Works.

BUCKET BRIGADE'S WORK

With a report that could be heard for more than a mile, several thousand railroad torpedoes being packed for shipment in the yards of the Versailles Railway Signal Company's plant at Versailles exploded at 3:10 o'clock yesterday afternoon, completely demolishing three of the buildings of the plant, seriously injuring three employes and breaking the windows in nearly every building in the vicinity. The injured are:

CHARLES KLINGENSMITH, aged 20, seriously burned and bruised on the head, face and body; taken to McKeesport hospital; condition serious.

CHARLES BEVAN, aged 20, burned and bruised on head, face and arms; taken to his home in Versailles; condition serious.

MISS MARGARET GEYER, aged 19, cut and bruised on head and face, left arm burned; taken to her home in Boston.

The cause of the explosion is not yet known, as Klingensmith and Bevan were the only ones near the torpedoes when they went off, and both were still unconscious late last night and unable to tell anything of the accident.

The plant is owned by F. Dutcher and about 15 persons are employed in it. Railroad torpedoes exclusively are manufactured in the works and no machinery is used. There are six brick buildings, each about 20x30 feet, and about the center of the buildings, in the yard, the torpedoes are boxed for shipment. It was while placing the packages in boxes for shipment that the explosion occurred. A large hole was torn in the ground and three of the buildings demolished.

The debris from the wrecked buildings was scattered for several hundred yards and one of the roofs was blown on to the tracks of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad. Klingensmith and Bevan were thrown on top of the wreckage, and were partly covered with bricks and timbers when found. All the other employes in the plant had left for their homes a few minutes before the explosion occurred, and Miss Geyer was just leaving the door when she was struck on the head by a flying brick. She was rendered unconscious and was struck several times on the arms and body by flying debris from the buildings.

The wrecked buildings took fire shortly after the explosion, but they were soon extinguished by a bucket brigade and the fire prevented from spreading to the remaining buildings, in which were stored large quantities of explosives.

Mr. Dutcher stated last evening that he had been manufacturing torpedoes for the past 12 years and the explosion yesterday was the first accident that had ever happened to his plant. He estimated his loss at $5,000, which is partly covered by insurance.

WANTS THE GOVERMENT TO CONFISCATE BRIDGE

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 3.—Attorney-General Edward C. Crow has submitted the case of the state of Missouri against the alleged St. Louis Terminal mnopoly to Secretary of War Taft, with the recommendation that the Merchants bridge, which he states is owned and controlled by the Eads Bridge Company, or the Terminal association, be confiscated by the United States government on the ground that the Merchants company has violated the terms under which congress granted its charter. The charter provides that if the bridge shall be absorbed by a company owning any competing bridge, the charter shall be annulled and the federal government shall have the right to take possession.

Locked in by Robbers.

James O'Donnell of Sarah street, Homestead, early yesterday morning awoke to find he had been locked in his room, the key having been inserted on the outside and he was compelled to crawl out of the window. An investigation led to the discovery that robbers had entered the house at night, and to make sure they would not be molested, locked the door. They secured a gold and silver watch.

REPUBLICANS WANT TO SAVE THE CITY MONEY

Propose that no Filtration Bonds Be Sold Until Money Now on Hand Is Gone.

Although the Republican members of councils have not yet held a caucus to determine their stand on the sale of filtration bonds, they have talked the matter over among themselves, unofficially, and have arrived at an opinion. They will oppose the administration's proposal to sell the $5,000,000 worth of bonds in bulk, but are not disposed to accept unreservedly Controller Larkin's suggestion that the bonds be sold in instalments, although, when worked out, their proposition will save money for the city, like the controller's.

As one Republican put it: "The controller and the Republicans are not running on the same track; we are running on parallel tracks, bound for the same destination, the saving of city money.

"The Republican members of councils argue," he continued, "that the city now has $2,198,000 for filtration purposes, derived from a former bond issue. Until that money has been spent the city will need no money for the filtration plant. Therefore, why should the city sell bonds until the money is required?

"More than the amount stated will not be needed until two years have elapsed. Why? Because a great amount of preliminary work is to be done, such as excavating for the basins and the laying of pipe. This work will require two years and the $2,198,000 in the treasury is sufficient for it. At the end of that period the masonry work will begin, and when that is finished machinery will have to be bought. That will take nearly all of the $5,000,000. Then let the city sell none of the $5,000,000 worth of bonds until two years from now and we will save $200,000 in interest charges!

"Of course, we admit that an ordinance providing for the sale of $5,000,000 worth of bonds should be passed as soon as possible, so that the contract may be let, but we say that the ordinance should stipulate the beginning of the year 1907 as the time to sell them."

THIS IS WOMAN'S ERA OF HEALTH!

Pe-ru-na, the Key That Unlocks the Door to Health

Pretty Mrs. Hessler Saved From a Severe Case of Catarrh of the Stomach of Long Standing by Pe-ru-na.

Mrs. D. S. Hessler, 1002 McBride St., Syracuse, N. Y., writes:

"I take pleasure in expressing my satisfaction with Peruna as a remedy well worthy the confidence of those seeking relief from suffering. It is certainly a most efficient specific for afflictions of the digestive organs, especially catarrh, heartburn and kindred troubles of the stomach. It has cured me of catarrh and stomach trouble in three months, after I had suffered with these troubles for many years. I am certainly pleased with it."—Mrs. D. S. Hessler.

Causes That Lead to Dyspepsia Properly Called Catarrh of Stomach.

The reason for this is that dyspepsia in a great majority of cases depends upon catarrh of the stomach.

Catarrh of the stomach may have been set up by an extension of the catarrh from the throat or head.

Catarrh of the stomach is frequently produced by late suppers, indigestible diet, rapid eating, drinking ice water, use of alcoholic stimulants and many other indiscretions. Peruna cures all such cases of dyspepsia, simply because it cures catarrh wherever located.

The reason so many cases of dyspepsia suffer on and on without any relief, trying this medicine and that medicine, is that these conditions are not recognized as catarrh of the stomach.

Anyone suffering from dyspepsia having tried the ordinary remedies without relief, would be safe to assume that their case is one of catarrh of the stomach, and should at once begin a course of Peruna. Peruna is sure to cure these cases. It never fails.

FOREIGN CORPORATIONS MUST PAY STATE TAX

Auditor General Snyder Expects to Collect $100,000 from Such Delinquent Bodies.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

HARRISBURG, PA., Aug. 3.—Auditor General Snyder is ferreting out the foreign corporations doing business in this state that have been evading taxation. One of these corporations has just been made to disgorge $13,909 and another was forced to pay back taxes amounting to $9,000. Notice was sent today to 100 other corporations of this class that unless they settle promptly legal measures will be taken by the auditor general.

General Snyder expects to collect $1,000,000 from delinquent foreign corporations that have not registered in Pennsylvania, but have gone on from year to year doing business in this state and shirking payment of their taxes.

The department is pushing collections and up to the present time the receipts for the year are more than $1,000,000 in excess of those for the same period in 1903. Limited partnerships are being notified that they must register at the state department or be penalized. It is expected that considerable money will be realized from those partnerships which do business in Pennsylvania and evade payment of taxes.

The auditor general today received a check for $555,905.50 from City Treasurer Schoek of Philadelphia, collected as license taxes for that city.

NOT HIS FIRST ESCAPE.

Munroe, Who Left Moundsville Penitentiary in a Box, Got Away from Fayette County Officials.

UNIONTOWN, PA., Aug. 3.—(Special.)—Officers here are interested in the story of the escape from the West Virginia penitentiary at Moundsville of George Munroe, alias John Smith, who was secreted in a box which was being taken from the prison. Munroe and a man named Henry Brown were arrested in Connellsville in 1901, and later were sentenced to the penitentiary for three years, for picking pockets. After sentence had been pronounced, it was discovered the prisoners had escaped from the grand jury room in broad daylight. They were not apprehended.

County Detective McBeth knew of Munroe being sentenced to Moundsville and intended to go after him as soon as his sentence there was completed.

MERCHANTS ARRESTED.

Charged by Greensburg Christian Civic Union With Violating Law by Selling on Sunday.

GREENSBURG, PA., Aug. 3.—(Special.)—The Rev. George L. Lindsey and the Rev. J. A. Douthett, in behalf of the Greensburg Christian Civic union, today made informations against S. P. Brown, George F. Steele, John V. Stephenson and D. Arthur Miller, druggists; Emanuel Gorman, a fruit dealer, and G. G. Panos, proprietor of a shoe shining establishment, charging them with violating the law governing the observance of the Sabbath. This is the third time informations have been made and the druggists say they will refuse to close their stores so long as they make sufficient money to pay the fines and costs.

Letter Carriers to Meet.

NEW CASTLE, PA., Aug. 3.—(Special.)—The annual convention of the Pennsylvania Rural Letter Carriers' association will meet here on Friday and Saturday of this week, with several hundred rural carriers in attendance. Hon. A. L. Bates of Meadville and Hon. Daniel McLean of York will be present and make addresses. Important questions will be considered.

LUTHERAN SYNOD IS BEING HELD IN OIL CITY

Communion Served—Allegheny Minister Preaches—The Rev. J. H. Reinman Is Chosen President.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

OIL CITY, PA., Aug. 3.—The 63rd annual convention of the eastern district joint synod of the Lutheran church opened today. The opening session was devoted to the reading of reports and the election of synod officers. The report of the president, the Rev. J. H. Reinman, urged the necessity for more ministers to carry on the work in the larger cities. The Pittsburgh and Allegheny parishes were reported in a flourishing condition.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, the Rev. J. H. Reinman of Oil City; vice president, the Rev. T. F. Meyers of Canton, O.; secretary, the Rev. O. Mees of Coraopolis; treasurer, the Rev. C. F. Brecht of Chicora, Pa.

Tonight special communion services were held by the delegates and the synodical sermon was delivered by the Rev. H. J. Schun of Allegheny.

JAIL BREAKER IS SEEN.

Officers After Last of Bellefonte Prisoners—Funeral of Murdered Turnkey Occurs.

BELLEFONTE, PA., Aug. 3.—(Special.)—Today word was received here that George Livingston, the last one of the party of jail breakers, was seen this morning out on Beech creek, and County Detective Rightnour and Deputy Harry Miller started immediately for the mountains confident they will bring back their man. The three men arrested yesterday and brought in last night continue to show the same bravado they displayed when first arrested. When searched yesterday they had two razors and a pair of very sharp-pointed scissors on them. The Italian has not yet been brought from Bedford, the sheriff refusing to give him up until the $100 reward is paid.

The funeral of Jerry Condo, the murdered turnkey, occurred today at Spring Mills and was one of the largest ever seen in Penn's valley. More than 1,000 persons were present, including delegations from a number of civic organizations.

NEW CHARTERS GRANTED.

Board of Managers of National Society of Sons of American Revolution Transact Business.

BEDFORD, PA., Aug. 3.—The board of managers of the National Society of Sons of the American Revolution held a short session in the Bedford Springs hotel this morning.

Most of the time was taken up in granting charters to new chapters and appointing new committees. Among those present at today's session were President General James Denton Hancock; William L. Jones of Pittsburgh, president of the state society; R. W. Guthrie of Pittsburgh; Secretary and Register General Edward Payton Cone of New York, and John Paul Earnest of Washington, D. C. The members of the board of managers will remain here several days, the guests of Judge James Denton Hancock.

Curfew for Canonsburg.

WASHINGTON, PA., Aug. 3.—(Special.)—Acting in response to a petition from clergymen and prominent business men, the Canonsburg council has passed a curfew ordinance, the burgess has approved it and it will go into effect on September 1. Children under 16 will not be allowed on the streets between 8:30 p. m. and 5 a. m.

PRIEST AND FOUR FIREMEN ARRESTED AT KITTANNING

Charges Grow Out of Fight Over Running of Gambling Devices at Street Fair.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

KITTANNING, PA., Aug. 3.—William Schneider, president and foreman of hose company No. 3, which has been holding a street fair this week at which paddle wheels have been run, appeared before Justice of the Peace Joel Crawford late this afternoon and made information against Father Lawrence S. Carroll of St. Mary's Catholic church at this place, charging him with conducting a lottery. This is in retaliation for the arrest of four members of the fire company charged with conducting gambling at the street fair. Bail was entered in $100 for Father Carroll's appearance at a hearing on Wednesday, August 10. The arrest of the firemen and the information against Rev. Carroll have stirred up the town and it is expected that the death knell of gambling has either been sounded in this place or that games of chance in every form will be permitted in the future. Despite the arrest of the four firemen the management announced that the wheels will be run the balance of the week.

The four firemen arrested are Thomas Usher, George Heidersdorf, William Blaney and Gordon Baum. The informations were made before Justice R. B. McKee of Freeport and were brought here by Constable John Duff. The accused delivered themselves and were held for the September term of court in $100 bail each.

The charge against Father Carrol results from the fact that holders of admission tickets to a picnic given by his church July 4 were entitled to a chance to win a trip to the world's fair.

CONNELLSVILLE, PA., Aug. 3.—The Western Pennsylvania Firemen's convention next week was given a big boost last night by the town council when it appropriated $600 toward expenses and donated all the licenses for privileges to the fund. Council also appointed a committee to solicit funds. The only request council made in making the donation to the firemen was that no gambling devices be allowed, and Chief Martin Coyne has promised to comply.

PYTHIAN OUTING TODAY.

Knights of Lawrence County and Friends Will Hold a Picnic—Ball Game to Be a Feature.

NEW CASTLE, PA., Aug. 3.—(Special.)—Several thousand Knights of Pythias and their friends will gather tomorrow in this city on the occasion of the fourth annual outing of the Lawrence County Pythian association, which is composed of the nine Pythian lodges of this city and county. A feature will be a ball game between the New Castle Elks' team and the Steel Forge team of Ellwood, which claims the county championship.

The officers of the Pythian association are: President, William J. Moffatt; vice president, F. L. Gray of Wampum; secretary, Alderman Cassius W. Raney; treasurer, Maj. J. L. Myland; trustees, Dan A. Miller, Harry W. Preston, C. E. Koons, William J. Clappie, John Greer, W. McCurdy, Harry Rosencrantz, Edward Patterson and F. L. Gray. The general reception committee for the outing is: Chairman, the Rev. Dr. H. S. Jordan, S. A. Barnes, John Bagnall, A. E. White, John F. Pitts, Capt. Cunningham, John Scheidemantle, John D. Cox and Jesse J. Dean.

Fight Over a Fan.

Mrs. Bessie Mason, a trustee of the Chartiers street African Methodist Episcopal church of Allegheny, yesterday made information against Mrs. Laura Robinson, one of the choir, charging her with disorderly conduct. The trouble arose because of the refusal of the defendant to surrender one of the palm-leaf fans that belong to the church.

ARRESTED FOR SELLING POOR KIND OF SOAP

New York Salesmen Return Money to Grocers and Charge is Then Withdrawn.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

SPRINGFIELD, O., Aug. 3.—Because his soap would not stand the test, Z. A. Brown, who says he represents a manufacturer of New York city, was arrested today on complaint of W. H. Bryant, a well-known grocer and member of the city council. Brown came here July 14 and exhibited samples of soap, agreeing to sell it to the local dealers at $3.48 a box. The grocers placed large orders and today Brown began delivering the big shipment, the dealers in examining the soap became suspicious. Mr. Bryant decided to have it tested and this resulted in the arrest of Brown. He put up bail for his appearance. Later he settled with the grocers by returning the money he had collected and he was allowed to go.

Chief of Police O'Brien says it was found that there is only one ounce of soap in each bar and that the rest is made up of salt and water. Brown says he is not the man who sold the soap, but simply has charge of the delivery and collections.

GROOM OUT OF JAIL.

Father-in-Law Withdraws Charge and Tibbels Goes to Harrisburg With His Youthful Bride.

CONNELLSVILLE, PA., Aug. 3.—(Special.)—Accompanied by his bride William Tibbels, who spent the first five days of his honeymoon in the Uniontown jail, left for Harrisburg. Thursday last Tibbels was married to Margaret Flannigan, 14 years old, daughter of Patrick Flannigan. Scarcely had the ceremony occurred when the father made information against the groom charging him with false pretense and later with enticing a minor child. Tibbels was without money and was sent to jail.

Today William Rourke of Harrisburg came here and after a conference with the girl's father and District Attorney Alfred Jones, Flannigan withdrew the charge against his son-in-law.

MINERS TO START PAPER.

Opposing Leiter in His Work of Securing Men in the Connellsville Region.

CONNELLSVILLE, PA., Aug. 3.—(Special.)—It is announced the United Mine Workers will establish a paper in this section to aid them in the work of organizing this region.

One reason for the especial activity of the mine workers is the fact that Joseph Leiter, with a party of his officials, have been in the region securing miners for his Illinois mines where the miners are on a strike. The organizers are endeavoring to prevent miners from going there. John Zook, manager of Mr. Leiter's Zeigler mines, says he has met with considerable opposition, but has been able to secure miners.

Ground Broken for New Plant.

MEYERSDALE, PA., Aug. 3.—(Special.)—The new steel sheet mill, to be erected in West Meyersdale, through the efforts of the Meyersdale board of trade, has been started, the ground being broken today.

Wire Drawers on Strike.

MONESSEN, PA., Aug. 3.—(Special.)—Because of a reduction of 15 per cent, effective August 1, 50 wire drawers at the plant of the Page Woven Wire Fence Company here refused to work today, and that department is idle.

TOLD FAIRBANKS OF NOMINATION

served with luncheon in large tents on the lawn, and the general public was served with light refreshments in the house. A photograph of the candidate and committee was taken from the steps of the veranda.

An enthusiastic greeting was accorded the two speakers as they appeared on the veranda. The demonstration lasted for several minutes, during which the members of the committee were seated. Cheers broke out again and again, and several recognitions were necessary before quiet was secured. Mr. Root without preliminary addressed himself to the formal notification. He said:

Not Named by Chance.

Senator Fairbanks: The committee which now waits upon you was appointed by the national convention of the Republican party held at Chicago in June, and its agreeable duty is to notify you of your nomination as the Republican candidate for the office of vice president of the United States for the term to begin on the fourth day of March, 1905.

We give you formal notice of that nomination with assurance of the undivided and hearty support of the great party which has executed the people's will in the government of this country for the better part of the last half century. The nomination comes to you in accordance with the best methods and practices of representative government. It was the result of long and earnest consideration and discussion by the members of the convention. It was not the chance product of an excited hour, and it was not upon the demand of any powerful influence—political or otherwise—constraining the judgment of the delegates. It was not made for the purpose of conciliating possible malcontents, or of swelling the campaign fund of the party. No bargains or intrigues contributed to it. No suppressions of the truth or misleading of the convention as to your principles and opinions were necessary to bring it about. It was the deliberate, informed and intelligent judgment of the delegates from every state and territory, and it was their unanimous judgment.

It is a great office to which you are called. John Adams and Thomas Jefferson and George Clinton and John C. Calhoun and Martin Van Buren and many others whose names are illustrious in the history of our country, have filled it. It is an office of high dignity and immediate, ever present importance. The credit and honor of our country are greatly concerned in the character and conduct of the man who presides over the senate of the United States—that powerful and august body, of which you are already so experienced, so useful and so honored a member.

Duties of the Vice President.

But the vice president has other grave duties of imperative obligation. When the people elect a president under our political system, they do not merely select the man for the office; they give their approval to certain controlling principles and policies of government; and the administration of which the vice president is a part is bound to give effect to these principles and policies. The primary duty of the vice president to be always ready to take up the burden of the presidency if occasion requires, carries with it the duty to be always ready to continue unbroken the policies which the people have entrusted to the administration for execution. For the due performance of this duty the vice president should be familiar with the conduct of affairs by the administration as it proceeds, a part of its counsels, and imbued with a knowledge of its labors, its perplexities and its motives, that can come only from intimate association and confidence and sympathy. Too often it has happened that after excited contests for the presidential nomination the candidate for vice president has been selected from the defeated faction for the purpose of appeasing their resentment, and that after election he has remained antagonistic in spirit, and a stranger to the counsels of the president whom he may be called upon to succeed. Happily we are now in no such case. The people would fain see again such relations of sympathy and loyal helpfulness for the public good as existed between President McKinley and Vice President Hobart; and the personal relations between President Roosevelt and yourself, your mutual esteem and good understanding assure us that these happy conditions will come again after the fourth of next March. We count upon your wisdom and experience and loyal aid as an element of ever present strength to the coming administration.

Where Opponents Failed.

As to the supreme responsibility of the vice presidency in case of succession to the presidency, we shall all pray, and no one more earnestly than yourself, that it may not come to you. But we are not at liberty to ignore the possibility that it may come. Sad and bitter experience admonishes us that provision for succession to the presidency is no idle form. Of the last 12 presidents elected by the people of the United States five—nearly one-half—have died in office and have been succeeded by vice presidents. A serious obligation rests upon the political parties which select the candidates between whom the people must choose, to see to it that they nominate men for this possible succession who have the strength of body and mind and character which shall enable them, if occasion comes, to take up the burdens of the great presidential office, to endure its trying and exhausting demands, to meet its great responsibilities, and with firm hand and clear vision to guide the government of the country until the people can express their choice again.

Our opponents of the Democratic party have signally failed to perform this duty. They have nominated as their candidate for the vice presidency an excellent gentleman, who was born during the presidency of James Monroe, and who before the 4th of March next will be in the 82d year of his age. Before the next administration is ended he will be approaching his 86th birthday. It is no disparagement of this gentleman, for whom I believe we all have the highest respect, to say that he shares the common lot of mortals, and that the election of any man of such great age would furnish no safeguard to the American people against the disaster which would ensue upon the death of a president with a successor not competent to perform the duties of the presidential office. It is common experience that very aged men, however bright and active they may appear for brief periods, cannot sustain long continued severe exertion. The demands of the presidential office upon the mental and physical vitality are so great, so continuous and so exhausting, as to be wholly beyond the capacity of any man of 85.

Doubt About Democracy.

The attempt by such a man to perform the duties of the office would with practical certainty be speedily followed by a complete breakdown both of body and of mind. In contemplating the remote possibility of the election of the Democratic candidate for vice president, the people of the country are bound to contemplate also as a necessary result of such an election in case of the president's death, that others, not chosen by the people, and we know not who, would govern in the name of a nominal successor unable himself to perform the constitutional duties of his office; or worse still, that serious doubt whether the vice president had not reached a condition of "inability" within the meaning of the Constitution would throw the title to the office of president into dispute.

The serious effect of such an event upon the government and upon the business interests and general welfare of the country, and the serious effect even of the continual menace of such an event, must be apparent to every thoughtful mind.

In your election, on the other hand, this chief requirement will be fully met. In the full strength of middle life you are prepared for the exhausting duties of the presidency. Your successful and distinguished career, the ability and probity with which you have already discharged the duties of high office, the universal respect and esteem of the people of Indiana who have delighted to honor you, the attachment of hosts of friends throughout the Union—all assure us that you have the character and the ability to govern wisely and strongly should you become president. Many indeed among our people have already turned toward you as a suitable candidate to be elected directly to that great office.

It is the earnest wish of your party and of many good citizens who have no party affiliations that you shall accept this nomination, and that you shall be elected in November to be the next vice president of the United States. In expressing to you this wish, we beg to add an assurance of our own personal respect, esteem and loyalty.

Senator Fairbanks was given another ovation as he arose to accept the nomination. He said:

Policies That Brought Prosperity.

Mr. Root and Gentlemen of the Committee: I thank you for the very generous terms in which you have conveyed the official notification of my nomination for vice president of the United States. The unsolicited and unanimous nomination by the Republican party is a call to duty which I am pleased to obey.

I accept the commission which you bring with a profound sense of the dignity and responsibilities of the exalted position for which I have been nominated. My utmost endeavor will be to discharge in full measure the trust, if the action of the convention shall meet the approval of the American people.

The platform adopted by the convention is an explicit and emphatic declaration of the principles in entire harmony with those policies of our party which have brought great honor and prosperity to our common country, and which, if continued, will bring us like blessings in the future.

The monetary and economic policies which have been so forcibly re-announced lie at the very foundation of our industrial life, and are essential to the fullest development of our national strength. They give vitality to our manufactures and commerce, and if impaired or overthrown there would inevitably ensue a period of industrial depression, to the serious injury of the vast interests of both labor and capital.

The Republican party since it preserved the integrity of the republic and gave freedom to the oppressed, never rendered a more important service to the country than when it established the gold standard. Under it we have increased our currency supply sufficiently to meet the normal requirements of business. It is gratifying that the convention made frank and explicit declaration of the inflexible purpose of the party to maintain the gold standard. It is essential not only that the standard should be as good as the best in the world, but that the people should have the assurance that it will be so maintained.

Wisdom of Protection.

The enemies of sound money were powerful enough to suppress mention of the gold standard in the platform lately adopted by the Democratic national convention. The leader of Democracy in two great national campaigns has declared since the adjournment of the convention that as soon as the election is over he will undertake to organize the forces within the Democratic party for the next national contest, for the purpose of advancing the radical policies for which his element of the party stands. He frankly says that the money question is for the present in abeyance. In view of these palpable facts, it is not the part of wisdom to abandon our vigilance in safeguarding the integrity of our money system. We must have not only a president who is unalterably committed to the gold standard, but both houses of congress in entire accord with him upon the subject.

In congress and not with the president rests the supreme power to determine the standard of our money. Though the chief executive should oppose, the congress, acting within its independent constitutional authority, could at any time overthrow or change the monetary standard.

The wisdom of our protective policy finds complete justification in the industrial development of the country. This policy has become a most vital part of our industrial system, and must be maintained unimpaired. When altered conditions make changes in schedules desirable, their modification can be safely entrusted to the Republican party. If they are to be changed by the enemies of the system along free trade lines, uncertainty would take the place of certainty and a reaction would surely follow to the injury of the wage earners and all who are profitably employed. Uncertainty undermines confidence and loss of confidence breeds confusion and distress in commercial affairs.

Ample Record of Deeds.

The convention was wise not only in the enunciation of party policies, but in its nomination of a candidate for the presidency. During the last three years, President Roosevelt has been confronted with large and serious questions. These he has met and solved with high wisdom and courage. The charges made against him in the Democratic platform finds an irrefutable answer in his splendid administration, never surpassed in all the history of the republic and never equalled by the party who seeks to discredit it.

The election of the president is imperatively demanded by those whose success depends upon the continuance of a safe, conservative and efficient administration of public affairs. We have an ample record of deeds done, of beneficent things accomplished in the public interest. The vast business of the government has been well administered. The laws have been enforced fearlessly and impartially. The treasury has been adequately supplied with revenue, and the financial credit of the government was never better. Our foreign trade balance continues to increase our national wealth. We have adopted an irrigation policy which will build homes in the arid regions of the west. The Panama canal, the hope of centuries, is in course of construction under the sole protection of the American flag.

We have peace and great prosperity at home and are upon terms of good neighborhood to the entire world. The conditions constitute the strongest possible assurance for the future.

Later I shall avail myself of a favorable opportunity to submit to you, and through you to my fellow-citizens, a fuller expression of my views concerning the questions now in issue.

Permit me again to thank you and to express the belief that we may confidently submit our cause to the candid and patriotic judgment of our countrymen.

Both speeches were met with frequent outbursts of applause. As Senator Fairbanks concluded there were cordial greetings all around.

Shot After House Breaker.

Edward Price of 1874 Middle street, Sharpsburg, discovered a thief in his house yesterday morning and fired a revolver after him as he clambered out of a cellar window. Nothing was taken from the house.

TAGGART NAMES HIS SUBORDINATES

Peabody Is Made Treasurer and Sheehan Executive Committee Chairman.

COL. GUFFEY IS ON THE LIST

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 3.—Thomas Taggart, chairman of the Democratic national committee this evening announced the following officers of the national committee, and the following members of the national executive committee:

National committee—Delancey Nicoll, vice chairman, New York; George Foster Peabody, treasurer, New York.

Executive committee—W. F. Sheehan, chairman, New York; August Belmont, New York; John R. McLean, Ohio; Senator Thomas S. Martin, Virginia; Col. J. M. Guffey, Pennsylvania; James Smith, Jr., New Jersey; Timothy E. Ryan, Wisconsin.

ESOPUS, N. Y., Aug. 3.—Edward C. Wall, of Wisconsin, and Mrs. Wall were the guests of Judge Parker today. They are enroute to Europe. Mr. Wall brought a message direct from William J. Bryan, assuring Judge Parker that he is heartily with the ticket and will place himself at the disposal of the Democratic national committee. Mr. Bryan breakfasted with Mr. Wall at the latter's home in Milwaukee July 23, and they spent several hours together.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—The interesting political event of the day was a meeting between Daniel S. Lamont and David B. Hill. It is understood that the Democratic nomination for governor of New York was the subject of discussion. Men who have been close associates of Mr. Lamont say that this is not the first year that he has been approached by Democratic politicians with the suggestion that he be a candidate for governor.

HEREROS ARE DEFEATED.

Leave Fifty Dead on the Field After Trying to Break Through the German Cordon.

BERLIN, Aug. 3.—Lieutenant-General Von Trotha, commander-in-chief of the forces in German Southwest Africa, wires that the second company of the second field regiment was attacked on the morning of August 2, at Okateitei, by 150 Hereros. The Hereros were repulsed, leaving 50 dead. The Germans lost three wounded, besides two natives killed and one wounded.

General Trotha had encircled the Hereros in the Waterberg hills, and it is probable that the attack was an effort to break through the German lines.

Bigelow Will Repair Street.

Alexander Young yesterday headed a committee of residents of the Morningside district, to complain of the impassable condition of Baker street. The committee was appointed at a mass meeting held last week. Director Bigelow, on whom the committee called, said he would begin work today, and that in a short time the street would be repaired.

Elected Superior of Convent.

The foundress of the convent of St. Francis, Mt. Alvernia, near Millvale, was yesterday elected superior of the convent. She is Mother Baptiste and takes the place of Mother Hildegarde. The election was conducted by Bishop Canevin, assisted by Father Gabriel. Mother Baptiste was once before superior of the convent.

Waldeck-Rousseau's Condition Serious.

PARIS, Aug. 3.—The condition of former Premier Waldeck-Rousseau causes serious anxiety. It is feared that the operation for stomach trouble of four months back has not resulted in a permanent cure.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—By a little timely swatting in the sixth inning the Champions just barely nosed Brooklyn out of the first game of the series at Washington park today. Score, 3 to 2.

But for poor control by Roscoe Miller the "Souperbas" would have been shut out, two men being down when Miller started his misplays. After a frightful exhibition, Acting Manager Leach very wisely and promptly yanked the ex-Giant out of the box, and gave one Mike Lynch an opportunity to scintillate from the center of the diamond. The move certainly showed good generalship on the part of Tommy.

Michael at the start was small improvement on his predecessor, being very wild. He, however, settled down and notwithstanding the locals during the early stages of the game were putting men on the stations, they failed to get them around after the opening inning, and only succeeded in getting three hits off the former college star. Lynch also made the only extra base hit during the game, a nice double up against the right field fence.

Cronin pitched a strong game for the Brooklyns, allowing only seven hits, Wagner and Bransfield dividing five of them, the batters driving in two runs. Cronin fielded his position in faultless style, having seven assists to his credit.

Claude Ritchey was the fielding star, three of his chances robbed the home team of hits that were tagged double and his pulling down of a high foul from Sheckard's bat near the right field foul line was worth the price of admission.

Leach began the game for Pittsburgh by flying out to Lumley, and Beaumont was retired at first on a hit to McCormick. Kruger walked on four wide ones. Wagner drove a single to right, Kruger going to third on the rap. Kruger and Wagner worked a double steal and got away with it, greatly assisted by Bergen's poor throw to second. Wagner and Bransfield worked the hit and run game, the former scoring on Bransfield's rap through short. Diehl stopped further run getting by going out at first.

Not until the sixth could the Pirates break away from the tie. In this inning after Kruger was retired at first Wagner walked and stole second. Again Wagner and "Kitty" worked the hit and run play. Wagner took a long lead off second and never stopped until he crossed the rubber on Bransfield's timely second hit.

With two out in the first inning, Lumley beat out a bunt. Sheckard and Strang walked, filling the bases. Miller followed this up by hitting Babb, which forced Lumley home. His next effort was a wild pitch, on which Sheckard scored Brooklyn's second and last run.

Barney Dreyfuss was asked if he said the Giants would not be in the lead at the first of September and was willing to bet $5,000.

"I never said anything of the kind," he replied. "Then you don't think the Giants will win the pennant?" "I don't. As I said before, I think my team will win the pennant." The score:

Slagle's Error Was Costly.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—The local Nationals scored enough runs in the third inning to win today's game from Chicago, 4 to 3. With the bases full Dunn singled, but Slagle let the ball get away from him and three men tallied, Dunn getting around to third. On McGann's out at first Dunn scored what proved to be the winning tally, as the visitors batted in three runs in the ninth inning. Score:

DETROIT, Aug. 3.—Chesbro today struck out 13 men, every man on the team being retired on strikes. However, he was lucky with it all, as the actual errors and blunders of the Detroits gave the game away. Williams' home run was a clean drive and the three-baggers were almost as far. Detroit sold Greininger to Minneapolis today. Attendance, 2,500. Score:

KID M'COY'S BROTHER WEDS DIVORCED WIFE; FIGHT NEWS

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—For the third time Homer Selby, brother of "Kid" McCoy, has married sisters. There are only two sisters, but Homer married one of them twice, and today is spending his honeymoon in New Haven, Conn. The ceremony was performed in New Haven, and none of Selby's friends understands why it was necesary to tie the knot twice. Selby's first wife was Florence Boyere, a French Canadian beauty. They were divorced and shortly afterward Selby married his divorced wife's sister, Rosalie. Just why Rosalie and Homer decided to marry again is a secret they are keeping to themselves.

"Probably Homer is following the footsteps of his brother Norman," said one of his friends today. "He did the same thing in his matrimonial plunge."

Peter Maher is after another chance at Jack Williams, the Philadelphia heavyweight who took the Irishman's measure on two occasions recently. Maher has the following to say in a letter to a New York sporting man:

"Philadelphia, Aug. 2.

"I am still of the opinion that I can beat Jack Williams, notwithstanding my two setbacks at his hands. A great many people think I am 'all in,' but such is far from the truth. In anticipation of another meeting with Williams I am conditioning myself and feel that I am rapidly regaining my form of five years ago.

"PETER MAHER."

Hughey McGovern will be given a chance to swap wallows again with Frankie Neil, the bantamweight champion. Neil has consented to give McGovern a return match, and the indications are the lads will be signed again by the matchmaker of the National A. C., of Philadelphia, to try conclusions in a six-round bout at that club within two or three weeks.

Neil says that he is not averse to arranging a contest with "Battling" Nelson, the Chicago boy, who downed little Eddie Hanlon last week. "I do not consider him any better as a pugilist than Jimmy Britt," pursued Neil. "I offered to box Britt at 130 pounds, weigh in at 6 o'clock on the night of the go. The same proposition is still open to Nelson. By the way, I haven't heard anything of Britt. I can't understand why he has ignored my defi, unless he is afraid to do business with me."

DR. STRONG WINS HEATS WITH GEERS AS THE DRIVER

Judges Order Him in to Take Place of Grahagan—Several Surprises.

BUFFALO, Aug. 3.—The grand circuit races continued today at Kenilworth park over a somewhat heavy track, produced several distinct surprises. The first came with the running of the 2:19 trot, in which Stanley Dillon, the M. & M. winner, was favorite. Geers' horse was never in the hunt and when the race ended as stipulated at the third heat, Snyder McGregor stood first in the summary, Hail Fry and Lisonjero both having scored heats.

Another surprise came in the 2:07 pace, in which a local speedway horse, Anidrosis, an outsider in the pooling, won the second and third heats after brushing it out with Winfield Stratton in the first. Star Hal, the favorite, could never get up.

After the first heat of the 2:09 trot the judges ordered Driver Gahagan down and put Geers in his place. Dr. Strong won the next two heats in faster time. Bets were declared off on the first heat and Gahagan's case will be dealt with later.

Tomorrow Prince Alert will go after the two-minute mile. Summaries:

P. A. C. GOES EAST.

Wentz Takes His Outfit to Atlantic City Tonight.

P. A. C. departs tonight for Atlantic City, where it plays the team of that place a series of four games, playing there tomorrow, August 5, and on the 6th, 8th and 9th. On the return trip Manager Wentz will stop at Johnstown for three games, August 11, 12 and 13.

Frank Venning will do the catching. Bill Rankin, P. A. C. mainstay, will twirl. "Lefty" Smith, who has been pitching such good ball for Turtle Creek, will also do duty on the rubber for a game or two. Bill Totten and Ray Burns, who have both been very successful in all their games for P. A. C. this year, will also work in a couple of the games. Mooar, Captain Soffel, McClaren and Harkins will be the infield. Dick Bisel, Wetzel and Geer will do duty in the outfield.

Manager Wentz would like to hear from some of the leading teams hereabouts for week day games during August, either at Friendship park or away from home. P. A. C. will not be at home any Saturday in August, as they will play McKeesport at McKeesport on August 20 and at Turtle Creek on August 27.

Answer to Correspondent.

Homestead—There is a man on third base and another on first, with one out. Batter hits a fly to right, which is caught, but the man on third beats the throw home to the catcher. The catcher, missing the runner, throws to first and retires the runner who was trying to get back to the bag. Does the run count? The run does not count, as the man on third scored on a double play.

RISHERITES GET SERIES FROM WAYNESBURG TEAM

Greene County Champions Are Out-Hit in Swatfest by an 8-to-5 Score.

Homestead made it three straights from Waynesburg by taking yesterday's contest at Steel Works park, 8 to 5. It was a swatfest which developed in the latter part of the game, and both pitchers were punished.

Manager Risher sent Chambers, the West Newton wonder, in to oppose Ike Collin, and for awhile it looked as if Koebert's aggregation would be let down with but one run. The young southpaw pitched a 12-inning victory Tuesday at Smithton for West Newton, and when Waynesburg began to hammer him in the eighth the let-down was attributed to over work. Collins was roughly handled in the sixth inning, most of the drives going to middle field. Jimmy Ganiear was kept busy running down home run hits to keep the men on third. Chambers was touched up for three runs in the eighth when two three-baggers and a single were made.

Milt Montgomery shot one into left for a home run in the second, but Homestead got it back in the same round, Kenny putting Lindsay on first by a fumble. A two-bagger by Dillon, which was on the lucky order, got Lindsay home. Tate's three-bagger and Lindsay's single in the third put the Risherites ahead one tally.

Homestead did the most damage in the sixth. Tate led with a single, but Lindsay forced him out at second. McClintock singled and then beat Collins' throw to second on Dillon's bounder. McClintock again beat a throw, getting to third on Chambers' life. Edmundson scored McClintock and Dillon with a single. Then followed triples by McCloskey and Fohl and a single by Smith, which in all netted six runs.

M. Montgomery hit in the seventh, took second on an error by Lindsay and counted on Williams' single. Edmundson's low throw put DeMoss on first in the eighth and Ganiear and Kenney followed with triples to right center, Milt Montgomery scoring Kenney with a single.

The game abounded in sharp fielding. Edmundson ate up base hits that were traveling on the ground and once went back into left and got a fly that provoked applause. Kenney did some fine fielding, as did McCloskey. The score:

Notes of the Game.

Youngstown today.

Milt Montgomery is emerging from a batting slump.

Fast fielding by Ganiear kept Tate on third in the fourth.

McClintock went over toward second and took Collins' grounder, getting the Pittsburgh college twirler at first.

Jim Brownless, manger of the Washington team, and Bob Anderson, manager of the Turtle Creek Athletics, were at the game.

Collins hit Tate in the back in the sixth. Parry refused to let him go to first. The blow was a painful one and Tate retired, Mullin going to right and Smith to middle.

Harry Tate had his batting eye in right order. Kenney took away a hit from him in the second. Tate shot a fast one too hot for DeMoss to handle, but Kenney got it on the bound and retired his man at first.

Williamsport Fans Handle Murray Very Roughly—Tri-State Games.

WILLIAMSPORT, Aug. 3.—The spectators at today's game between Harrisburg and Williamsport took exceptions to some of Umpire Murray's decisions and at the conclusion of the game gathered around him and used him rather roughly. He was finally escorted to the dressing room by the Williamsport players, and was later accompanied to his hotel by a policeman. It is said the Williamsport management will protest the game on the ground of unfair decisions. Score: R.H.E.

LEW MOREN WILL PITCH AGAINST OHIO WORKS

Lew Moren will pitch today against Ohio Works at Homestead. Moren has recovered from his injury and is in fine shape. He was rested during the Waynesburg series, as Manager Risher wanted him strong for Hogan's outfit. Al. Miller will resume his place in left field today. Manager Hogan will probably pitch Hughes, the W. and J. star, today.

MEMBERS OF BALL TEAMS GIVE UMPIRE A DUCKING

Warned to Never Officiate at Another Ball Game—Number of Suits Are Threatened.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, PA., Aug. 3.—At the close of a ball game between local teams at Coal Center last evening the umpire, William Hayes, was seized by members of both nines and given a ducking in Pike run. The affair has caused great excitement and numerous suits are threatened. According to the players the decisions of Hayes were extremely unfair, both teams suffering. The game was a close one and interest was great, the championship of the township being at stake. A protest was made in the seventh inning against a decision of Hayes, who attempted to eject several players from the game. Every player on the two nines then seized him and carrying him, fighting and struggling, to Pike run threw him into the water and held him there for several minutes. Hayes put up a game fight and succeeded in pulling James Copeland into the water with him.

Several times he was pushed beneath the water and was finally taken out in a half strangled condition. Hayes attempted to retaliate by throwing stones, but he was held securely and finally taken to his home, with an admonition never to umpire a ball game again.

WEST VIRGINIA WILL BE SAFE

Republicans Have Plenty of Votes to Spare in the National Election.

SENATOR SCOTT IS CONFIDENT

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Room 10, Postal Building.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 3.

Senator N. B. Scott of West Virginia, whose re-election to the United States Senate depends upon the result of the general election this fall, is confident of Republican success in his state. He called at the White House this afternoon and had a long talk with the president, during which he outlined the conditions in West Virginia. When seen after his interview with President Roosevelt Senator Scott said:

"No, I do not believe there is any chance for the Democrats to carry West Virginia this fall. If you examine the returns from that state in the last presidential campaign you will see that there is nothing to give the Democrats hope. Four years ago the Republican national ticket carried the state by 21,000 majority. We have made polls of the state for many years and our polls in 1900 showed that 5,000 gold Democrats voted with us. If these men go back to their party this will make a difference of 10,000 votes. Estimating that the nomination of Mr. Davis will add 2,000 votes to the Democratic ticket by reason of his personal popularity—and I greatly doubt that he will add 500 votes to the ticket, inasmuch as he has a somewhat bad record on the labor question—and that will make 14,000 votes, leaving us a majority of 7,000 votes at the least, not counting a number of silver Republicans who went to the Democrats eight and four years ago, and will come back to us, and a number of gold Democrats who voted with us and will stay with us. I can't see a change of over 12,000 votes at the outside, and this gives us at least 9,000 majority in the state.

"As to the legislature, millions of dollars could not buy it from the Republicans. There are 15 holdovers in the next legislature and of this number 13 are Republicans, giving us a majority of 11 senators to start with. The lower house of the legislature cannot be carried by the Democrats. As I see it, there is not the slightest chance for the Democrats to carry the state, and there is no need for me to stay in the state during the campaign. We are now taking our first poll of the state and we will make another before election day.

"I have recently been in Colorado and I do not hesitate to express the belief that Colorado will vote the Republican ticket by a large majority, and that Gov. Peabody will be re-elected. I talked with a good many Democrats and they told me they would support Gov. Peabody, because he had upheld law and put down disorder. They feel that it is a question of the property rights of the people, and that if the Republican administration is not upheld property will not be safe in the state.

"I have also been in Nebraska and find there is some uneasiness among Republicans as to the chance of Bryan carrying the legislature and coming to the senate. There is no fear that the state will vote the Democratic electoral ticket as that is safe for Roosevelt and Fairbanks, but Bryan is going to make a hot campaign for the legislature on the cry of government ownership and control of railroads, and he may be able to do something."

The Hon. W. D. Bynum of Indiana, who first saw the light of truth in 1896 and came over into the Republican party, where he has remained, called on President Roosevelt today.

Mr. Bynum was one of the most prominent gold Democrats in the country in the campaign of 1896. He was the chairman of the gold Democratic national committee in that memorable campaign and worked to get all the votes he could for Palmer. For many years he represented an Indiana district in congress and knows that state about as thoroughly as any man living. He believes the Republican ticket in November will be overwhelmingly elected. When asked for an expression on the situation he said:

"I think I know something about Indiana and I believe that the state will give Roosevelt and Fairbanks a majority of 25,000 to 40,000. That is my prediction now. As to the other states of the middle west, the outlook is about the same. New York may be close. I am not posted as to that state, but New York for the Democrats without one of the middle western states, and probably two, would be useless. I do not know any Republican who thinks New Jersey or Connecticut is in danger to the Republican national ticket."

Mr. Bynum proposes to devote his vacation in October to making speeches in his home state of Indiana for the Republican ticket. He is a member of a commission appointed by President McKinley to codify certain laws.

Col. "Ike" Hill of Ohio today offered the first bets of record on the fall election. He modestly anounced that it was not his own money he was willing to wager, but that it belonged to an Ohio millionaire. Here are the terms he offered: "Even money up to $1,000 that West Virginia goes Democratic, and $1,000 that New York goes Democratic, the two bets to be taken together. Separately, $1,000 that a Democratic president is elected."

SMUGGLERS AIDED BY PULLMAN MEN

Tailoring Firm in Montreal Used Friendly Porters to Bring Suits to Boston.

PURCHASERS AS WITNESSES

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.)

BOSTON, Aug. 3.—By the confession of William Fessenden, a Pullman Car Company employe, evidence of extensive smuggling operations was presented before United States Commissioner Fisk this morning. The evidence went to show that Gibb & Co., clothing dealers of St. James street, Montreal, with a house in London and agents in various parts of the United States, have been engaged in smuggling clothes into the United States. The government claims to have evidence indicating that the smuggling covers a period of many years and represents a loss of many thousand dollars of duty. Many hundred suits have been smuggled in Boston. Men who bought them were sworn in as witnesses to tell where and how they got them.

The case before the commissioner was that of Fessenden, who for 11 years has been employed by the Pullman company as superintendent of the Pullman yards here. Many parcels from Montreal for delivery were given him, he said, by Roger Robinson, a Pullman car conductor, who has also been arrested. The method of smuggling consisted of the placing of orders for clothes with a local soliciting agent, who sent the orders to Gibb & Co., in Montreal. When the suits were ready they would be placed in the custody of some porter, who had every opportunity of hiding them in the Pullman cars, in pillow boxes, in carelessly made up bundles, or in private lockers, where they would escape the attention of the customs officials. At a convenient point along the route the goods would be turned over to some confederate for delivery by express, as was the case in Boston, and in some instances they were delivered by messenger boys.

QUAKER CITY G. A. R. IS AFTER A JUDGE

Said to Have Remarked That Man Is a Fool to Go to War.

(BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.)

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 3.—A remark that "a man is a fool to go war," said to have been made a few days ago by Judge Audenried of this city, has given umbrage to members of the Grand Army of the Republic. They are trying to find out whether the judge was correctly reported, with the idea of taking some action.

The judge was engaged in hearing a case in which a young man had been arrested charged with being a deserter from the army. The story was that the young man, who had been serving in the Philippines, had come home on furlough. He met a former lady love, got married and decided not to return to duty. It was in giving his decision that the judge is said to have made use of the obnoxious expression.

The matter was brought up at a meeting of General Meade post of the G. A. R. Several of the veterans expressed themselves strongly in condemnation of the slur which they thought the judge had cast upon every man who had served his country in the hour of need. Some of the members wished to pass a strong resolution at once, but the cooler-headed ones believed it would be wise first to ascertain just what the judge had said.

CHESTER D. POTTER.

PAULINE HALL DIVORCED.

Charged Her Husband With Misconduct in London—Gets $10 Weekly as Alimony.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—(Special.)—Judge Gildersleeve, in the supreme court today granted an interlocutory decree of divorce to Mrs. Pauline McLellan, known on the stage as Pauline Hall, from George B. McLellan, a theatrical manager. Mrs. McLellan is awarded $10 a week permanent alimony. She charges her husband with misconduct with certain unnamed co-respondents while engaged in the theatrical business in London some time ago.

The daughter of a Cincinnati druggist, Pauline Hall was a former Casino favorite who has starred in many comic operas and is now in vaudeville. She and Edmund White, her first husband, were divorced in 1888, and in 1892 she and McLellan were married at Bath Beach. At that time he was her manager.

Suit was brought by his wife early in March, and in May James R. Torrence, as referee, reported to the supreme court that Mrs. McLellan was entitled to a divorce and the custody of their child, Pauline Ermine, 7 years old.

CITY REVENUES LESS.

Controller Larkin Shows a Falling Off In Last Six Months.

Controller Larkin has tabulated a statement of the revenues of the city for the past six months of the current fiscal year and compares them with the revenues of last year for the corresponding period. There has been a big falling off.

The amount is $422,000, most of it being in the street and sewer collections fund. Liquor, dog, vehicle and bicycle licenses brought in less money this year. The street railways company has not paid the $20,000 in taxes paid last year, as it is contesting in court the ordinance taxing its tracks by the lineal foot.

Boy Stabbed by Playmate.

Louis Morganstein, aged 15, of 522 Mulberry alley, McKeesport, was stabbed in the shoulder by a playmate, Charles Richards, last night in a quarrel. The boys were wrestling on the Yough river bank when the cutting occurred. The injuries are not serious.

HEGIRA FROM THE SMOKY CITY

It Will Make Atlantic City Its Mecca for Ten Days.

LATE ARRIVALS AT THE SHORE

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Young's Ocean Pier,
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 3.

Commencing tomorrow, the first of a series of 10-day excursions from Pittsburgh to this city will arrive in the resort. About 500 excursionists will come to the shore every day from August 4 to August 18, excepting Saturdays and Sundays. These excursions from the Smoky city are annual affairs, looked forward to with pleasure, both by those participating and by the merchants of the resort. Pittsburghers are noted for their liberality, and the city is always the gainer after the western contingent has been here.

Each excursion will come in sections, and will leave Pittsburgh at an hour destined to reach this city early in the morning. A special rate has been granted by both railroads. Special hotel rates have also been secured by the promoters of the excursions. The first train will arrive tomorrow at 8 o'clock, over the Baltimore & Ohio system.

The Inlet park will be the rendezvous today and tomorrow of hundreds of Pittsburghers, not counting the hundreds from other points who are anxious to witness the baseball games between the Atlantic City collegians and the Swissvale team of Pittsburgh.

The following Pittsburghers registered today at The Gazette bureau on Youngs pier:

John Snyder, Mrs. J. B. Perkins, Mrs. L. F. Adams, Mrs. T. M. King, Alderman King, Gilbert L. King, G. B. Perkins, Miss Edith MacGuy, Wilmer Rambo, Charles Wetherell, Mrs. T. M. Tatem, Mrs. L. L. Jewell, Alice Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy of 5610 Dearborn street; J. R. Wess, 7311 Butler street; E. Schempp, William Smith, Miss C. Reynolds.

Mrs. K. Callahan, Anna Callahan, Winifred Lynch, Mrs. B. McGrath, Margaret McGrath and Mrs. Mary McGarey are at the Westminster.

John Montgomery, Mrs. G. Montgomery, Pearl Montgomery and Muriel Montgomery are at Melrose hall.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Whitfield are late arrivals at the Berkeley.

Mrs. E. C. Lutton is at the Elberon.

W. J. Hindson is at Green's hotel.

Charles R. Calahan and Daniel W. Boss of Allegheny are at the Fredonia.

Clyde E. Bald is at the Austin.

Mary Voler and Clara I. Bell are at the Star cottage.

W. C. LITTLE.

Novel Run by Firemen.

With his auto laden with firemen and a hose cart attached to the car, Percy Adams of Springdale made a record-breaking run from New Kensington to Springdale Tuesday night to check a fire raging there. The effort was in vain, as the couplings of the New Kensington department could not be attached. One frame dwelling, unoccupied, and the residences of John Bishop and Mrs. Tillie Thompson were destroyed.

The Three Rivers

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.)

CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 3.—The stage of the river at 6 o'clock this evening marked seven feet and falling, making a fall of .1 during the last 24 hours. Weather clear and very warm. Today's packet departures were: Bonanza, for Pomeroy; Courier, for Marysville; Indiana, for Louisville. Captain Oscar Barrett of the Barrett was on 'change today after an extended trip to St. Louis in an automobile. Captain H. R. Budd of Pittsburgh was a visitor to 'change today. He said that there is much disappointment among river men on account of a mistake which had been made in the construction of Lock No. 2 below Pittsburgh. The Robert P. Gillham arrived from the mouth of the Kanawha river light for a tow of empties, which she took up tonight.

GREENSBORO—River six feet four and falling. Weather fair and cooler. Columbia down Thursday and Woodward up.

FINISHING THE DAMS.

Bids for Lockkeepers' Houses at Dams Being Taken.

Maj. W. L. Sibert, United States engineer, is advertising for bids to be opened on September 2 for the concrete foundations for two lockkeepers' houses each at Dams 2, 3 and 4 on the Ohio river. Bids are also being taken for a power house at Dam No. 2 on the Ohio. The letting of the contracts for these buildings will mark the last step in the work of putting in new dams and improving the Ohio river, which has been in progress for more than five years.

Steamboat Inspectors Williams and Atkinson yesterday inspected the Rebecca at Black Diamond on the Monongahela river. Today they will inspect the I. C. Woodward at this port and tomorrow they will go to Brownsville to look over the Admiral Dewey.

Beacon Lights on Monongahela.

The United States government will establish a system of beacon lights on the Monongahela river between Pittsburgh and Fairmont. The move is the result of a petition presented to the government by Harbor No. 25 of the American Association of Masters and Pilots and will mean the placing of 60 lights at points designated by the pilots. The lights will be installed this fall under the direction of Lieut. Commander A. P. Osborne of the United States navy. The money for the work will be taken out of the lighthouse fund. Lightkeepers have already been chosen and the paraphernalia will be brought here by the Golden Rod, the lighthouse steamer of this district, on her first fall trip. The lightkeepers will receive from $6 to $15 a month. Five lights will be placed in the fifteenth pool, the last on the Monongahela river. This stream, which originates more tonnage than any river of its size in the United States, will henceforth be a part of the Golden Rod district.

Local River Notes.

The stage of water in the Ohio river, according to the guages at Davis Island dam at 9 o'clock last night, was 3.7 feet and stationary.

The Columbia was the Morgantown packet yesterday.

The Big Kanawha has gone to Point Pleasant to tie up for the rest of the low water season.

Capt. W. H. McKinley, formerly of the McKinley Coal Company of Pittsburgh, spent Tuesday in Cincinnati interesting coal operators there in the coal along the Ohio river below Sewickley. Mines may be opened when the upper Ohio is slackwatered.

A slight rise was evident in the upper Ohio yesterday as the result of a swell in the Allegheny caused by heavy showers in the northeastern part of the state. This assisted the Kanawha in getting through the shallow places in the upper river. No rise of importance is looked for until the fall rains begin.

Reduced Rates to Boston Account National Encampment of G. A. R.

Pennsylvania railroad announces sale of excursion tickets from Pittsburgh to Boston and return, on August 12th, 13th, 14th and 15th at rate of $13.25 for the round trip, tickets limited to August 20th, but if deposited with joint agent at Boston and fee of 50 cents paid, limit can be extended until September 30th.

GOVERNMENT WILL HEAR BRIDGE ARGUMENT TODAY

Pittsburghers to Appear Before Secretary Taft Concerning Raising Structures.

(BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Secretary of War Taft has returned here from Murray Lake, Canada, and tomorrow will hold a hearing in the matter of the raising of the Union bridge at Pittsburgh. The bridge company has been ordered to raise their structure to 70 feet above pool level, and according to the war department's order book the work should have been completed on July 26. But before the expiration of that time Secretary Taft extended the time limit to August 10 in order to hear the arguments of those intterested. A penalty of $5,000 a month is attached to a failure to have the bridge rebuilt within the time specified, but the extension of time relieves the bridge company of this fine.

Capt. W. B. Rodgers, who has been at Atlantic City, came over here today to be present at the hearing, and Major W. L. Sibert, in charge of the rivers at Pittsburgh, is also here, having been asked to be present by the secretary of war. Albert Bettinger, of Cincinnati, arrived this evening, and he and J. Scott Ferguson of Pittsburgh, will present the argument for the river interests. Representatives of the bridge company and the river people will arrive in the morning.

PLAYGROUND BILLS ARE HELD UP BY DIRECTOR

The bills for supplies and the salary roll of the caretakers of the Allegheny free playgrounds were yesterday held up by Director McIlvain of the department of public works. The reason given is that a majority of the playground committee of the Civic league had not approved the bills. Some weeks ago Allegheny councils appropriated $1,500 to aid the playground work, which is carried on through July and August. This was supplemented by private contributions. In order to meet the July demand sufficient of the month's expenses, which included the salaries of 15 caretakers and a number of supply bills were yesterday presented to Director McIlvain, who referred the matter to Assistant City Solicitor W. W. Stoner. He decided that under the ordinance it was necessary for a majority of the committee, which has 131 members, to approve the bills and pay roll. The matter is therefore held up for the signatures.

Battleship Ohio Is O. K.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—The battleship Ohio will not be given another trial. Engineer Robert Forsythe, who had charge of her machinery, states that the machinery worked without a hitch, and that the failure to make the required speed was due solely to the tidal conditions.

PERSONALS

"There is hardly a doubt of the election of Joseph Folk as governor of Missouri," said J. W. Simpson of Kansas City at the Seventh Avenue. "Though a lifelong Republican, I admire Mr. Folk immensely for his great war on the corrupt gang of St. Louis. Republicans by the score take the same view that his services against the grafters entitles him to promotion and I think all of them will give him their support. Curiously enough, many Missouri Democrats are very much of the same mind as to President Roosevelt. They regard him as a man of great probity of character, the sworn foe of crookedness in private and official life, and it would not be surprising if many of them displayed their good will by voting for him instead of the nominee of their own party."

Ex-Gov. William A. Stone, James M. Guffey, representing Pennsylvania on the Democratic national committee; his brother, Wesley Guffey, and Attorney William J. Brennen left last night for Philadelphia to attend the funeral of ex-Gov. Pattison.

C. M. Shaefer, superintendent of passenger transportation of the Pennsylvania railroad, left last night for Philadelphia after spending yesterday in Pittsburgh conferring with local officials.

W. F. Cloney, passenger agent of the Richlieu & Ontario Navigation Company, with headquarters in Niagara, yesterday visited local railroad officials. He said the traffic of the lake companies has been as good this year as ever before. He claims few people from Canadian points are visiting the world's fair.

D. H. Farrell, formerly a passenger conductor on the Allegheny Valley & Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis railroads, yesterday assumed the position of secretary of the Sheraden Y. M. C. A., to which he was elected last week.

M. Matsuda, E. Tokato and K. Itoyama of Japan are registered at the Duquesne. They are here touring the United States and will leave today for St. Louis, from which place they will visit Chicago.

W. B. Price, proprietor of the Porter house at Philipsburg, Pa., is in the city on business and is at the Lincoln.

H. F. Bigler of Clearfield, representing Bigler, Reed & Co., is registered at the Lincoln. He has just closed a deal for several acres of coal land to be developed by the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh Railroad Company. The tract is in Indiana and Cambria counties. He says the coal in this tract is superior for steaming qualities.

Neighbors Visiting Pittsburgh.

Residents of nearby towns at the local hotels last night were:

Seventh Avenue—D. W. Daly, Parkersburg; W. E. Thomas, Sharon; John Husband, Mt. Pleasant; J. Wright, Scottdale.

Monongahela house—P. Willett, Clarksburg; George R. Sufall, Somerset; J. C. McSpadden, Rockwood; L. C. Steele, Wheeling.

Colonial—L. Paul, Wheeling; E. A. Anderson, Youngstown; G. A. Guthrie, Grove City; C. W. Anshutz, Johnstown.

Henry—C. A. Robinson, Wheeling; H. L. Lind, Erie; C. W. Lingler, Graceton.

Lincoln—T. H. Saylor, Scottdale; H. J. Dushore, Erie; C. A. Ayers, Uniontown; E. R. Dodds, Connellsville.

CHAUTAUQUA

CHAUTAUQUA, N. Y. Aug. 3.—(Special.)—"Old First Night," the anniversary of the opening of the original Chautauqua assembly in 1874, was celebrated by appropriate and most impressive exercises in the amphitheater last evening with Bishop John H. Vincent presiding. The audience was the largest of the season and the most enthusiastic. Bishop Vincent, Dr. J. L. Hurlbut, Judge Miller, Dr. S. C. Shucker, Mrs. Emily Bishop, Frank Beard, F. C. Bray and Edward Howard Griggs were the speakers of the evening and delighted the audience with a fund of humor, reminiscence and wholesome sentiment.

At the Women's club this morning J. L. Joshi, a converted Brahmin from India, spoke of their problem of race. Mr. Ross, of Africa, spoke instructively of his work among the Kaffirs and gave much interesting information regarding the almost unknown tribe of the Basutis.

At the devotional hour Dr. James M. Gray gave his third address of the week, his subject being "Growth." William Hard, of Chicago, and formerly of the Northwestern university settlement, gave the third lecture of the week on "Graft," and spoke on "Graft in the Labor World." Mr. Hard closed by saying that the trade union has to solve the question of graft.

So much interest has been aroused on this question that an informal conference was held this afternoon. The meeting was a "question and answer" one, and towards the close was very interesting, as one of the questioners misunderstood a statement made by Mr. Hard in regard to unions.

A large number of excursionists came to Chautauqua to hear the popular concert this afternoon given by the choir and orchestra under the direction of Mr. Hallam. Mr. Marcosson and Mr. Sherwood received their usual hearty welcome and the soloists, Mrs. Plummer, Mr. Douglass and Mr. Doroning, were enthusiastically applauded.

Henry M. Southwick made his first appearance of the season at Chautauqua when he gave a reading, "Richard the Third."

The annual reception was held at Unitarian headquarters this evening, while at the same hour the annual reception of the New York state summer institute was held in the hall of philosophy, and the largest reception was that of the choir in Higgins hall.

WESTINGHOUSE TURBINES TO BE FULLY PROTECTED

Pittsburgh Company Makes Statement that Signifies Fight in Connection With the Recent Brooklyn Contract.

A statement which seems to indicate that the contest over steam turbines in the country is to have a legal phase was made yesterday by the Westinghouse Machine Company in connection with the recent award of a contract to the Allis-Chalmers interest by the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company.

"The statement says plainly that the information received by the Westinghouse officials is that the Allis-Chalmers Company is to import the turbines from England and that they are being manufactured along lines similar to those of the Parsons type, the exclusive rights to which in this country are owned by the Westinghouse Machine Company. If this proves true the Westinghouse company proposes to take "active legal measures to prevent the installation of the apparatus."

"The situation between the Allis-Chalmers Company and the Westinghouse Machine Company has been very strained since the use of steam turbines in this country began to be general. It was greatly accentuated by the Allis-Chalmers Company taking away from the Westinghouse company several of the latter's leading officials.

"The statement issued yesterday follows:

The recent announcement by a New York news bureau, which has been given wide publicity through other journals, that the Allis-Chalmers company have received large contracts for turbine engines and generators through Mr. Murray, representing the Brooklyn Rapid Transit, New York Edison and other companies, proves upon investigation to be founded upon the fact that the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company placed an order for one turbine engine and generator of 5,000 kilowatt capacity at a price said to be below its cost, together with an order for a smaller size to be installed in a power plant at Utica.

Instead of the engines and generators in question being made at the works of the Allis-Chalmers company, it is understood they are being manufactured in England, and are to be shipped to America, subject to duty. From information it is thought that these engines will be similar to those made by Mr. Parsons in England, whose American patents for that type of turbine are owned by the Westinghouse Machine Company of Pittsburgh, who propose, in the event of their rights being infringed, to take active legal measures to prevent the installation of the apparatus.

The Westinghouse Machine Company believes that no steam turbine, which will use steam economically, can be successfully manufactured without infringing the numerous patents owned by that company.

President Winter of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company, and a leading official of the New York Edison Company, have both denied publicly the correctness of the statements made in the interest of the Allis-Chalmers company.

All Western Pennsylvanians are going over the Pennsylvania Short Line, which is the quickest comfortable route with the most accommodating trains.

SOCIETY

JAMES GARDNER, the head of the manual training department of the Riverside vacation school, is preparing some of the boys of the West End for entrance to Mr. Hamerschlag's Carnegie Technical schools in a few years. Manual training has been made a special feature of the work at the Riverside school this summer, and as a result some of the boys who formerly had no thought beyond the mills, are ambitious to learn the carpenter's trade. The exhibition of the work in the manual training department yesterday afternoon was very interesting and showed some excellent work done by the class and by individuals, the boys gradually endeavoring to exert some originality and individuality in their work, a much appreciated result, as nearly all of the children when they enter the Riverside school are found to be almost devoid of imagination.

The Riverside playground and vacation school was one of those which gave its exhibition yesterday afternoon. It is located in Carson street in the West End, and is one of the smallest of the playgrounds, the average daily attendance having been 130. It is one of the schools where the teachers and club work against the greatest odds, for scarcely one of the children has been across the Monongahela river. They were born and have always lived in the smoke and noise of the Singer-Nimick mills. The exhibition yesterday was remarkable, for the results secured there mean more than they do in many of the larger schools, where the conditions are more favorable.

Early in the afternoon the children sang a number of songs under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Campbell, who has charge of music in the vacation schools and playgrounds, and presented a number of drills, including the wand drill and several fancy steps. As a treat for the children Mrs. J. Gardner and Miss Nell Grimes sang and Jack and Jim Grimes played the banjos, to the intense delight of the little ones.

The walls of one school room were lined with the drawings of the children in their nature study and as illustrations of the stories told them by Miss Walker. The Indian was a favorite subject, and John Gillespie had even gone to the Carnegie museum where he sketched in colored crayons some of the Indian models there. Mary O'Toole also exhibited a number of very interesting drawings. In this school room was also the exhibit of the manual training department, which was made especially strong this year in order to attract the older boys, who were given only knife work last year. As a result of their class work a chair, after a design drawn by Mr. Gardner, was made and stained, and in its simple lines it resembled the popular mission furniture. This chair and a screen, which was the original work of Frank Kushnak, will be shown in the Pittsburgh exposition in the fall. Especially commendable for workmanship was the magazine rack and stand made by Park Bannon, who also made a step-ladder, and the bench which Raymond O'Brien made.

The sewing and millinery exhibits were shown in another room, the sewing showing the different steps from the sampler with its simple stitches, the small button bags and iron holders, to the pretty white aprons with lace edging. Miss Jo Grimes was in charge of this department.

The millinery department was one of the most interesting of all, and the hats of dainty white braid trimmed with daisies, roses and ribbons, all the work of the girls, were as bewitching as many seen in the shop windows. The older girls took a great deal of pride in their work. They would like to have the class continued and are anxious to be advanced in the sewing class until they can make shirt-waists. Ruth Dougherty's was among the best in the millinery class, while in the sewing department Ella McKenna, Nellie Dougherty, Elsie Grabel and Mary O'Toole showed especially good work. Mrs. Robert Lynch of the New Era club, is chairman of the committee in charge of this school.

The Wickersham, Grant and Columbian council vacation schools held exhibitions yesterday afternoon and in the morning similar exercises and exhibitions were conducted in the Allegheny schools in the Fourth ward, the Eighth and the Twelfth. The Eighth ward vacation school and playground is the smallest of all the attendance, being only 90, but a very enthusiastic class of boys has taken up basketry, the exhibition showing many pretty baskets fashioned by the children.

This morning the Sherman Avenue, Irwin Avenue, Fifth ward and Ninth ward schools in Allegheny will hold their exhibitions. None of the schools will be closed, however, until Friday morning, when the final closing exercises will be held in all the playgrounds.

Gossip of Oakmont.

A pleasant affair to which many women in Oakmont are looking forward is the fancy work with which Mrs. James M. Hamilton will entertain tomorrow afternoon. The hostess will be assisted by her two daughters, Miss Helen Hamilton and Miss Ethel Hamilton, and by Miss Susan Tiers.

Mrs. John C. Glass of Oakmont has as her house guest Mrs. E. S. Gallagher of Cape May, the wife of a former pastor of the Oakmont Presbyterian church. Mrs. Gallagher will leave on Tuesday after a visit of two weeks. Mrs. Glass entertained with a fancy work in her honor last Friday afternoon, the affair serving as a pleasant reunion of the many old friends of the visitor whom she has not seen for four years. Mrs. Robert D. Fiwood will give a very informal luncheon in honor of Mrs. Gallagher today. Mrs. Gallagher's two daughters, Miss Ruth Gallagher and Miss Mabel Gallagher, are also with Mrs. Glass.

Miss Margaret Glass is entertaining Miss Gay Griffin of Indiana, Pa., a schoolmate at the Indiana State Normal school. Miss Griffith will leave for her home on Tuesday and shortly after Mr. and Mrs. Glass, with their two daughters, Miss Ella Glass and Miss Margaret Glass, and their son, John Glass, will visit in Butler and Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis H. Skelding and family have gone to Berryville, Va., for an extended visit. During their absence their house in Oakmont is occupied by friends from Pittsburgh.

Porch Euchre in Oakmont.

One of the largest and most enjoyable affairs of the summer in Oakmont was the porch euchre at which Mrs. Isaac Wade was hostess yesterday afternoon from 2 until 6 o'clock. Mrs. Wade and her daughter, Miss Justine Wade, went out to Oakmont from Oakland early in the season and have since been occupying "Robinswood," the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Wade. Mrs. Wade is at present at her summer home at Five Islands, Maine, from which place Mr. Wade returned only a short time ago.

The entertainment yesterday was conducted on the broad piazzas surrounding the home and the spacious grounds were also used to advantage by the guests, among whom were several from the East End, including Mrs. Anthony Smith, Jr., Mrs. Jane Hall, Mrs. Oliver Bateman and Miss Pauline Bateman. Six tables of six-hand euchre were in use, the prizes, all dainty articles, being awarded to Mrs. William D. Hill, Mrs. Charles Bailey and Mrs. Thomas P. Henderson. The piazzas were beautifully decorated with immense jardinieres of goldenrod and golden glow and the tables were covered with yellow. Mrs. George Macrum and Mrs. Alexander Thomas received with the hostess, and Miss Eleanor Blackstone of Philadelphia, who is spending the summer with Mrs. Macrum, with Miss Mary Thomas, Miss Josephine Thomas and Miss Justine Wade assisted.

Women Elect Officers.

The Inter-County institute of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, made up of the adjoining counties, was held yesterday at Ridgeview park, presided over by Mrs. E. M. Gormley of this city. The feature of the session was the election of officers, as follows: President, Mrs. Wylie, Allegheny county; vice presidents, Mrs. Gormley, Allegheny county; Mrs. Guthrie, Armstrong county; Mrs. Denman, Butler county; Mrs. Brown, Fayette county; Mary Bingham, Washington county; secretary, Mrs. Steele, Westmoreland county; treasurer, Mrs. Emma Hood, Cambria county. The following committees were also appointed: Press, Mrs. A. Starr-Martin, Miss Cynthia M. Manan; Resolutions, Mrs. M. A. Irwin, Mrs. Boyer; courtesy, Mrs. Doyle, Mrs. T. A. Smith.

During the afternoon devotional exercises were conducted by Margaret Youngson, one of the old crusaders. Miss Cynthia M. Manon, president of the Allegheny County Loyal Temperance Legion, read a paper on "The Importance of the Work," and Mrs. Leitzel a paper on "The Curfew Law." The Rev. Wilson of Derry spoke on Sabbath observance and Mrs. R. C. Wylie gave a physical culture drill. The question box was conducted by Mrs. Thompson of Indiana county. Music and recitations were also a part of the program.

Large Check Received.

The members of the Ladies Association of the Homeopathic hospital met yesterday morning when the receipt of a check for $1,463.72 from Mrs. Francis H. Skelding was reported. The check was the amount cleared at the rose fete held early in June on the grounds surrounding the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Armstrong in Oakmont. At the meeting yesterday a committee consisting of Mrs. J. J. Vandergrift, Mrs. Norman M. Smith, Mrs. George H. Anderson and Mrs. George L. McCoy was appointed to take action on the death of Miss Mary McClelland, who had been an active member of the association for many years. This committee will report at the next meeting. Mrs. George H. Anderson presided at the meeting yesterday, which was an unusually large one. During the hot months the members have changed their time of meeting from the afternoon to 10:30 o'clock in the morning. The members of the association will be glad to have their friends assist them in filling the large number of empty jelly glasses and fruit jars which may be taken away to be filled.

Kitchen Garden at Forbes School.

A kitchen garden drill will be one of the special features of the exhibition and closing exercises tomorrow morning in the summer playground and vacation school in the Forbes school.

Kitchen garden work has not been taken up by the joint committee and introduced into its summer playgrounds and vacation school, though many club women have been much in favor of its adoption, and for two seasons an experimental class has been conducted at the Forbes vacation school which has been very successful, its pretty drills and bright songs all having a practical side which appeals to the children and to the older people.

Kitchen gardening was introduced into the curriculum of the vacation school in Homestead conducted under the auspices of the Woman's club of that place. It was the special feature of the season and Miss Bessie Thomas made a very efficient director and teacher. Eighty pupils had the training, among them being a class of boys who gave a very creditable exhibition on the closing day a couple of weeks ago. The work in all departments of the Homestead vacation school was good, but the kitchen garden was the most popular.

Bride and Bridegroom at Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Priestley Catlin, who were married early in June, are now receiving their friends at their home in Edgewood. Mrs. Catlin, who was Miss Esther Hooker Trowbridge of Woodstock, Conn., before her marriage, is a lineal descendant of Gen. Joe Hooker, her mother having been Miss Clara Hooker. She is a daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. John Philo Trowbridge and on her father's side is related to Gen. Lyon, a notable figure in the civil war. Mr. Catlin is a descendant of the eminent scientist, Joseph Priestley.

On their wedding journey the bride and bridegroom went up the Hudson river to Albany, and from there went to Cambridge Springs, returning to Edgewood to be at home after August 1. Since their return Mrs. Catlin has been the guest of honor at numerous small social affairs. Mrs. E. M. Herr of Edgewood was hostess at a large reception in her honor a short time ago.

Temperance Legion in Session.

The Loyal Temperance Legion of Allegheny county met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Henrietta Forrest, West Ohio street, Allegheny, for a social time, and to hear the reports of the delegates from Allegheny county to the Pennsylvania State Loyal Temperance Legion convention held in Swarthmore, Pa., June 28 to July 1. Mrs. Forrest is president of the W. C. T. U. of this county and also vice president of the state union. Mrs. A. M. Jones of Wilkinsburg, superintendent of the Allegheny county L. T. L., reported and was followed in turn by five other delegates. Mrs. Martha Irwin of the Bellevue W. C. T. U. and superintendent of the state Sabbath observance department, talked to the legioners along this line of work, which is also a department of the legion work.

Established in Their New Home.

Mrs. Simon Johnston, her daughter, Miss Anne Johnston, and her sons, Edward and William Johnston, are now established in their new home in North Negley avenue. Mrs. Johnston and her children are former Pittsburghers, but have only within the last month returned to the city after an absence of two years, one of which was spent in England and the other in Philadelphia. Mrs. Johnston's sister, Mrs. George L. McCoy, and her husband and daughters of Baum street, expect to visit the Louisiana Purchase exposition later in the season. They will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. McCoy's son, Thomas J. McCoy of Thebes, Ill. This is the first summer for many years Mr. and Mrs. McCoy have spent at their home in the East End.

Gone to Europe for Honeymoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Thorsten E. Billquist, who were married in Cobourg, Ontario, Canada, on Monday arrived in New York on Tuesday and were registered at the Holland house preparatory to sailing yesterday for England, where they will spend their honeymoon, also visiting Sweden, Mr. Billquist's former home, before returning to Pittsburgh in the early fall.

It was a pleasing coincidence that the day following his wedding and that preceding his departure for England with his bride, Mr. Billquist's designs for a model tenement house were accepted by the Tenement Improvement Company of this city.

Pittsburghers Coming and Going.

Mr. and Mrs. Remsen V. Messler of Morewood avenue left the city yesterday morning for Point Pleasant, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Copley Thaw were in New York yesterday, having stopped in the metropolis on their way to one of the eastern resorts.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Graham of North avenue, Allegheny, left the city on Friday evening for Bethany Beach, Del., where they will be for three weeks.

The members of the Yankanuck club and their guests left last evening for their third annual outing to Yankanuck island in the Georgian Bay district, Canada.

Lockard-Condron.

INDIANA, PA., Aug. 3.—(Special.)—Harry D. Condron and Miss Nora Lockard, daughter of Mrs. Sarah J. Lockard, were married this afternoon at 1 o'clock at the home of Miss Lockard's mother in this place. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. G. T. Reynolds of Vandergrift, formerly pastor of the M. E. church here, assisted by the Rev. C. F. Sanders of Blairsville. The couple left this evening for a trip through the west, after which they will reside in Blairsville.

Gillmor-Karapetoff.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gillmor, South Craig street, have sent out cards announcing the marriage of their daughter, Frances Lulu Gillmor, to Valdimir Karapetoff of Wilkinsburg last Tuesday. Mr. Karapetoff and his bride, after an extended trip through the west and a visit to the world's fair in St. Louis, will be at home to their friends December 15 at 221 South Craig street.

Mrs. Maddy Visiting in Pittsburgh.

Mrs. James Harwood Maddy of Baltimore is visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Moore of South Negley avenue. On Saturday evening Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Maddy accompanied by Mrs. Moore's niece, Miss Mildred Andrews, will depart for Boston, where they will make a short visit, going from there to Atlantic City, where they will be registered at the Hotel Marlborough for a month.

Wallace-Knepper.

An interesting wedding in the Chartiers valley yesterday afternoon was that of Miss Margaret Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wallace of near Noblestown, and John B. Knepper of Carnegie, editor of the Chartiers Valley Signal. The Rev. Dr. John W. English of McDonald performed the ceremony and was assisted by the Rev. Dr. J. M. Duff of Carnegie. Only the immediate friends and relatives of the couple were present.

Eisenman-Whippo.

BUTLER, PA., Aug. 3.—(Special.)—Miss Olive M. Eisenman of Kittanning and the Rev. Charles A. Whippo, formerly pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of Clay, W. Va., were united in marriage here today by the Rev. E. S. White, pastor of the First Methodist church. The bride is a daughter of J. P. Eisenman of Kittanning. The young couple left for Kansas, where they will locate.

The Hicks Are Home.

Captain and Mrs. Alfred Hicks of the East End have returned home after spending the month of July at Atlantic City and other eastern resorts.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hicks, formerly of this city, after visiting relatives and friends have returned to Denver.

Rogers-Zwuickert.

A quiet wedding took place in Sewickley yesterday morning, being the marriage of Miss Alice Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Rogers of Edgeworth, to Edward D. Zwuickert. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father F. F. O'Shey of St. James' Roman Catholic church at 9 o'clock and only a few friends were present.

Brush-Sharp.

Miss Nora Edmund Brush and Roy T. Sharp were married at 8 o'clock Thursday evening, July 28, in the Episcopal church of Gettysburg, Pa. The bride was given away by her father, Col. E. D. Brush of Pittsburgh. The bride and groom left on an extended trip east.

Greensburgers Married Here.

Miss Mary Ellen Offutt, daughter of Mr. Lemuel Offutt, and Mr. James Ruffner, son of Attorney and Mrs. J. A. C. Ruffner, both of Greensburg, were married here yesterday. They will live in Bellevue.

Hawk-Van Doren.

GREENSBURG, PA., Aug. 3.—(Special.)—Dr. Sarah May Hawk and Dr. Frank Van Doren, both of Leechburg, were married last evening by the Rev. William I. Miller at the home of Adam Q. Mechling of Greensburg. Both are osteopaths.

Sweeney-Banks.

INDIANA, PA., Aug. 3.—(Special.)—A quiet wedding this morning united William Banks and Miss Carolyn Zelma Sweeney at Christ church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. George Rogers.

LOCAL MARKSMEN READY FOR MT. GRETNA SHOOT

Fourteenth and Eighteenth Regiments Will Send Strong Teams to Compete.

The rifle teams of the Eighteenth and Fourteenth regiments will leave on Saturday night to attend the state shoot at Mt. Gretna next week. The local marksmen are now devoting their afternoons to practice at the Brown station range and expect to bring back the regimental trophy to Pittsburgh. The Eighteenth's team will go under Capt. E. T. Riddle, regimental inspector of rifle practice.

Capt. George B. Shields of the Fourteenth will take a strong team, headed by Corporal W. G. Hay of Company A, who qualified as the best marksman in the Second brigade last year. The other members of the team are Corporal John Gray, Private John Bridge, Private James Blackhall and Sergeant S. B. Dugann. On Monday the qualifying shoot will be held and the rest of the week will be devoted to regimental team work.

The state team which will be organized from the five best marksmen in the Pennsylvania guard will participate in the national match at Ft. Riley, Kan., in the fall. The local regiments expect to get at least two places on the state team.

ONE JAPANESE A MATCH FOR THREE RUSSIANS

Such, at Least, Was the Ratio Established by the Second Motien Pass Engagement.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

MOTIEN PASS, MANCHURIA, July 17.—Via Seoul, Korea, Aug. 3.—6 p. m.—The Russians, in their second unsuccessful attempt to retake Motien Pass, early on the morning of July 17, were repulsed and forced back to their original positions, after five hours of severe fighting. They suffered heavy losses compared to the Japanese casualties.

The European regulars, who for the first time met Gen. Kuroki's soldiers, proved in nowise superior to the Siberian contingent of the Russian army. The Russians took advantage of the heavy fog which enveloped the mountains, to advance at 2 o'clock in the morning. At 5 o'clock they opened fire when the mist was so dense that it was impossible for the Japanese to see more than 100 feet away. The Japanese were badly handicapped, but when the sun dispelled the fog, at about 9 o'clock, they made quick work of the affair. At this hour the Russian line extended across the valley and along the sides of the hill on each side of the valley, while the Japanese occupied the ridge from which the pass debouches, and the hillsides on the Russian flanks.

The Russian firing was altogether in volleys, while the Japanese fired at will. The Russian troops kept in close formation, but the Japanese soldiers deployed in extended order. It was plain that the Japanese soldiers were possessed of much greater initiative and dash than the Russians. The engagement was a fair test of the capacities of the two forces, and the net result was that the Japanese regiment of three battalions, only two of which were on the firing line, defeated three Russian regiments, in spite of the fact that another Russian regiment was held in reserve. The Russians employed their artillery much more than the Japanese did theirs.

JUDGE JACKSON CELEBRATES 43RD YEAR ON BENCH

His Chambers Thronged With Lawyers and Prominent Men Who Tender Him Congratulations.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

PARKERSBURG, W. VA., Aug. 3.—An interesting event of today was the informal celebration of Judge John Jay Jackson's occupancy of the bench of the United District court. He was appointed to that position 43 years ago by President Lincoln, and is the oldest man on the bench in the united district courts of the country, both in age and years of service. Judge Jackson is one of the old school Democrats, and as such was appointed. His Democracy never countenanced any discounting of the Union, its supremacy or its integrity. Though an autocrat on the bench, personally he is one of the most genial, polished and agreeable men in the world. Some recent decisions of his in labor matters made unionism growl, but this has never swerved him from an interpretation of justice as he views it.

Today his chambers were thronged with lawyers and prominent men from all over the state tendering him congratulations.

AUSTIN BEACH.

KERN FOR GOVERNOR.

Indianapolis Man Is Nominated by the Hoosier State Democrats.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Aug. 3.—(Special.)—The Democratic state ticket nominated today is as follows: For governor, John W. Kern of Indianapolis; lieutenant governor, Warder W. Stevens of Salem; secretary of state, Edward J. Fogarty of South Bend; treasurer, Maj. D. F. Allen of Frankfort; auditor, James R. Riggs of Sullivan; attorney general, Joseph H. Shea of Scottsburg; reporter of the supreme court, Walter S. Chambers, New Castle; state statistician, Jesse D. Smith, Indianapolis.

The platform condemns Gov. Durbin for the "ripper" bill, for interference with the work of the board of state charities, for being responsible for the smallpox epidemic by refusing to allow the state board of health to use an emergency contagious disease fund, and recommends the repeal of the metropolitan police law.

Shadyside Stable Burned.

Fire destroyed the stable of Samuel Connor, former county delinquent tax collector, at 470 South Atlantic avenue, Shadyside, shortly after 1 o'clock this morning. The stock in the stable was all saved, but a large amount of furniture stored in the building was destroyed. The total loss is about $5,000. The stable of Judge Marshall Brown, adjoining Connor's, was damaged to the extent of $300.

Yale Alumni Fund Increases.

BETTER TONE TO STOCKS, AND PRICES CLOSED HIGHER

Steel Preferred and Southern Railroad Shares Led the Rally—Westinghouse Electric Opened Weak, but Closed Strong.

By JOHN O. BAGLIN, Financial Editor.

The New York stock market yesterday was quite dull, the sales falling slightly below 250,000 shares, but the tone was better and late in the afternoon became strong. Closing prices were at or near the highest of the session. The London market was irregular and foreigners were not doing much in the American department. The excitement and strength in wheat in the early dealings caused some hesitation in stocks, but the subsequent reaction in the grain market and the splendid government report on cotton had a noticeable effect upon Wall street sentiment.

Steel preferred was one of the leaders in the recovery and sold up to 61¾, closing at 61 bid, a net gain for the day of ¾ per cent. There was apparently some manipulation in the market, which suggested tactics for the accumulation of stock. For instance, one prominent house which is sometimes credited with acting for inside interests, yesterday returned a block of borrowed stock. One of the tricks of the trade in Wall street is for a seller of actual stock to defer delivery of certificates until he has executed his order, borrowing stock in the meantime for the purpose of making delivery and thereby conveying the impression that the previous selling was short stock. Then when the bona fide selling is completed, the broker returns the borrowed stock and delivers the certificates received from his customer. But these tactics are often reversed, and a broker will borrow stock to create the impression that he is short, and suddenly return the stock in order to create the impression that he has covered or that he has delivered long stock of customers. The market apparently concluded that these tactics were being pursued yesterday, for there was no increased offerings and the price advanced in a very dull market. There was substantial grounds for the improvement in the reports of large sales of Bessemer pig and foundry iron to consumers and the purchase of large amounts of ore by merchant furnaces. Tennessee Coal and Iron was active and higher, advancing to 46½ and closing 1 per cent higher for the day. Amalgamated Copper was not affected by the report of a reduction in the selling price of the metal.

The government report on cotton was one of the best ever issued, showing a condition of 91.6, a gain of 3.6 points for the past month and 9 points over the average for the past 10 years. The shares of railroads traversing the cotton belt were all strong and higher and led the recovery in the railroad group. Louisville & Nashville advanced to 116⅛, closing at 116⅝ bid, a gain of 1½ per cent for the day. Southern Railway common advanced 1¼ per cent to 25 and the preferred advanced 1⅞ per cent to 90. The declaration of the regular semi-annual dividend of 2½ per cent on the latter was also a factor in the advance.

Southern Pacific was one of the most active stocks of the day and advanced to 50⅝, closing at 50¼ bid, a net gain for the day of ¾ per cent. The buying of the stock was said to be of an excellent character and all the gossip is bullish. Union Pacific was less active, and after advancing to 96¼, reacted to 95¾. St. Paul, Atchison and Missouri Pacific shared in the general improvement and closed fractionally higher. The tractions were moderately active, and Metropolitan closed ⅛ and Brooklyn ⅜ per cent higher.

Call money was unchanged at 1 per cent, closing at ¾@1 per cent. One of the significant announcements of the day was the award of $10,000,000 4 per cent consolidated mortgage bonds of the New York & New England railroad at 106.777 to J. P. Morgan & Co. There was no underwriting syndicate, the bonds being sold to the bankers at their bid. This transaction, following the purchase the day before of a block of Illinois Central bonds, indicates that the bond market is broadening to an extent as to bear the flotation of railroad bonds instead of high-rate short-term notes, and when this becomes more general the railroads will be able to obtain the means for purchasing material and making improvements which have for more than a year been held in abeyance.

The feature of the Pittsburgh stock market yesterday was the trading in Westinghouse Electric. The stock opened lower at 78½ and declined to 78, following the weakness in New York, where a sale was reported as low as 77½. Inasmuch as the circular had been received by stockholders offering the privilege of subscribing for new stock at 80, the traders could not understand why underwriters would take all the stock not subscribed for at a price $2 a share above the open market. The inference was that the underwriters would be paid a high commission, and this had a depressing effect. Late in the afternoon it was officially stated that "the insider who had underwritten the new stock takes the stock at $80 a share without commission." Immediately after this announcement there was a rally to 79 and the market closed firm at that price bid. Steel stocks were moderately active and firm. Crucible Steel common rallied to 5¾ and closed at that price bid, and the preferred rallied to 37⅝ bid, 38 asked. United States Steel preferred advanced to and closed at 61¼. Manufacturers Light and Heat was fractionally higher at 32, and Ohio Fuel advanced to 37¼. Pittsburgh Coal preferred was the only heavy stock in the market and closed ⅝ lower at 55. The rest of the market was dull but steady.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

The circular issued by the Westinghouse Electric Company giving particulars in regard to the various companies in which it is interested discloses an extent of operations heretofore but little understood. The assets of the various companies as shown in the circular, reduced to dollars, make an aggregate of $76,920,743 as follows:

British Westing. E. & Mfg. Co.	$21,350,000
French company	4,775,000
Canadian company	2,363,555
Total	$28,488,555
Pittsburgh company	48,432,188
Total	$76,920,743

The holdings of the Westinghouse Electric Company in these various companies amounts approximately to $16,800,000 and it is understood that other Westinghouse interests, viz: the Westinghouse Machine Company, the Westinghouse Air Brake Company, the Security Investment Company and Mr. Westinghouse personally own blocks of stock in the French and English companies sufficiently large to insure to the Westinghouse interests the control of these companies.

Westinghouse Air Brake was not affected by the announcement that it is to receive $1,000,000 for the sale of its electro-pneumatic control devices to the Westinghouse Electric Company. There were no sales of Air Brake and the stock closed nominal at 130 bid.

The only explanation for the skepticism with which the street received the announcement that insiders had underwritten the new issue of Westinghouse Electric stock at $80 a share "without commission" is that in recent underwriting operations in Wall street and elsewhere there have been shocking exhibitions of greed. As an ordinary thing underwriters demand from 5 to 20 per cent commission, and they sometimes insist upon the agreement being so drawn that they cannot possibly lose anything if the widest margin of safety is found to have been inadequate. Therefore when the official announcement was made that underwriters stood willing to pay $80 for stock that was quoted in the market at $78, the street wagged its head and permitted one eyelid to droop. It indulged the specious argument that if underwriters really wanted all the stock at $80 that the public neglected to subscribe for they would not announce their readiness to buy, but would hold off, and possibly discourage subscriptions by depressing the market price to an extent that the public would not subscribe for any of the stock, and then the underwriters would get it all. But this is the way with "the street." It is either blindly confident or perversely skeptical.

Pittsburgh Coal preferred was the only weak stock in the local market yesterday. It declined to 55, which is the lowest price since last June. The common stock was offered at 14 and closed without bid. River Coal common and preferred remained dull and unchanged.

Although the declaration of the regular semi-annual dividend of 2 per cent on Erie first preferred was not announced until after the close of the market, the stock anticipated the action of the directors and advanced 1⅛ per cent to 62⅛.

July clearances on the Pittsburgh stock exchanges were 145,207 shares, against 83,373 shares in June and 344,369 shares in July last year.

The balance sheet, as of March 31, 1904, (the close of the fiscal year), presented in the Westinghouse Electric circular, gives the opportunity to compare these figures with the balance sheet submitted to the New York stock exchange as of June 30, 1903, when application was made for listing the new stock, as follows:

One Wall street commission house was a borrower yesterday of 10,000 United States Steel common.

The net earnings of Norfolk & Western for June decreased $82,861. For the fiscal year the net increased $124,000.

All grades of copper in the official prices were reduced ⅛ cent per pound yesterday.

Southern Railway directors have declared the regular semi-annual dividend of 2½ per cent on the preferred stock out of the accumulated income, payable October 17. Books close September 24.

The Massachusetts cotton mills have declared a semi-annual dividend of 2 per cent, payable August 10, to stock of record of August 2. On February 1 the company increased the semi-annual payment to 3 per cent, making 1904 disbursement 5 per cent against 4 per cent in 1903 and 6 per cent in 1902 and 1901.

The government cotton crop report presented a situation without precedent in the history of the cotton trade. The average condition of 91.6 per cent has never been exceeded except at the corresponding period in 1894, when 91.8 per cent was reported. Add to this the fact that the 32,000,000 acres planted this year is much the largest on record and the sensational view of the report taken by the speculative markets will be understood. In the cotton market itself there was some very determined support by free buying of the large offerings. It was considered also that a large short interest was disposed to cover on the publication of the report in the belief that the heaviest selling would be induced by its first effect.

The annual report of the Southern Railway Company disclosed the most prosperous year in the history of the present company.

The Central of Georgia Railway Company, affiliated with the Southern Railway Company, announced an interest payment of 2 per cent on the second preferred income bonds, the first ever paid on that security, besides the full 5 per cent allowed to the first preference incomes. The company's first preferred preference incomes advanced 2½, the seconds 1⅞ and the third 2½.

The rise in Southern Pacific was regarded as designed to further the subscription demand for the new preferred stock.

Sterling exchange advanced again to where gold exports were under negotiation last week and a gold outgo became an immediate probability.

According to reports from branch offices of R. G. Dunn & Co. throughout the United States, commercial insolvencies for the month of July numbered 1,107, with liabilities of $8,812,097, against 915 failures for $16,751,245 in the corresponding month last year. Manufacturing defaults were 264 in number and $3,737,771 in amount, which compares with 255 failures for $6,378,761 a year ago, and of trading concerns there were 806 for $4,386,030, against 619 suspensions involving $3,571,503 last year. In other commercial lines, not properly included with the two principal divisions, there were 37 failures with liabilities of $688,296, compared with 43 defaults for $6,800,981. Suspensions of banks and other similar fiduciary institutions were 10 in number and $3,320,289 in amount, against 8 suspensions involving $298,300 in July, 1903. Some increase in number of defaults this year is more than offset by the very striking decline in amount of money involved, where losses were very large a year ago on account of disasters among Wall street brokers.

It is officially announced that the Pennsylvania railroad shareholders now number 44,950, the highest figures ever recorded on the books of the company. In May, 1902, the number of shareholders was 28,675. In May, 1903, the number was 41,794, the remarkable increase being due partially to the expansion of stock capital and the great interest in railroad shares, which resulted in permanent investments in Pennsylvania in this country, especially in the west and south. In the last year the addition to the new holders has been more moderate and regular, the number increasing regularly between 200 and 300 a month. Latterly there has been renewed inquiry for the stock abroad which has resulted in an increase in foreign holders. The stock is gradually going into investors' hands and in the ordinary course it will not be a very long time until all the recent new issue is so absorbed.

Superintendent Kilburn of the New York state banking department has issued a statement showing the condition of the savings banks of that state for the year ending July 1. There was an increase of $53,739,165 in the total resources, an increase of $54,672,892 in the amount due depositors, an increase of 78,818 open accounts. This tabulation shows the total resources of these banks to be $1,275,164,167; the amount due depositors, $1,166,091,444; the surplus, $108,559,097; the number of depositors, 2,406,660, and the amount of interest credited them during the year, $38,076,168.

FEATURES OF THE DAY.

IN PITTSBURGH.

Bank exchanges were $6,309,454, a decrease of $1,415,000.

Westinghouse Electric the only active feature in the local market.

The stock broke to 78, but recovered to and closed at 79 bid.

Crucible Steel strong, the common advancing to 5¾ and the preferred to 37¾ bid.

Natural gas stocks dull, but closed fractionally higher.

Pittsburgh Coal preferred weak, declining to and closing at 55.

IN WALL STREET.

Stock market was dull, but displayed a better tone all around.

The sales foot up 245,400 shares of stock and $2,000,000 bonds.

Reported sales of pig iron stimulated an advance in Steel preferred.

Another railroad bond sale regarded as a good sign.

Erie directors declare the regular dividend on the first preferred.

THE MONEY MARKET

The local money market remains unchanged at 5@6 per cent on call and time loans. Clearing house comparisons:

Foreign Money Markets.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—Money was in demand in the market today connecting with the consols settlement. There was a good supply, however, notwithstanding repayments to the Bank of England. Discounts were slightly easier. Trading on the stock exchange was quietly irregular, though the tendency was favorable. Consols dropped, affecting kindred securities. Americans opened lower, recovered to over parity, became moderately active and fairly steady and closed quiet, with some recessions. Grand Trunk was strong, the decrease in the traffic returns not having nearly equaled expectations. Foreigners were quiet. Japanese were buoyant. Imperial Japanese government 6s of 1904 were quoted at 96⅛. Consols for money, 87⅞; consols for the account, 87 13-16; money, 2¼@2½ per cent; the rate of discount for short bills is 2⅞@2⅞ per cent; the rate of discount for three months' bills is 2⅞ per cent. The amount of bullion taken into the Bank of England on balance today was £18,000.

PARIS, Aug. 3.—Prices on the bourse today were slightly weaker and business was restricted. Russian Imperial 4s closed at 91.90, and Russian bonds of 1904 at 504. The private rate of discount was 1 7-16 per cent. Three per cent rentes, 96 francs 60 centimes for the account.

BERLIN, Aug. 3.—Trade on the bourse today was irregular. Government securities were firm, iron shares sharply declined upon unsatisfactory trade reports, and coal shares were higher. Baltimore & Ohio was weaker and Canadian Pacific was maintained. Exchange on London 20 marks 46¾ pfgs. for checks. The rate of discount for short bills is 2 per cent, and for three months' bills 2⅝ per cent.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 3.—The situation at the front has not affected government 4s, which have not varied a quarter of a point in a fortnight.

Banks and Treasury.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—(Special.)—In redemption of checks drawn by depositors of gold at the San Francisco and Seattle assay offices, today's official records show that the sub-treasury paid out yesterday $62,120; of this amount $11,000 had been deposited at San Francisco and $51,120 at Seattle; total thus paid since Friday, $315,566, against $426,272 for the same period a week ago; total payment by government to New York banks for the day, $3,480,000; payment by banks to government, $2,964,000; balance on the day's transactions, $516,000, paid by government to banks; total net payment by banks to government since Friday, $1,327,000, against $2,363,000 paid by government to banks for the corresponding period a week ago, and $2,430,000 paid by banks to government a year ago.

Condition of the Treasury.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Today's statement of the treasury balances in the general fund, exclusive of the $150,000,000 gold reserve in the division of redemption, shows: Available cash balance, $152,491,532; gold, $45,827,237; silver, $31,384,470; United States notes, $15,397,698; treasury notes of 1890, $107,829; national bank notes, $16,896,797; total receipts this day, $1,939,843; total receipts this month, $4,789,134; total receipts this year, $51,575,521; total expenditures this day, $2,190,000; total expenditures this month, $6,460,000; total expenditures this year, $7,654,115; deposits in national banks, $121,627,653.

New York Money Market.

SHOT HAD A GOOD EFFECT UPON A DECLINING WELL

On Yellow creek, Calhoun county, the South Penn Oil Company gave its No. 1 on the R. E. Gardner farm a shot and the results was gratifying. The well had declined to 25 barrels a day and the ensuing 24 hours after shot placed 379 barrels to its credit. This is the Maxon sand producer to the north of the Berea grit development on Yellow creek.

In the Salem district, Harrison county, the Sigley Oil Company has completed and shot its test on the A. M. Sigley farm and the well produced 30 barrels the first 24 hours.

In the Copley district, on Sand Fork, Lewis county, the Hope and Reserve Gas Companies' gas wells on the Fealey and Casey heirs' farms, both of which were struck by lightning last Monday, are still burning furiously. Both are strong gassers and all efforts to extinguish the flames have proven futile.

South of Clarksburg, Harrison county, the South Penn Oil Company has drilled its test on the L. L. Lang farm through the fifth sand and has a very light gasser in the lower formation. In the Pine Grove district, Wetzel county, the South Penn has drilled its No. 17 on the J. R. Shreve farm through the Gordon and developed nothing but a light gas pressure. In the Richwood Run district, in the same county, the Philadelphia Company has drilled its test on the J. O. Kearns farm through the Big Injun and found it barren. It is now drilling to the Gordon.

On First run, near Middlebourne, Tyler county, the South Penn Oil Company has drilled its No. 8 on the J. G. King farm through the Big Injun and unless a shot helps will have a duster.

In the Calcutta district, Pleasants county, the Dual State Oil and Gas Company has drilled its No. 4 on the Amos Hendershot farm into the Cow Run sand and has a show for a 25-barrel producer.

On the Ohio side, in the Trail Run district, in Monroe county, the Carter Oil Company has drilled its test on the Catherine Davidson farm into the Big Injun and has a show for a 20-barrel producer in that formation.

In the Rags Run district, Washington county, the Associated Producers Company has drilled in its No. 5 on the John Bell farm and has a show for a 20-barrel producer in the Big Injun.

North of Marietta, in the same county, the Dual State Oil and Gas Company has completed No. 31 on the Dye heirs farm and will have a 5-barrel pumper from the first Cow Run sand. The Pure Oil Producing Company has drilled its No. 8 on the H. E. Trachel farm into the same formation and has a 20-barrel producer. Henry C. Lord & Co. have completed their No. 31 on the Joseph Fisher farm and have a 5-barrel pumper.

On Wolf run in the same county, E. H. Jennings & Bros. & Selby have drilled in their No. 10 on the Olive Work heirs farm and have a show for a 10-barrel pumper. The same company has drilled in a test on the District No. 1 school lot and has a show for a 50-barrel producer.

The Muskingum Oil Company has completed its No. 14 on the Alexander Martin farm and has a show for a 60-barrel producer.

In the Scio field, in Harrison county, the Springfield Oil Company has completed a test on the Williams heirs farm and has a duster. In the same district, the Ohio Standard Oil Company has completed a test on the F. Rutledge farm and has a 3-barrel pumper in the berea grit.

Near Deersville, in the same county, a home company has drilled a test on the Christie farm through the sand and has a duster. This is purely a wildcat, about 10 miles from Bowerstown.

Between Georgetown and Hookstown, in Beaver county, Pa., M. Finnegan has drilled his No. 3 on the Samuel Swearingen farm into the sand and has a show for a 50-barrel producer. The well flowed and caught fire from the boiler and consumed the rig.

SPEED STATISTICS COMPILED BY OFFICIALS OF RAILROADS

A statistical report is being compiled by all of the leading railroads throughout the country, showing the percentage of trains arriving at their destination on schedule time. This report will show what efforts railroads have made to run trains without mishap or overestimating the ability of engines, and the improvement to roadbeds, such as eliminating curves, reducing grades and the laying of heavier rails.

In making the report the number of stops have to be recorded, the number of cars, with estimates of the weight of the train, the number of miles the train traverses and the average grades.

The estimated average of the number of trains arriving on time is placed between 70 to 95 per cent. The through trains have all better records than accommodations, but this is due largely to the through trains being given the right of way.

Crews to Care for Engines.

The officials of the Pennsylvania railroad have instructed the train crews that they must keep the engines in good condition as far as possible. Each crew is to have a regular engine, so the men can work on the machine during their leisure time. The company intends awarding prizes to the crew that takes the most interest in its machine.

Morton's Successor Not Elected.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—The board of directors of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe road met today, but it was announced that only routine business had been discussed and that there was no discussion whatever as to the election of a successor to Paul Morton, formerly second vice president, who was recently appointed secretary of the navy.

Freight Depot for Columbus.

It was given out yesterday that the Baltimore & Ohio is contemplating the erection of a huge freight station in Columbus. The present freight depot, which has served the city for the past 15 years, is to be removed. During the recent trip over the system by President Oscar G. Murray he decided upon the erection of several new stations, but did not announce until about leaving on his vacation that Columbus was to be favored with one.

General Passenger Agents Convention.

The executive committee of the American Association of General Passenger and Ticket Agents, is working on the program and details of the annual convention to be held at Old Point Comfort October 11. The standing committees will recommend such measures for adoption by the passenger departments as their investigations during the year justify. The committee is composed of E. A. Ford, passenger traffic manager of the Pennsylvania lines; C. S. Crane, general passenger agent of the Wabash, and O. P. McCarthy, general passenger agent of the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern.

P. R. R. Has 44,950 Stockholders.

It is announced that there are 44,950 holders of Pennsylvania railroad shares. This is the greatest number ever recorded on the books of the corporation. The increase is due partially to the expansion of stock capital and the great interest in this country in railroad shares, which resulted in permanent investments in Pennsylvania. There has been renewed inquiry for the stock and an increase in foreign holders.

Slight Decrease in Earnings.

The gross earnings for 37 roads for the third week in July, as compiled by the United States Investor, show $7,628,366 against $7,731,432 for the third week in July, 1903, a decrease of $103,066. Eighteen roads showed increases and 19 decreases. Since July 1 the roads referred to above earned $22,737,548, an increase of $1,193,094 over the $21,544,454 reported for the corresponding period last year. For the longer period 17 roads show increases and 20 decreases.

Railroad Notes.

James McCrea, first vice president of the Pennsylvania lines, will sail for Europe tomorrow to spend several weeks.

G. K. Thompson was appointed general western passenger agent of the West Shore railroad, with headquarters in Chicago.

Superintendent of Motive Power M. Dunn of the Panhandle and his chief clerk, J. A. Dildine, spent yesterday with Pittsburgh officials.

William McGreevey has been made city passenger agent at Cleveland to succeed Harry Young, who has been transferred to Pittsburgh.

The Lake Erie & Western has decided not to run any more Sunday excursions. The same rule is to be put into effect on all the Vanderbilt railroads.

The Pennsylvania railroad will run its regular 16-day coach excursion to Atlantic City today. The officials expect 2,000 passengers will leave for the coast. At least 50 Pullman cars will be needed.

WALL STREET STOCKS DRIFTED IDLY UPWARD

Partial Subsidence of Crop Scare Had Tendency to Harden Prices.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—The Herald this (Thursday) morning says:

Owing to the partial subsidence of the crop scare over the progress of wheat and the highly promising report of the government on the condition of cotton, there was a harder tendency to security of prices yesterday. Stocks drifted idly upward, but the dullness was overwhelming. Even the professional traders, who are keen to scent a movement, seemed to have desisted in their efforts. As a result very little headway was made in either direction. Opinion-gathered force that the recent advance had practically discounted the conditions now generally announced, and that it would be wise to await further developments. Deductions made concerning the cotton crop outlook naturally resulted in substantial improvement in the leading southern securities. The railroads of the cotton belt participated in this improvement and the industrials followed. The general stock and bond market, however, was unaffected by the cotton crop news.

Some important developments bearing on the future of the market made their appearance. Early in the day the belated announcement concerning the sale of the New York and New England bonds guaranteed by the New Haven was made. The cotton crop report, indicating a condition on July 25 of 91.6 on the largest acreage in the history of the country, was a subject of real import. Unless a marked change occurs in the crop between the present and late September it is currently believed that a crop of 12,000,000 bales will be harvested. Some slight improvement was also noticed in the steel and iron trade by the leading trade authorities.

Consolation was obtained from the weekly review of the iron and steel trade on the score that an improvement was noticed in the finished branches of the trade. Wall street paid more attention to the fact that a large tonnage of pig iron had been booked with the valley furnaces, still it was pointed out that this tonnage had been ordered by an independent concern, concerning which little has been heard in the financial district. The query was advanced under the circumstances, "Was this big order a straw indicating the way most of the current business was going?" If one independent concern needs 110,000 tons of Bessemer pig in a dull season the inference can be drawn that the smaller concerns are obtaining a substantial share of the going business. That there is sharp competition is not denied, but so far the officials of the Steel corporation state that they are getting a fair share of the orders. Incidentally the price at which the order was booked was considered an important factor.

CLERGY WERE VICTIMS.

Hard Luck Story Used Successfully to Get Money by Fraud.

The Allegheny police are looking for B. L. Smith of Buffalo, who has been swindling clergymen of money. Smith and his wife succeeded in getting $30 from Bishop Canevin and won their way into the heart of Bishop Cortlandt Whitehead so well that he parted with $8.

Father O'Connell, pastor of St. Peter's church, Allegheny, gave $10 and discovering his visitors were frauds complained to the police. Smith told them he was looking for work.

PLAN IS ANNOUNCED FOR COMBINATION OF BANKS

Fifth National Dies, North American Reduces and Ft. Pitt Increases Its Capital Stock.

Changes in capitalization the ending of the existence of the Fifth National bank and the introduction of some new interests, which for the present are unnamed, constitute the features of a proposed combination of the interests of the North American Savings Company, the Fort Pitt National bank and the Fifth National bank. For some time the North American has owned the Fort Pitt.

The following plan will be presented at a meeting of the stockholders of the North American to be held October 3:

It is proposed that the surplus of each institution over and above the amount of its capital stock and surplus, as stated below, shall be distributed to the respective stockholders. The capital stock and surplus immediately prior to the consolidation will then be as follows:

North American Savings Company, capital $1,000,000; surplus, $1,000,000.

Ft. Pitt National bank, capital, $200,000; surplus, $200,000.

Fifth National bank, capital, $100,000; surplus, $100,000.

The plan is to increase the capital stock of the Ft. Pitt National bank to $1,000,000, consisting of 10,000 shares of the par value of $100 each, and to reduce the capital of the North American Savings Company to $300,000.

The $700,000 of the capital stock of the North American Savings Company, with a like amount of surplus will be exchanged for Ft. Pitt bank stock of the same value. This arrangement will leave 30 per cent of the present holdings of each stockholder of the North American Savings Company stock in his hands, and 70 per cent to be exchanged for Ft. Pitt bank stock.

The Fifth National bank stock, consisting of $100,000 capital and $100,000 surplus, will be exchanged for Ft. Pitt bank stock, share for share, and the Fifth National bank shall cease to exist. The situation after the consolidation will be as follows:

Ft. Pitt National bank, capital stock, $1,000,000; surplus, $1,000,000.

North American Savings Company, capital stock $300,000; surplus, $300,000.

The North American Savings Company will continue to carry on its business as a savings institution and trust company at its present location, and the Ft. Pitt National bank will acquire and carry on its business in the building now occupied by the Fifth National bank, 220 Fourth avenue.

Death Entered a Gay Party.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—(Special.)—While laughing and chatting with a party of friends returning from Coney Island, Mary Doyle, 25 years old, of Brooklyn, died suddenly on a Coney Island car. She was on her way home early this morning and arose to let some inside passengers off as the car came to a standstill. She sank back into her seat apparently in a faint.

BIG STEEL DEAL MAY MEAN MUCH

Interest Felt in Monessen Company's Purchase from the Republic.

GENERAL IRON TRADE NEWS

The principal event of the iron and steel market locally for many months became public yesterday when it was learned that the Pittsburgh Steel Company had contracted with the Republic Iron and Steel Company for 10 months' supply of billets. The details of this deal are told elsewhere in this issue.

The great interest shown in this is due to two features. These are the loss of a big piece of business to the United States Steel Corporation and the low price made for the business with the resulting effect on the market. The weakening of the market because of the selling of the billets at a price which means about $16 25, Monessen, will be overcome, it is believed, by the fact that the Republic company is taken out of the general billet market for some 10 months to come. The remainder of its product will be needed to care for its own finished lines.

There have been marked indications of the pig iron market strengthening for a couple of weeks past. Bessemer is quoted at from $12 25 to $12 35, valley furnaces and some sales of considerable size have been made on that basis within the past week. Basic is quoted at $11 75 to $12 at the furnaces, and No. 2 foundry is placed at $11 75 to $12.

The billet market continues unsteady, despite the repeated statements that association prices are being obtained. It is safe to say that new business is being obtained only on a reduction of about $2 a ton below the pool price of $23. The sliding scales on which the old contracts are placed would bring the price to about $21 a ton.

In the finished lines there are few changes. The pool prices are being obtained steadily, although there is not so heavy a demand in many lines as would be wished. The proportion of the American Sheet and Tin Plate Company's capacity in operation now is about 60 per cent. The plants in the Allegheny valley have resumed after a close down of some length. The settlement of the company's trouble with the Amalgamated association on a satisfactory basis has cleared up the doubts of the management as to the future.

Wire Business Is Good.

The wire business continues good, as does the tube demand. The demand for structural is at least normal and while many of the big contracts are still unlet the indications are that the next few months will see a very large volume of structural placed under contract.

Below are given current quotations on various lines of iron and steel:

Bessemer pig iron—A ton, $12 25 to $12 35, valley furnaces.

No. 2 foundry iron—A ton, $11 75 to $12, furnaces.

Basic—A ton, $11 75 to $12, furnaces.

Billets—Bessemer and open hearth association price, $23, market about $2 lower.

Muck bar—A ton, $25, Pittsburgh.

Steel rails, etc.—Standard sections, 50 pounds and over, in lots of 500 tons and over, $28; carlots and less than 500 tons, $20; less than carlots, $33; 16 and 20 pounds, $23 00@25 00; 40 pounds, $23 00@25 00; hexagon nuts, $2 40@2 45; fish plates, $1 60 on orders accompanying large rail contracts, otherwise $1 80@1 85 is asked.

The Hardware Market.

The hardware market is sharing with the metal market some of the good things, inasmuch as hardware business, if anything, is moving along in a little better manner than the usual summer months' business. Good orders for general lines and quite a good many orders for season goods continue to come in; orders for future shipments are coming along in very good shape, the trade evidently getting ready for a good fall business, which all indications promise. This seems like wise action, as the probabilities are that some lines will be scarce later in the season, and some other lines are liable to be slightly higher than the present prices. A very good business continues in bicycle sundries and bicycles, showing that the height of the season is now on and that the demand for repairs and wheels is good. Prices in general lines seem firm, no recent changes having been received. The Bindley Hardware Company furnishes the following quotations:

Columbia pocket knives, discount 35 per cent; Albion hatchets, discount 50 per cent; Bindley canal shovels, $6 50 a dozen; Great Western files, discount 70 and 10 per cent; sheet iron, base, No. 26, $2 85 a 100 pounds; galvanized sheet iron, discount 70 and 10 per cent; sash weights, a ton, $27; window glass, L. C. L., 90 and 15 per cent from list October 1, 1903; Albion sewing machines, discount, 25 per cent; blue and white enameled ware, 60 and 10 per cent; Albion gas stoves, discount 40 per cent.

NUMEROUS TRANSACTIONS STIMULATE IRON MARKET

The Principal Events of the Week Were the Closing of Large Contracts.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—The Iron Age will tomorrow say, in reviewing the past week in the iron trade:

The principal event of the week has been the closing of contracts for 110,000 tons of standard Bessemer pig for delivery over 10 months, beginning in September, to the Pittsburgh Steel Company, a large maker of wire products. Of this amount 50,000 tons was sold by the Bessemer Furnace association, 25,000 tons by M. A. Hanna & Co., and the balance by outside interests. The pig iron will be converted into billets at the Youngstown steel plant of the Republic Iron and Steel Company, the Pittsburgh Steel Company not having a steel plant. The transaction is significant because it brings a large tonnage to the valley merchant iron furnaces, and thus will to some extent relieve the pressure from that quarter. There is reported further the purchase of 25,000 tons of Bessemer pig iron by a Wheeling foundry. The same concern which has the first part of the order for the Pennsylvania tunnel castings is in the market for 35,000 tons additional. There seems still to be some uncertainty concerning the second half of the second tunnel castings order, and the pig iron for it does not appear to have been covered. The iron for the first half was given to one furnace in New Jersey and two in the Lehigh valley.

Aside from these larger transactions there have been a series of smaller sales at Pittsburgh and there has been quite some activity in the Chicago market. There have been some good sales, including one lot of 12,000 of basic pig, in the east. The complaint is general, however, that these sales, nearly all made by northern furnaces, have been made at low prices, which in many cases are below the cost of production.

In the great consuming territory north of the Ohio and east of the Mississippi river to the Atlantic, the current sales have been practically confined to local furnaces. The south has done very little. Production in Alabama is restricted by the labor troubles, and as shipments are going forward steadily, the position statistically, must be improving considerably. Aside from the large transactions referred to, the buying for foundry purposes is done to cover only requirements for pressing needs, or for the current quarter, the buyers apparently not having abandoned their waiting attitude.

From the finished iron and steel markets come fair reports. There is a modest increase in the tonnage in the majority of lines, but the railroads are still taking material conservatively. As an indication of the amount of work going on, it may be noted that the July sales of the leading structural interest was over 30,000 tons, an unusually large proportion of it being for buildings and miscellaneous structures. The plate trade is reported to be showing some improvement, and the low prices of sheets appear to have attracted buyers. Bar iron is somewhat stronger, particularly in the Chicago market.

VEGETABLES ABUNDANT AND PRICES ARE LOWER

Flour Expected to Go Up Again. Oats Lower—No Change in Groceries.

These are good days for vegetarians. Fine growing weather is ripening the garden products rapidly and the receipts of favorite articles of vegetable diet in Pittsburgh are sufficient to keep prices gently sliding. Yesterday 83 cars of potatoes were in the local yards, all of good quality. Sweet corn is arriving in large quantities and the price is down to 20 and 25 cents a dozen. Cucumbers also took a tumble in quotations yesterday. Tomatoes are 10 cents a basket lower and egg plant is off 25 cents a crate. Apples, plums, peaches and pears are plentiful, with a fair demand.

Yesterday was a dull day, owing to the good times the local grocers were enjoying. In addition to the regular half holiday on Wednesday, observed by the grocers of Bellevue, Avalon, the East End and Wilkinsburg, the grocers of the South Side were away on their annual picnic.

No change of importance was noticed in groceries. A further advance in the price of flour is expected the last of this week as the result of the continued advance in wheat in Chicago. Canned tomatoes are a little easier in price and both tomatoes and corn are selling very well.

The market at the grain exchange was a little firmer than on previous days of this week. The large quantities of hay received forced this price down and dealers report it hard to place the stock. Oats were off a half cent and the demand is rather light. Corn advanced a half cent and seven cars were received yesterday.

HAY, GRAIN AND FEED.

Receipts bulletined: Pennsylvania lines, 17 cars hay, 6 cars oats, 4 cars corn; Baltimore & Ohio railroad, 9 cars hay, 3 cars corn, 2 cars oats, 1 car straw; Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad, 4 cars hay.

Quarrel Over a Woman.

James Serra, an Italian of McKees Rocks, was committed to jail yesterday for court on a charge of pointing firearms and carrying concealed weapons. The complaint was made before Alderman Groetzinger by G. Capristi of 40 Forward street. Capristi claims that on July 9 he objected to Serra's attention to a woman at his home, when Serra threatened to shoot him.

WHEAT IS KEEPING UP ITS ADVANCE

Higher Foreign Cables and Further Damage Reports Were Yesterday's Influence.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—Higher prices in foreign grain markets with additional damage reports from the northwest caused strength in wheat here today. At the close the September option was up ½c. Corn is off 1⅝c. Oats are down ⅝@¾c, and provisions 5c up.

A feeling of hesitancy was manifested in the wheat pit when trading began today. With nearly every large commission house advising customers to look out for a break, the market opened about where it left off yesterday, September being ⅛@¼c lower to a shade higher at 94@94¼c. The long period of advances of the past two weeks were viewed by many traders as having reached the zenith. The feeling in the pit was for the first few minutes somewhat unsettled. Foreign markets, however, were extremely strong, prices for wheat at Liverpool being up 1d compared with last night's close. Advices from the northwest were a repetition of the bullish news received from that section during the past week. Before the end of the first half hour the bull influences had started an active general demand for wheat that resulted in a quick advance, September selling up to 95⅝c. The strength of the cash market here, as well as in outside markets, had considerable influence. At one time No. 1 northern sold here at $1 06. Toward the middle of the session sentiment veered to the bear side, and the market was subjected to heavy liquidation, resulting in a quick decline. The cause of this selling pressure was a statement to a local crop statistician that the reports of damage by rust in the northwest are largely exaggerated. September broke to 93⅝c. On active covering by shorts much of the loss was regained within the last few minutes of trading, the market closing firm with September at 96⅝@96⅞c. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 39,700 bushels. Primary receipts were 848,500 bushels, compared with 687,900 bushels a year ago. Minneapolis and Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 178 cars, against 219 cars last week and 261 cars a year ago.

Heavy liquidation of the September delivery by an influential commission house caused weakness in the corn market. The decline in the price was somewhat remarkable in view of the strength of wheat and of a sharp advance at Liverpool. Weather conditions were favorable, but receipts were small. The market closed weak, with prices near the low point. September opened ⅛@¼c to ⅜@½c lower at 52⅜@53c, sold down to 51½c and closed at 51⅝@51⅞c. Local receipts were 113 cars, with five of contract grade. The action of corn was the dominating influence in the oats market, although favorable crop advices and prospects of increasing receipts helped to induce liberal profit-taking. Trading was of fairly large volume, but was confined chiefly to local operators. September opened ⅛c lower to ⅛c higher at 34⅛@35c, declined to 33⅝c, and closed at 34@34⅛c. Local receipts were 90 cars.

Provisions were firm during the early part of the session on buying by local shorts, but selling credited to packers caused an easier feeling. Higher prices at the yards were responsible for the improved tone at the start. The market closed easier with September pork and lard each down 5c at $12 82½ and $6 90, respectively; ribs were a shade lower at $7 62½.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 107 cars; corn, 216 cars; oats, 208 cars; hogs, 12,000 head.

Coffee and Sugar.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—The market for coffee futures opened steady at unchanged prices to a decline of 5 points, the losses being under moderate liquidation following rather easier European markets and continued large receipts. There was a very fair demand, however, promoted seemingly by predictions for an increase of only about 200,000 bags in the visible supply for the month as compared with an increase of about 450,000 bags for the same month last year, and the market ruled generally steady, closing somewhat irregular, net 5 points lower to 5 points higher. Sales were reported of 36,250 bags, including September at 6.00c; October, 6.10c; December, 6.25@6.30c; March, 6.60c; May, 6.75@6.80c; July, 6.95c. Coffee, spot Rio, steady; mild steady. WILMINGTON, DEL., Aug. 3.—In the United States district court today Judge Bradford signed the decree of foreclosure and order of sale of the local plant of the United States Shipbuilding Company. The local property composed the plant of the Harlan and Hollingsworth Company. No date has been set for the sale.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—At the offices of J. P. Morgan & Co. today it was said that the entire allotment of New York and New England railroad bonds, amounting to $10,000,000, had been alloted to the firm by the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, the lessees. The bonds are for refunding purposes. The bid was $106.777.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—National bank notes received today for redemption, $620,422. Government receipts from internal revenue, $630,584; customs, $1,131,591; miscellaneous, $177,677. Expenditures, $2,190,000.

ECONOMY WORK WILL COST $51,000

This Year's Street Improvements There May Aggregate $175,000.

COAL LAND BRINGS $60,000

Further evidence that the new town of Economy is to become one of the most thrifty and populous suburban centers near Pittsburgh is being added to almost every week. The latest in the way of improvements was the awarding of the contract for $51,000 worth of grading, paving and sidewalks yesterday. The work was given to Thomas Sweeney & Co. by the Real Estate Trust Company, which is in charge of all the property of the Liberty Land Company at Economy and Ambridge. The contract, which must be completed by November 1, calls for the grading and paving of Merchant street from Bryden road to the head of the French Point allotment in Economy, over a mile. There will be 9,400 feet of curbing and an equal amount of sidewalks. During September and October nearly $20,000 more will be spent improving the streets that intersect Merchant street, some of which have never been opened. This will bring into market the few remaining business corners in Merchant street, which are only a few rods from where buildings costing $25,000 each are now being erected. Probably no property that has been laid out for years in the vicinity of Pittsburgh is backed by so liberal a business policy as Economy and Ambridge. The Liberty Land Company appropriated $175,000 for improving the Economy holdings this year. Of this amount $50,000 has been spent on sewers and $55,000 in a water system, besides the $51,000 now to be spent in street improvements. Next year the company has arranged to spend $100,000 more improving the Economy property. The natural advantages of the property, including its magnificent views, easy grades, pure water and convenient location, added to the costly improvements being provided and the great stimulus that the immense works of the American Bridge Company will give to it, assure for Economy a most rapid and substantial growth.

Coal Tract Sells for $60,000

Through the agency of W. B. Rath of the Land Title and Trust Company another good tract of coal land has passed into the hands of a syndicate of local operators. It is known as the Hartley holdings and consists of 200 acres of land near Thornburg station, on the Pittsburgh, Chartiers & Youghiogheny railroad. The property brought $60,000, or $300 an acre. The coal is a six-foot vein of Pittsburgh drift coal and is the only tract in this locality that is not already in the hands of large coal interests. Work will be started at once on buildings and improvements so that the coal may be operated this fall. The land itself is level and improved with good farm buildings. At least one-half of it will be laid out next spring in acre and two-acre plots, for which there is a demand. The farm extends back to the Plinn macadamized road, giving it easy access to the city.

The Townsend Apartments is the name of the first building of this nature to be erected in Townsend street. It will occupy a lot 72x100 feet near Wylie avenue, and will be owned by Ella G. and Mary B. Maloney. Plans for the building are now being prepared by Architects Nirdlinger & Simpson. It will be a three-story fireproof structure, having the first floor used for store purposes and the upper floors divided into 42 flats of four rooms each. The building will cost $35,000 and will be started by September 1.

The same architects have revised plans for the hotel which J. S. Wilson of the Jeremy Catering Company and F. Joyce are preparing to build in Ferry street, directly opposite the new Wabash passenger terminal. The hotel will be only five stories high instead of eight, as at first contemplated, and will be 42x280 feet. There will be 20 rooms with a bar and offices on the first floor. The site is now occupied by two old brick buildings.

Operating at Lorain.

James L. Davenny who is the head of the Lorain Land and Building Company with a capital of $75,000 has just returned from Lorain, O., where he has been superintending the operations of the company. He recently bought 131 lots, 30x140 feet each, for the company at an average of $600 each. These will be improved with 131 frame houses of six rooms each. Ten of these houses are now under roof and seven more have been contracted for. The demand for houses for the employes of the National Tube Company is such that every [illegible] of the houses started has already been [illegible] at $1,500 each. It is estimated that [the] town of Lorain will have a population of [illegible]0,000 people within two years.

[An] interesting question came up yesterday in connection with the sale of an Allegheny property. When the property was sold several weeks ago a case for damages resulting from street improvements was pending. No definite agreement was entered into between buyer and seller as to who should get the damages in case any were awarded. Recently the viewers decided that the property was damaged $1,000 by the improvements and the former owner of the property claimed the money. Inasmuch as the later owner in the absence of a specific agreement at the time of sale would have to pay the benefits if any had been assessed it is claimed by most real estate men that he is also entitled to the damages.

TO SEEK A FORTUNE BY THE ADVICE OF SPIRITS

Due to information he says he received from a spiritualist, and reinforced by answers to his prayers for advice, Benjamin Hitchcock, aged 76, better known as "Daddy" Hitchcock, is to leave his houseboat which he has occupied for 10 years on the river bank near Sharpsburg, and journey to Europe, where he believes a $30,000 legacy awaits him. He believes an aunt, Miss Sarah Hitchcock, who lived in Worcestershire, died 35 years ago and left the legacy to him, and that he has been defrauded. He sails for Liverpool on August 13. Before going to Sharpsburg he was superintendent of the Open Door mission on Fourth avenue, and was for several years wharfmaster on the Allegheny near Forty-third street.

Texans Nominate Gov. Lanham.

HOUSTON, TEX., Aug. 3.—Gov. Lanham was unanimously nominated for governor of Texas by the Democratic state convention here today. The platform indorses the resolutions of the St. Louis national convention, and strongly commends the candidacy of Parker and Davis. It opposes boycotting in any form and interference with free labor. Asset currency is denounced. The state is asked to purchase the site of the historic Alamo.

NEWS FROM THE MINES.

Notwithstanding adverse reports, the Chinese coolies are doing satisfactory work in the South African mines, according to officials of the East Rand Proprietary mines, which employ 1,000 of them. The importation of every 1,000 coolies involves a capital expenditure of £25,000.

A dispatch from Helena, Mont., says: "Superintendent F. H. Wilson of the Hypocka Company, who appeared before the board of equalization in connection with the inquiry as to the loss of $17,972 in operating the Minnie Healy mine during the past year, testified that the failure of the mine to yield a profit was due entirely to Amalgamated. The underground war has been most destructive to the workings of the mine, and as a consequence the cost of mining ore had almost doubled. About this time a lean streak was encountered in the ore body. He claimed that several months ago workmen in the Pennsylvania blew up the slopes in the 700 and 800-foot levels, which prevented reaching the ore bodies again for about three weeks. All the richest ore bodies of the mine were in the portion from which the mines were kept for so long a period by this action of Amalgamated miners. An accountant was appointed to examine the books of the Hypocka Mining Company. Superintendent Wilson made strenuous objections to the court allowing a man to enter the mine and take samples for the purpose of assaying them, as he did not wish to furnish information for the benefit of the Amalgamated Company. He declared that tests would not be fair, as the ore values had increased considerably in recent operations. Up to the 600-foot level the average value was $3 to $3 50 a ton, but below that it has now increased to about $6."

At the office of the Tennessee Copper Company it is stated that the regular dividend will be declared some time during the latter part of this month. President Channing is at present in Tennessee, the Lewisohns are out of town and it is not likely that a quorum can be gotten before August 15.

Arrangements have been made with the management of the Newhouse tunnel to drive the drifts on the Addudel vein from the tunnel level, both east and west. The work will be done by contract, which will be awarded next week. The vein, where it was encountered by the tunnel, is 20 feet in width, six feet of which is milling ore of a good grade. The depth from the surface on the pitch of the vein is 2,180 feet, and it is the intention to connect with the Addudel shaft by making a raise.

The Masontown Mining and Milling Company started up milling operations on its property at Frisco, in Summit county, June 1. This company was organized by A. E. Keables, a well-known mining man of Denver. Associated with him in the ownership of the company are J. V. Hoover of Masontown, Pa., who is president of the company, and S. R. Provnis of Greensboro, Pa., as treasurer. These gentlemen purchased the Victoria group of mines from Lars Mattson of Frisco, lately deceased. After having various tests made on the ore which proved it to be amenable to the cyanide treatment, a stamp mill and cyanide plant was commenced.

At Silverton the report is current that the quarterly dividend of the Gold King Consolidated Company is to be passed and the money may be invested in permanent improvements. This dividend ranges from $60,000 to $90,000 a quarter. The main office of the company is in Boston, and much of the stock is held by citizens of Maine. The Gold King is one of Colorado's big mines.

It is reported by the Seaman Assay Company of El Paso, Texas, that the ore from the 300 and 400-foot levels of the Gold Bug mine, at Turret, Colo., operated by the Par Value Consolidated Company of Pittsburgh goes $43 10 and $162 a ton, respectively. These are the best assays yet received from the property. Mr. R. F. Stratton, superintendent of the property, who was in Pittsburgh last week consulting with the directors and the management of the company, has returned to the west.

The Metal Market.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Tin was a little easier, closing at $27 00@27 20 in the local market, while in London prices were also a little lower, closing at £123 for spot and £123 7s 6d for futures. Copper is meeting with but light demand at the moment and prices show an easier tendency. London closed at £56 15s for spot and £56 17s 6d for futures. Locally, Lake Superior is quoted at $12 50@12 75; electrolytic at $12 50@12 75, and casting at $12 25@12 50. Lead was unchanged at $4 20@4 25 in the New York market and at £11 12s 9d in London. Spelter also was unchanged in both markets. Here it is quoted at $4 85@4 95 and the London price stands at £22 2s 6d. Iron closed at 51s 9d in Glasgow and at 42s 10½d in Middlesboro. Locally iron was unchanged. No. 1 foundry northern is quoted at $14 00@14 50; No. 2 foundry northern at $13 75@14 00; No. 1 foundry southern and No. 1 foundry southern, soft, at $13 50@13 75.

SKILLED WORKERS HURT.

Foreigners at Edgar Thomson Mills Drop Bricks on Them.

The management of the Edgar Thomson furnaces at Braddock is much concerned over numerous injuries to skilled mechanics in their employ, due to carelessness of malicious intent on the part of foreigners.

A new stove is being erected with a gang of foreigners at work on a scaffold 35 feet high, who have caused bricks and iron to fall on skilled workmen employed on the lower part of the stove. No less than five were seriously injured last week.

STORM RAISED BY BISHOP POTTER

Opening of "Moral" Saloon Brings Vigorous Protests from Temperance People.

CAUSES DISSENSION IN CHURCH

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Bishop Potter has brought the house tumbling down about his head, for his attendance at the formal opening of a saloon at Bleecker and Mulberry streets, yesterday, and the part he took in the ceremonies. The bishop agrees with certain members of the City club, who are anxious to vie with the English Earl Grey, in his efforts to promote temperance by purifying the saloon atmosphere and selling good liquor at low prices.

Bishop Potter is not alone among prominent churchmen in his stand on this question, however. The archbishop of Canterbury gave his indorsement to the efforts of Earl Grey in the same cause and in this country Bishop Fallows of Illinois has given his official sanction to the manufacture of pure beer, and even engaged in the business for a time. But there are other bishops and clergymen, and, in addition, Prohibitionists, who are shocked at his opinions and his conduct. The first shot was fired from Asbury Park yesterday, and Dr. Potter's next assailant is Bishop Isaac Lee Nicholson of Milwaukee, who says:

"Bishop Potter's whole connection with the affair has been disgraceful, and I am personally humiliated over his work."

Causes Dissension in Church.

From Columbus, O., from Supt. Baker, comes the cry that "the element of evil is there as much as in other saloons," and the scheme is also condemned by Robert Graham of the Church Temperance society. Mr. Graham, the foremost temperance worker in the Episcopal church, and who 23 years ago founded the Church Temperance society, of which he has been active manager ever since, is wroth with Bishop Potter for his stand in favor of the subway saloon.

"I am certain that Bishop Potter has made a great mistake," said Mr. Graham today, "and if the members of the Church Temperance society and its board of managers were not scattered on their summer vacations, I would call a meeting of the society or of the board instanter to attempt some action.

"Bishop Potter by his attitude is going directly against the work of this society for the 23 years of its existence. The storm aroused by his action will grow. Just as soon as I can get the board of managers together there will be a meeting to act upon the subject.

"A most unwise feature, in my opinion, is the woman's department, where beer is to be sold to women at a soda fountain. Certainly it is a mistake to encourage drinking by women."

Distroys Temperance Sentiment.

Even the Rev. Dean Richmond Babbitt, rector of the Church of the Epiphany, Brooklyn, who was ordained by Bishop Potter, has been unable to keep silent and says that he "utterly dissents from the bishop and his temperance conferees. Maybe the bishop meant well," he says, "but thousands of that class of people who are only waiting for the approval of some high church official to brush them from their tottering positions on the fence between sobriety and inebriety, will take a quick cue, and tumble over into the drinking class."

In giving two reasons for his dissent, Dean Babbitt says:

"First, as the scheme is outlined by the director, it undermines, neutralizes and even destroys temperance sentiment by adopting and sanctioning the public sale of spirituous liquors for profit, such liquors to be used as a beverage.

"Second, it throws over the principles of true temperance, in that the system makes so a public place, a saloon, in which to drink, and adds to the attractions of the ordinary saloons, better liquor and cheaper prices, and with as many other attractions to help bring in the wayfarer as possible, to a fair return on investments at 5 per cent.

"Granted that the main impulse to enter these moral drinking houses is the desire of drink, then the plan is to get as many to drink pure, cheap wine, beer and even whisky as all attractions above the regular competing saloon can effect. It admits the right of the saloon and goes it many better in attractions and pure liquor, sells honest and does not poison as much. I cannot see that the establishment of this Earl Grey system betters temperance, but I do say, I think that it may do much injury."

Dr. Swallow Also Protests.

HARRISBURG, Aug. 3.—(Special.)—"While I have no doubt of the sincerity of Bishop Potter, I am profoundly convinced that he is committing a grevious error that will live long after he has passed away," said the Rev. Dr. Silas C. Swallow, the Prohibition nominee for president, today, in speaking of the action of Bishop Potter in consecrating a "model saloon" in New York.

"The bishop has associated with a class of well-poised people of self-restraint, who pride themselves on their ability 'to drink or let it alone,'" continued Dr. Swallow. "I understand that the bishop is one of that kind. Most of them have not been able to let it alone, but restrain themselves to the extent of keeping out of the gutter, though not free upon occasion from the gutteral in their utterances.

"One by one, thousands of these moderate drinkers have become drunkards. They have dropped out of polite society or managed to hide their periods of debauch and, one by one, have gone down to drunkards' graves and the drunkards' perdition.

"Bishop Potter," concluded Dr. Swallow, "has now put himself squarely against the employers of labor, notably the railroads, the country over, who refuse to continue in service men who frequent drinking places. He has put himself also against the young manhood of the country."

RUSSELL SAGE TO WORK TO THE END

Will Not Even Take a Vacation on His 88th Birthday Anniversary.

GIVES HIS IDEAS ON RICHES

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Russell Sage announced today that he would celebrate his 88th birthday tomorrow in the usual way, which means that he will not do anything elaborate in the way of celebration. In spite of his advanced age Mr. Sage is still very active and gives regular attention to the conduct of his business.

He said today that he is still firm in the belief that vacations are not needed. When asked whether he did not intend soon to retire from business, Mr. Sage said:

"I don't believe in quitting business as Mr. Carnegie did. I'm going to stay in the business to the end. The older a person gets the more valuable is his experience. I owe it to myself and to those connected with me in business to keep at work. Idleness is unhappiness. Its effect is the same on millionaire and peasant. The one tries to cajole himself with yachts, with horses, with gaieties. Having done all this he has nothing left. He is surfeited with his own abundance. The other sees the glitter of the show in which he has no share. He imagines he should have been born with riches. One has inherited wealth and cultivated idleness. The other has inherited poverty and idleness has made him still poorer. Both are equally wretched.

"It is the man born with a heritage of poverty and with an indomitable will to rise above it who acquires wealth and happiness at the same time. Year in, year out, I have toiled incessantly. My work is my pride. My pride in my work is my pleasure. My life was not mapped out for me. I mapped it out for myself. I had everything to strive for. I accomplished what I set out to accomplish.

"The man who inherits millions has his destiny in his own hands. Unfortunately his goal is too often a search for pleasure. At middle age he is satiated. Work has on charm for him, because he has never cultivated the charm of work. His health suffers. He has no time to think of others. He is wrapped in the mantle of his own discontent and if he has a true sense of what his martyrdom will mean to his successor he will leave him millions—to strive for."

SMALL COIN IS NEEDED.

Philadelphia Mint Will Turn Out Monthly $25,000,000 in Cents and Nickels.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 3.—Successful experiments in the manufacture of copper blanks, from which cents are stamped at the United States mint in this city, will render unnecessary the reduction in the force which it was expected would go into effect there in September. With this innovation the mint will have sufficient work to employ all of its 600 workers, with the exception of 50 women, throughout the year. Heretofore the government has bought its supply of blanks from private concerns.

The mint here is the only one in the United States which makes cents and nickels, and there will be a record-breaking production of those coins from September to December. The mint will devote itself exclusively to this coinage, and $25,000,000 will be turned out each month. In the last four months of the year the demand for subsidiary coin is so great that the $100,000,000, it is estimated, will be exhausted by February.

This has been a record-breaking year at the mint. In one month more gold was coined than in any other similar time. Since January $117,000,000 in gold has been turned out, most of which has been forwarded to sub-treasuries. In the vaults at the present time are 100,000,000 silver dollars held as collateral for silver certificates.

DEATH RATE WAS LOW.

Pittsburgh's Mortuary Report for Last Week Shows a Marked Decrease.

There were 121 deaths in the city last week as against 163 the previous week and 149 the same week last year. The death rate was only 17.77. The principal causes were: Typhoid fever, 10; diarrhoea, 24; consumption, 8; pneumonia, 6; heart disease, 6, and violence, 8.

During the week there were reported 78 cases of typhoid fever, six of scarlet fever and 22 of diphtheria. Eight cases of typhoid fever and four of scarlet fever were reported yesterday.

A NEW WRINKLE IN FIREWORKS

Purveyors of amusements in Pittsburgh are busy at work arranging for programs for the mid-summer enjoyment of the stay-at-homes. Tonight has been set aside as Shriners' night at Pain's "Burning of Rome" performance. A large fire picture of the Potentate, W. S. Brown, will be burned. Tomorrow night being ladies' and children's night, a photograph of some prominent society woman will be burned. Tonight will also witness Pains newest spectacle, entitled "The Bombardment of Port Arthur." This new fire scene is said to eclipse anything Mr. Pain has ever undertaken in the line of pyrothecnic pictures.

Vance and Sullivans new sensational melodrama, "The Lighthouse by the Sea" will be presented next week at the Bijou. The play is said to begin with action that is calculated to wildly enthuse those susceptible to sensational situations, but relaxes its grip in this respect at times, with a plentifulness of comedy, and has to do with the working out of the plot. It is said that a strong story of love, romance and adventure is told in the acting; while the play is produced on a scale of generous magnificence as regards scenery and accessories.

Edward F. Bush's Bon Tons are underlined for next week at the Academy. In addition to the usual olio, amongst whom are such well known artists as Williams and Adams; the Three Livingstons, acrobats; The Simpsons, premier musical artists; Grace Leonard, comedienne, and a chorus of 60. The program contains two musical extravaganzas, "Parisian Jamboree" and "A Wild Night," by Frank Kennedy. The scenery and costumes used in both burlesques are said to be the handsomest seen in any production ever made in the burlesque houses.

In reply to numerous inquiries, the management of the New Exposition states that the Boys' Symphony orchestra, engaged for one week during the coming season, can in no wise be classed as an amateur organization. On the contrary, its performances bear every stamp of that finish and maturity that are property of the masters. In the string section, especially, do these boys excel. Their intonation is excellent and their tone rich and full. Every member of the Boys' orchestra has been a prize pupil of some eastern instructor, whose reputation is not confined to the limits of our own country. Their conductor, A. F. Pinto, has an enviable reputation as composer.

The trolley parks will have band concerts and a lot of special features next Sunday. Calhoun park will have the Regina Elina Italian band for both concerts Sunday, and with the band will be all of the Marion and Pearls minstrels, who will furnish a lot of good vocal music. At Oakwood park the Knights of Pythias band will play two well-arranged programs, and the H. J. Lindsay quartet will sing. Mrs. Carrie Nation will address the crowds at Southern park both afternoon and evening on Sunday. The Second Brigade band will give both concerts during the intermissions of which Mrs. Nation will speak. The concerts at Kennywood will be given by the big Bellevernon Italian band, of Bellevernon, Pa., and a big excursion will come down the Monongahela on the steamer Mayflower with the band.

KIDNAPED DANISH CHILD IS RESCUED IN CHICAGO

Said to Have Been Brought to America by Foster Parents—Father Is a Rich Merchant.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

COPENHAGEN, DEMARK, Aug. 3.—The following are the facts in the case of Elsie Gellert, the Danish child, said to be on her way from Chicago to New York in charge of a representative of the Danish consul general in New York, who is alleged to have rescued her from kidnapers who demanded $200,000 ransom: Elsie Gellert, who is about 4 years old, had been in the care of Wilhelm Jensen and his wife for over two years at Fredericia, Island of Jutland. They loved the child and when this summer Gellert, the father of Elsie, wanted to take the child home again the Jensens were inconsolable, whereupon Gellert relented and permitted the child to remain one month with her foster parents, who said they would go to Nestved, Island of Seeland. Instead of so doing they fled to America. When Gellert discovered their flight, he instituted proceedings against them on the charge of kidnaping. Jensen, who is a former fish merchant, and his wife are considered to be respectable people.

Gellert, according to a Chicago dispatch, is one of the richest men in Denmark and one of his estates is said to be situated at Fredericia. Jensen, according to the story, was formerly Gellert's valet. Detectives are reported to have traced the Jensens through New York, Erie, Buffalo and Cleveland, and finally, to Chicago, where they were, according to the dispatch from Chicago, arrested by Chief of Police O'Neil. The child is understood to be on her way to New York in charge of George Beck, representing the Danish consul general, who in turn is understood to be acting under the orders of the Danish minister at Washington.

PARIS, Aug. 3.—The engagement is announced of Count Camille de Borchgrave D'Altena to Miss Ruth Reilly of Philadelphia.

MRS. MARY A. JAHN FILES DEMURRER

Divorced Wife of Dr. Martin Lappe Asks for an Injunction Against Him.

MATHILDE BRUENING'S WILL

In the equity suit of C. F. Minehart against J. Henry Jahn and others for the cancellation of the satisfaction of a mortgage, claimed to have been secured by fraud, and the reinstatement of the mortgage against the property, Mrs. Mary A. Jahn filed a demurrer. She avers the bill shows no interest upon her part in the subject matter whatever.

An execution based on a contract, the terms of which were defaulted by the defendants, was issued yesterday by M. H. Pickering against J. Henry Jahn and his wife, Mary A., for $382.82.

Judge Frazer, in the appeal of Martin Bishop and his wife Mary from the decision of Burgess W. D. Barr of Espien, who fined each 50 and costs or 90 days to the workhouse, reduced Bishop's fine to $10 and wiped out the sentence upon the woman. As a result of contention between the Bishops on the one hand and the burgess and Policeman W. R. Tyler and William P. Bailey on the other, several cross suits are pending.

Edward Noll, doing business as the Noll Transfer Company of Allegheny, filed a petition in bankruptcy. He gives his liabilities as $8,797.43, with assets of $6,027.08.

Mrs. E. Lavinia Lappe of Baltimore was granted a preliminary injunction restraining her divorced husband, Dr. Martin Lappe, Francis J. Schaub and J. S. Stentz from disposing of a $3,600 note and assignment, which she says was given her by the doctor in lieu of alimony upon their divorce. A hearing will be held on September 10.

The will of Mathilde Bruening of Pittsburgh leaves $150,000 personalty and $10,000 realty to two sons, Frederick H. and Maxamilian Bruening in equal shares. The following appears in the will: "I make no provision in this will for my husband, Joseph Bruening, because I expect to survive him, and in the event that I do not his share in my estate is protected by laws of our domicile, the state of Pennsylvania, aforesaid." Attorney S. S. Robertson represents the estate.

John Kroesen of Allegheny leaves $1 each to three sons, John O., William B. and James C. Kroesen, and the residue of an $8,000 estate to three daughters and Mary Francis Shiring.

Judge Rodgers granted a writ of mandamus in pursuance of an agreement of the parties in the suit of Thomas A. Coleman against the borough of Wilkinsburg and Walter Elder, clerk of the borough, to compel the borough to issue Coleman a building permit.

The following executions were issued: E. H. Cockerell, use, vs. J. Goodall et al., $291.87; A. B. Shuster vs. George Pardick, $67.81; Thomas J. Maxey, use, vs. Arnold Artho, $2,500; Bank of Secured Savings, use, vs. John C. Moeller et al., $1,261.17.

In the suit of John Murphy against M. K. McMullin & Co., the plaintiff filed a replication in which he denies that on June 20, 1903, he authorized the defendant company to purchase 20 shares of the Farmers Deposit National bank for $35,002.50.

A libel in divorce was entered by Catherine Giesenkamp against John W. Giesenkamp. The libel sets forth that they were married on February 6, 1867, and that they lived together until November 14, 1899, when he deserted her. Other bills were: Ella Wier Waddell against Robert F. Waddell, Jr., charging desertion, and Estelle D. Farnsworth against Edwin R. Farnsworth, charging desertion.

E. A. Wilber has entered suit against Edward Butterworth to recover $12. He says he contracted with the defendant to make him a full set of teeth, which afterward proved unsatisfactory, falling out when the plaintiff "talked or sang." The defendant, it is alleged, then told him they were on a temporary plate and wanted $6 more to supply permanent plates.

Before Commissioner William T. Lindsay in the United States district court testimony was taken in the case of the Evansville Contracting Company of Evansville, Ind., against the United States engineering department. The plaintiff company has sued for about $59,000 alleged to be due for concrete work done on lock No. 6 in the Ohio river. They claim their contract called for the work for which they are suing.

NEW GRAND JURY.

Members Who Will Serve at the September Term Are Named.

The grand jury for the September term of court was named yesterday as follows:

McMasters, clerk, Braddock.

"NOT ON YOUR LIFE."

Thus Sully Resents Lawyer's Plea That He Is Broken in Spirit.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—After a stormy meeting today the creditors of D. J. Sully & Co. decided that the estate must be administered by the trustees, and that they would withdraw their assent to the composition agreement. The failure to agree was brought about by Mr. Sully himself, who again raised the point about the expenses of the administration. It was on this that the two sides split.

The creditors represented were not ready to take up any part of the burden of the administrative fees and Sully's attorney, Mr. Bos Passos, tried to appeal to their sympathy. "Look at this man," said the attorney, pointing to Sully; "he is bankrupt; broken in purse; broken in spirit."

"Not on your life," vigorously interrupted Sully.

It Was Stomach Trouble Not Heart Disease or Dropsy

Symptoms of This Distressing Disease Which Is So Little Understood By Sufferers. Testimonial of Mr. Wetzo, Showing How Catarrh of the Stomach Is Cured By Doctor Byers.

The symptoms of stomach disease not only vary in different individuals, but in the same individual at different times; the appetite may be lost, increased or perverted. There is weight, dull pain and a sense of burning in the pit of the stomach after taking food, accompanied by flatulence, heartburn, gastralgia, constipation or diarrhoea, a dull headache, languor, depression of spirits and irritability of temper. Indiscretion in eating and drinking, and exercise or exposure in dyspeptics are apt to occasion sick headaches. It is frequently accompanied by bitter taste in the mouth, bilious vomiting and sluggish bowels; this is called BILIOUS ATTACK. There is frequent regurgitation of a thin, watery saline fluid, preceded by epigastric pains. Sometimes there is pain at the heart, accompanied by palpitation and shortness of breath, making the patient think he has the heart disease.

Accompanying some cases there is dizziness, ringing in the ears, spots before the eyes and other sensations which together are called "stomachic vertigo." These patients hear a buzzing sound and feel as if a vapor were enveloping them; they grow pale and grasp for support through fear of falling. When in any case "indigestion" has lasted a long time chronic gastric catarrh will always be developed, evidences of malnutrition show themselves by anemia, premature old age, corrugations of the nails, decay of the teeth, etc. Again there is a short, dry cough and occasional paroxysms of an asthmatic character. The skin becomes sallow, dry and rough, and various eruptions appear.

Doctor W. C. Byers, Graduate Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia.

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH CURED BY DOCTOR BYERS

Mr. John Wetzo, 75 Ontario St., Allegheny, says: "My stomach troubled me so much and I got so weakened down that I could hardly do my work. Frequently when I got home from work I had to get my wife to apply hot cloths to my abdomen to relieve the awful soreness. My abdomen would swell up and become so painful I could not bear my clothes to touch me. My appetite failed and what little I ate caused great pain. The pain would reach up to my heart and make me feel that my heart was affected. I fell away so in flesh and strength and was so weak I could hardly work. My bowels wouldn't move, my sleep was disturbed and I would get up in the morning as tired and aching and sore as if I had worked all night instead of being in bed.

"I frequently had spells of rumbling in my bowels just as if water was splashing around in there and I feared dropsy had set in until Doctor Byers explained that it was caused by an accumulation of gas, the result of my food not digesting. A friend took me over to Doctor Byers' office and under his treatment all these distressing conditions have disappeared. The soreness has gone out of my stomach, my appetite has returned, I am gaining in strength and flesh, I sleep well and feel refresned in the morning. I say to my friends if you are sick Doctor Byers is the doctor to go to, his charge is reasonable and he is good and kind to you."

$500 REWARD! FOR WOMEN WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

The Vice-President Independent Order of Good Templars.

An experience which many women have was related by Miss Agnes Stebbings, of 231 East 30th Street, New York City, as follows: "I had very poor health for a year until life looked dark and dreary to me. Had headaches, backache, also pain, my sleep was broken and fitful. I longed for health. Tried several medicines but none were of any lasting benefit until I took Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I soon realized that I had found the right remedy. It helped nature to throw off the poisons that saturated the system, removed all pains and strengthened the digestive organs, and brought the roses of health back to my cheeks. This medicine if taken occasionally keeps the system in perfect condition, helping it to throw off the disease and consequences of exposure to dampness. I am pleased to give it my endorsement."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps for the paper-covered book, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
